ADVICE TO THE IRISH.—John Mitchell has written a letter in which he states that, "for three years I have been laboring in my sphere of journalism to break up the Democratic party. It is impossible any longer to belong to a party which is dead and gone, the soul having gone out of it, and the very body torn from limb to limb. If I had any credit with my fellow countrymen I should exhort them to seek new combinations,—to isolate themselves no longer as the Irish vote—to merge in the several organizations of their fellow-citizens, and be guided in all public affairs by their own views of right and the political interests of the community in which they live. For example I should wish to see Irish citizens of Northern States acting with the party which desires a protective tariff for home industry, and also the largest possible extent of territory for the field of free labor. If the South feel aggrieved—as she well may—she has her remedy."

☞ The anniversary of our American Independence will be celebrated at North Elba. An oration will be delivered on the rock overshadowing the resting place of John Brown, the hero and martyr to principles he deemed just and equitable. It is expected that most of the surviving members of Brown's family will be present on the occasion. Among the speakers expected are Wendell Phillips and Mr. Garnett. A cordial invitation is extended to all anti-slavery friends, far and near.

The last advices from England have brought intelligence that Great Britain has accepted the sovereignty of the Fejee Islands, which was made to it a short time since. The same offer was made to the United States about three years ago and declined. The result is another proof of the disinterested moderation of England and of the grasping propensity of the United States.

The sovereignty of the Fejee Islands would be as valuable to the U. S. as a quit-claim deed of the Moon.

ACCIDENTS AT FREMONT.—On Friday afternoon last, Mr. Moody Carr had all his fingers sawed off one hand, by being caught in a circular saw. The same afternoon, Mr. P. B. Beede had his arm badly broken. Both of these accidents occurred in the mill of Messrs. Robinson and Whittier.

☞ At the recent reporters' festival at Boston, a sermon was preached from Prov. 15:30. "A good report maketh the bones fat."

LOOK OUT! before you buy your Furnishing Goods, Shirts, Under Shirts, Drawers, Stockings, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery.

LOOK OUT! before you buy Hats and Caps.

LOOK OUT! before you go to take your measure for your Custom Clothing.

GREAT HUMBUG.

The idea that any one can sell CLOTHING FURNISHING GOODS cheaper than

is a great humbug. They buy their Goods in large quantities, and manufacture them under their own supervision. Therefore, no one can compete with them in low prices, who have to buy their Clothing Ready-made.

We have the largest and best Stock of Ready Made Clothing & Furnishing Goods ever offered in Portsmouth; and at the LOWEST PRICES. The whole of which must be disposed of lower than ever before, in order to reduce our immense stock.

It would be impossible to enumerate the different articles in our Store, but we would say that we have COATS varying in price from

50 CENTS TO 15 DOLLARS!

PANTS from

50 CENTS TO 7 DOLLARS!

We have also the largest and best assortment of

Cloths, Doeskins & Cassimeres,

Both plain and fancy, that can be found this side of Boston, which we will

Make to Order in the Very Latest Styles,
AT A VERY LOW PRICE.

We might go on and fill a paper with a description of our goods, but that would not satisfy the public mind nor clothe their backs. If there is any one inclined to doubt our statement, let them call at our store, and they will doubt no longer. The large patronage we have received is proof of our assertion. We have also any quantity of goods for Men's and Boys' wear, to sell by the yard. Also

Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Carpet Bags, And Oil Clothing, and anything needed to make a man comfortable in feeling and respectable in appearance; and what is best of all, it takes but little money to do it at the BIG CLOTHING WAREHOUSE of

MOSES & DOWNIE;
2mos 3 & 37 Market Street.

Sargent's Magic Soap!

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabric.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling; thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst bilge-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It impeccates the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convenience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry.

PEALE'S COURT OF DEATH.
The most elaborate and noted work of Art ever painted by an American Artist, is the 'COURT OF DEATH,' by REMBRANDT PEALE. This painting covers 812 square feet of canvass—contains 23 Life Size Figures, and has never been valued at less than 25,000 Dollars.
It has been gazed upon with admiration and delight by tens of thousands. The subscriber has purchased the painting, and issued a splendid Chromo-Lithographic Engraving of it, presenting a perfect FAC SIMILE COPY of the original painting, WITH ALL ITS BEAUTIFUL COLORS.
The size of the Engraving is 22 by 31 inches, and the price ($1) for which it is offered, is only one-fifth the usual price of similar works—100,000 being issued instead of 5,000, the usual number.—The home of every family in the land should be adorned with this picture, as besides its beauty as an ornament, the lesson it teaches, illustrating the evils of Intemperance and War, and the end of a good—a Christian Life, are invaluable. Mr. PEALE says of the Engraving: "I can certify that it is an accurate and admirable copy of the Original Painting." Testimonials without number, have been received from distinguished Clergymen in praise of the Engraving. Many who receive it, say they would not part with it for ten times its cost, if they could not procure another.
Clergymen and Church Societies supplied in quantities of not less than 20 copies at a time, on very liberal terms.
Terms for 1 copy, $1 and 4 letter stamps, or 5 copies for $4 without stamps. For a letter of Agency stating special terms, and 1 copy, $1 and 6 letter stamps, sent in strong rolls by return mail, with a description. If $4 or more is sent in a letter, get a draft, or have the letter registered. Write the Name, Town, County and State, plainly. Address G. Q. COLTON,

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1860.

IN A QUANDARY.—The Newark, N. J., Evening Journal, speaking of "The Democratic Disruption," says:

The proceedings which led to this unfortunate split have been detailed. * * * Every Democrat must deeply regret with us the disruption of a national organization which has for more than a generation wisely controlled the policy of the country. * *

In due time, the Democratic voters of New Jersey will be called upon to decide, through their regular organization, the course they intend to pursue in the present contest with Black Republicanism. It is highly important that the Lincoln forces should be decisively routed, and the electoral vote of New Jersey for the Democrats may be necessary to effect that object. We rely implicitly upon a National Democratic verdict, and we ask every Democrat to view dispassionately the present state of the country, and decide for himself which of the tickets presented at Baltimore he can consistently support. Which best represents the nationality and integrity of the party? Which makes the squarest issue with the fatal heresy of anti-slavery? Which is the platform bold and manly, and incapable of more than one construction? * * * For the present, not wishing to anticipate, but rather to follow, the healthy public opinion of the Democratic party, we shall cheerfully await its authorized decision.

The next day after publishing the above, the paper came out of the quandary, and hoisted the Breckinridge flag. Another New Jersey paper put up Douglas one day, and the next day took him down, and put up Breckinridge.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—The following cases on the Strafford Docket were disposed of:—

Ezra Harthan vs. James Fernald & als., which has been in Court since July 1848, was struck from the docket. Charles W. Woodman, Master in Chancery, to pay costs of both parties.

In the case of the State against Isaac Farrar, for the abduction of his child, judgment was rendered on the verdict, which was against the defendant, who is under bonds of $1000 to appear for sentence at the next term of the Court.

A motion was made by Smith & Foster, proprietors of the Dover Gazette, for an injunction upon John T. Gibbs, publisher of the Dover Sentinel, to restrain the further publication of the Sentinel, on the ground of infringement upon their property, duly purchased and paid for, in buying the Gazette establishment of said Gibbs and his right to publish a newspaper in Dover. Injunction refused. A temporary injunction was then asked for, which was also refused, and the case continued for futher hearing at the next term.—Dover Enquirer.

☞ Wm. H. Carter, the captain of the schooner Josephine, the arrest of which, as a slaver, we noticed the other day, has been indicted by the Grand Jury in New York. He is supposed to be the same Carter who commanded the sloop Rebecca, of New Orleans, which carried the liberated M'Donough slaves to Liberia, and then engaged himself in the slave trade. On the trial of Carter, if his case ever comes to trial, it is to be hoped that the mysterious voyage and disappearance of the Rebecca will be in some way brought into the inquiry.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE IN CHURCH AFFAIRS.—It is reported that the church of the Puritans (Dr. Cheever's) in New York, have altered their by-laws, allowing female members of the church to vote hereafter on equal terms with men. "This," says the Standard, "will bring a large accession of numerical and moral power to aid in the support of a genuine orthodox anti-slavery pulpit in New York."

☞ One of the census marshals in Franklin county, Tenn., made the acquaintance of a lady seventy-five years old, who built 300 yards of good rock fence within the last year with her own hands; and, what is more, she gathered and carried in her arms all the materials of which the fence is built.

☞ The Worcester police on Monday seized a large quantity of liquor at the freight depot of the Boston and Worcester Railroad, consisting of one pipe of gin, containing one hundred and five gallons, and sixteen casks of rum, each cask containing forty-four gallons. The liquor was all directed to Jeremiah Foley.

☞ The London Times notices the fact that a journeyman printer, a very steady, old man, has recently become the possessor of $200,000, by the decease of an uncle in Australia. He had been employed in the shop where he was working at the time he received the news of his accession to wealth, for more than forty years, without intermission.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—The Traveller's correspondent at Exeter, N. H., writes that a man named Joel Laighton attempted suicide there on Monday night by cutting his throat. He was somewhat intoxicated, and it is supposed he had lost quite a sum of money at play belonging to his employer. It is possible that he may recover.

☞ Two drunken women became engaged in a quarrel in a house of ill-fame in Chicago on the 17th, and one pounded the other on the head with a champagne bottle, inflicting fatal injuries.

☞ John Binns, a famous democratic editor forty years ago, died at Philadelphia last week, aged nearly ninety. He was an Irishman, came to this country in 1800, (leaving for his own, if not his country's good, to save his neck from the halter for being concerned in an Irish rebellion.) He published a paper, called the Democratic Press, for many years in Philadelphia, and was the oracle of his party, until 1824, when supporting John Quincy Adams instead of Gen. Jackson, he lost his influence and retired, and has never been heard of since, until his death.

☞ Harden, the condemned murderer, says in his confession, that he poisoned his wife while she was sitting on his knee even, during the endearments of an apparently loving wife. He kindly invited her to partake of an apple on which he had spread arsenic. She unsuspectingly ate it, remarking that it appeared to have something gritty on it. He replied that it was nothing. She died in a fortnight.

☞ A gentleman in England has sued and recovered damages from a railroad company, who, regardless of their timetable, withdrew, without previous notice, a certain train, advertised to start at a certain time, whereby he suffered pecuniary loss. The court held that the published times for starting were a species of contract, and had been violated.

☞ Mayor Wood, of New York, has entered into a coalition with Dean Richmond to support Douglas, Wood being placed at the head of the State electoral ticket.—Messrs. Tucker, Green and others, of the Mozart Hall Committee, dissent from Wood, and meet July 3d to nominate a Breckinridge electoral ticket.

CHALLENGE FROM A FEMALE PEDESTRIAN.—A young lady on Long Island challenges any young man under twenty-one to a foot-race, and seems to entertain no fear. She evidently thinks it would reflect discredit upon a lady of mature age to "run after" a young man of such tender years.

☞ Mr. H. B. Glidden, of the last class in Bangor Seminary, was ordained as an Evangelist at Westmoreland on the 19th inst., and is to preach there a year.

Rev. Isaac Rogers has suspended his labors at Enfield, N. H., on account of the failure of his health. Letters and papers for him to be directed to Farmington, Me.

RUSH OF SLAVES TO CANADA.—A recent census in Canada shows that there are 45,000 runaway slaves in Canada West at the present time, and that they are coming in at the rate of 10,000 a year. These slaves are assisted by associations, and many of them settle on lands purchased for them.

☞ A number of Indians of the Six Nations have enlisted in one of the English regiments in Canada, in which they acquit themselves as regular soldiers with much credit. This is probably the first instance of North American Indians appearing in the ranks of the British army as regular uniformed soldiers.

☞ The Congregational Journal is publishing a series of excellent papers on Temperance, signed "C." It is to be hoped that they may lead to the formation of a State Temperance Society, which shall hold its annual meeting in company with the General Association, as the N. H. Bible Society does now.

☞ Cranberries may be profitably cultivated on swampy ground that would otherwise be useless. Solon Robinson states that at Cape Cod, where the cranberry culture is carried to its fullest extent, swampy lands that were worthless a few years ago, have now "a saleable value of $800 and $1,200 per acre."

PROJECT FOR A COTTON MILL AT NEW BEDFORD.—At an adjourned meeting of capitalists of New Bedford, held on Saturday, it was decided to establish a cotton mill in that city, of ten thousand spindles, at an estimated cost of $150,000. A committee of ten was appointed to procure subscriptions.

☞ The correspondent of the Tribune says "the rival factions of the Democracy have now nominated four senators, forgetting that no member of that body was ever elected President. An attempt will be made to induce both candidates to withdraw, and to patch up a compromise, by calling a new Convention. It is too late for that experiment."

☞ The Sullivan (Ind.) Democrat says that there is a well near Coffee Post Office, Clay county, which puzzles all the philosophy in those parts. When the wind is from the south, there is eight feet of water in the well; when the wind is from the north, the well goes dry.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says the Republicans are mightily pleased with the result at Baltimore, and particularly with the nomination of Breckinridge. They consider the election of Lincoln and Hamlin an easy task.

On the night of the 9th inst., seven prisoners broke out of the Columbus jail with a pewter spoon. This fact is unparalleled, although many have broken in by the aid of pewter mugs.

GENERAL COURT.

In the House, Wednesday, June 27, Ezekiel Flanders of Moultonboro' was unseated, because his town had not 450 ratable polls. Also Messrs. Wilson, Robinson and Blabesbee, of Nashua, for a similar reason.

The bill prohibiting indecent advertisements was indefinitely postponed.

The Cattle Disease Bill was amended, read a third time, and passed.

Upon the third reading of the act fixing the salaries of county solicitors, a debate arose, in which Messrs. Dodge of Rollinsford, Hackett of Portsmouth, Coffin of Concord, and Sawyer of Ossipee took part. Mr. Dodge moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed; he thought no necessity had been shown for the bill. The bill was indefinitely postponed.

The Senate gave notice of their concurrence with the House in the passage of the following bills:—Acts to incorporate Star in the East Lodge, No. 59, at Exeter, the Belknap Mills and Webster Mills; an act in amendment of the act to incorporate the Ashuelot Manufactory; an act to sever certain land in School District No. 3, and annex it to No. 2, in Dover; a joint resolution in favor of the indigent deaf, dumb and blind.

The Senate had passed the act to protect the smelt fishery in Great Bay, with an amendment. Mr. Hackett of Portsmouth moved the adoption of the amendment, which merely made a clerical alteration in the bill. Agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Spalding of Portsmouth, a joint resolution was introduced, by leave, to appropriate $300 for the contingent expenses and support of the militia for the ensuing political year.

The Committee on Elections reported the act to establish the office of superintendent of public instruction, in a new draft. On motion of Mr. Griffin of Nelson, the report was laid on the table, and the bill ordered to be printed.

The Mechanics' Lien Bill was ordered to a third reading.

☞ The Ballot considers the difference between truth and falsehood no more than that "twixt tweedledum and tweedledee." Well, that's all it is to some folks. The Ballot, in stating that the Mayor vetoed the $500 appropriation for 4th of July, made out a far different case, to our apprehension, than the fact of his merely throwing his casting vote to decide the matter in the negative. In the tie, he was obliged to vote somehow, and could not conscientiously (according to his own statement) vote to expend the money, in the present state of the public and private finances of the people. Had the Aldermen given a majority for the bill, we doubt if he would have vetoed it—though this is merely a conjecture of ours. As it was, the Mayor was called upon to assume a responsibility he would doubtless have preferred not to meet; and it seems to us, that "the blame," if blame there is attached to the matter at all,—the blame of not passing the appropriation lies with the Board of Aldermen, or those members of it who voted nay.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The motion made, it is understood, by Mr. Sumner, to strike from the treaty of Spain with the United States for the settlement of claims, the clause to pay for the Amistad negroes, had the effect to defeat its ratification today, the vote standing 24 to 18, not two-thirds.

Failing to reconcile the disagreements in regard to the Mexican treaty, and indisposed to further action on the subject, its consideration was postponed till next December.

Two Indian treaties were ratified.

The appointment of Mr. Russell as Navy Agent at New York was confirmed, together with several Deputy Postmasters.

No nomination was submitted for the Sardinian mission, or to supply the vacancy in the Supreme Court.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The propeller Keonosho exploded her boiler, off Sheyboygan, yesterday, killing Curtis Benton, clerk, and Michael Carey, first engineer, and seriously injuring three deck hands.

The following persons were also killed by the explosion:—Ralph Shepard, engineer; Margaret Sharp, chambermaid; D. Mahon, deck hand; Daniel Carey, fireman; and a deck hand, name unknown. The second mate was dangerously injured.

☞ A colored gentleman in this city has taken the census of all the colored population of Portsmouth; and reports the total to be 83, including eight small children.—There were probably some hundreds at one time,—and at least fifty slaves formerly.

☞ Mr. Freeman G. Beal, of this city, has been ordered to report immediately, at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, as Paymaster's Clerk on board the steam sloop-of-war Pawnee; destination, Vera Cruz.

☞ Sayers' arm is injured beyond cure, the tendons having been severed by Heenan's terrible blows.

☞ The cholera is raging in different parts of India, and 3000 persons had died of it.

☞ Rev. Mr. Patterson is to preach at Chesley's Hall, in Rye, on Sunday, July 8.

☞ The Great Eastern arrived at New York early Thursday morning.

We are "out" again as to who is responsible for the original matter in the Chronicle. That paper has told us that it is not the organ of its editors, but is the organ of the citizens of Portsmouth. Certain citizens of Portsmouth have for months past been agitating a celebration of Independence, which other citizens have "crushed out," and now we we are told that the Chronicle is not responsible or defeated because "we (i. e., the editors) have in no case expressed coincidence with their views?"—Ballot.

Sorry the Ballot has so much difficulty in getting hold of "the responsible" of the Chronicle; but don't see how we can well help it. However, we will just say that while this paper is the organ of the citizens of Portsmouth, it is not the organ of the "certain citizens" referred to above, or of the "other citizens" named—and as the Chronicle neither opposed nor urged the much-mooted appropriation, we really can't see that it is either "responsible or defeated." Though not especially desirous of the Celebration proposed, we freely lent our columns to the use of those who were; and we were also ready to contribute our mite to forward the matter. As to "crushing out" the affair—it seems to us this does not fairly state the case; a party of gentlemen proposed to do something if they could raise a certain sum or sums—and they couldn't, that's all. Nobody opposed the Celebration, that we know of; and at any rate, neither the Chronicle nor its editors are in any way accountable for the failure,—for, as a member of the Council, the junior voted twice in favor of the $500, and supposed the Aldermen would do so also.

LOUD 'UNS.

INDIA FIRE CRACKERS for sale at LAFAYETTE LAIGHTON'S, No. 44 Market Street.

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—The approaching anniversary of our national independence is to be celebrated at Diman's Cottage and Stratham Hill in the most satisfactory manner. Amos S. Alexander, Esq., of Portsmouth, is to deliver an oration; the Declaration of Independence will be read by Robert T. Lincoln, son of the Republican candidate for the Presidency; Albert Laighton, Esq., and Dr. Frank Fuller have written some excellent odes for the occasion, which will be sung by a select choir under the direction of John Christie, Esq., of Portsmouth; J. W. Odlin, Esq., of Exeter, will be Chief Marshal, and all the arrangements are in the hands of gentlemen who will not fail to carry them out satisfactorily. Dinner will be served at the cottage and green-house, and strawberries and other refreshments will be served in the gardens during the day.

If the day is fair, we expect to see thousands there on the occasion. Among the crowd, will be probably a Sabbath School Pic Nic from Concord, to the number of three hundred or more.

☞ There was a great gathering on Tuesday evening last, in the Highland Cottage gardens of Mr. J. H. Diman, at Stratham. We were not able to be there, but almost everybody was, to the number, we hear, of about four hundred—and the editor of the Ballot says, (and we won't doubt his statements at all this time, though he does on occasions seem to have rather crude ideas of the difference between fact and fancy,)—he says, "The Portsmouth and Exeter Cornet Bands discoursed excellent music, the strawberries served up were delicious, the fireworks were good, the illumination of the house and grounds was pretty, the evening was delightful, and the company a merry one."

☞ Mr. F. S. Knowlton, of this city, who accompanied the scientific exploring expedition which sailed from Newburyport on Saturday last, in the schooner Charmer, bound for the coast of Labrador, goes out as photographic artist for the occasion, and will doubtless bring with him on his return some fine views of the places of interest at which they may stop on the voyage.

☞ Portsmouth patriots can celebrate the Fourth at Stratham Hill this year—and will do so by hundreds. The only preparations we notice for a jubilee in our city, is the extensive display of fine designs for a Floral Procession, &c., in Mr. J. H. Head's store-window—which shows what we might have had, but for the lack of that $500 appropriation.

Special Notices.

THE VISIT OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.

It seems to be settled that this young gentleman will soon visit the United States, and we are sure that the "Yankee nation" will give him a cordial welcome, both as the representative of a great nation, and the son of a most worthy queen and admirable mother. "His Royal Highness" is represented to be an amiable and intelligent youth, and fond of taking a hand in all that passes; and therefore we shall not be surprised if he carries back with him to old England, the capital prize in one of the legalized lotteries of Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, and St. Louis, Missouri, as a memento of the great republic. And reader, you have the same opportunity; for by enclosing to either office $2.50, $5, $10 or $20, you will receive a chance by return mail. Try it before the Prince arrives, and be happy.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA is a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties in my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

Something New!

A FRIEND TO NEAT HOUSEWIVES.

CHESLEY'S PATENT

BOOT AND SHOE DUSTER.

A very neat article for removing dust and dirt from boots and shoes. It answers the purpose of scraper and mat; costs only a trifle more than a good mat, but will outwear twenty—and prevent any dirt from being carried into the house.

TRY ONE.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSEE'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

Morning Chronicle.

FRANKLIN AND HIS NEPHEW.—Benjamin Franklin had a nephew who was a sad spendthrift, for whom, however, in spite of his faults, he entertained a warm regard.—Being in Philadelphia, John Williams was on one occasion reduced to great straits, and found himself compelled to have recourse to his friends. His first application was to his uncle, of whom he asked the loan of sixty dollars. Franklin told him to call next morning, when if possible, he would accommodate him. Of course John was there, and had the gratification to see his uncle counting out the cash. While this operation was going on, he took a sheet of paper from the desk, with the intention no doubt, of giving his I O U. If such was his design, he was disappointed, for Franklin gently drew away the paper, and with a benevolent smile, said, "You need not waste my paper, too, John."

PLEASANT ANECDOTE. — Those who have seen Col. T. D. Robinson of this city need not be informed that he wears one of the best looking white heads of any elderly gentleman in the State. His form and his hair are both erect, and give him a noticeable appearance which forbids that he should be lost in a crowd. At Charleston he was one of the Vice-Presidents, and had a seat upon the platform, where he faced the multitude. On a day after adjournment, a delegate accosted him, saying:—"Please, sir, will you allow me to know your name and place of residence?" "My name is R——, from Maine," was the courteous reply. "Well," said his interlocutor, "I am from Tennessee, and my wife declared that Gen. Jackson had come to life and was on the platform, and she would not be satisfied unless I would find out your name and residence." — Bath Times.

☞ Elder Hyde, writing in the Deseret News, against the anti-polygamy bill in Congress, winds up with the following argument:—

"What a 'terrible fix' some of our priestly members of Congress will be in when they die and are carried by angels to Abraham's bosom! Abraham, of course, is their father, and when they get home to his bosom and find Sarah leaning on one arm and Hagar upon the other, being in such close proximity to and so mixed up with polygamy, they may begin to tell the old gentleman of his errors, his corruptions and his wickedness. The old father won't stand this, but administer to them a good thrashing, telling them to keep their noses clean and mind their own business. He will most likely, regard all such as illegitimate children; for, if they were all his legitimate children, they would do the works of Abraham; and one portion of his works was to take unto himself more than one wife."

Last autumn a young man of Maine started on a "prospecting" journey to Kansas, and soon returned, concluding that Maine presented better inducements to young men than those which he had seen of that celebrated territory. He soon after departed for California, determined, if possible, to find a home and fortune in the land of gold. On Wednesday last he again arrived at home fully satisfied that the "Pine Tree State" is the best after all; and he is now contented to settle down on a New England farm, and devote the remainder of his days to farming in his native State. We guess his experience, however, is not without a parallel.—Hallowell Gazette.

DEATH FROM BURNING FLUID.—On the 26th ult., Capt. Rufus Shepard, of Granger, Alleghany County, New York, in attempting to fill a lighted camphene lamp from a two-gallon can, caused an explosion, which set his clothes on fire. His wife came to his rescue, got him out of the house, tore off his remaining clothing, and extinguished the flames. He lived only six hours after the accident. The house and all its contents were consumed.

Hon. Tom Corwin is, as most folks know, a man who has a dark complexion. Corwin was introduced in New York to a freshly arrived Englishman, as being an Oblican. This term evidently puzzled John Bull; but in a moment his face brightened, and he seized C. by the hand, expressed his joy at making his acquaintance, and kindly inquired "whether his tribe was at peace with the whites?"

☞ Every fiftieth person in Great Britain is a drunkard; one in every two hundred and eighty is a prisoner; and one in every seven hundred inhabits a lunatic asylum. Of the two latter classes the majority become so through drink.

☞ When the tornado struck Camache, la., four men were engaged in playing cards in one of the buildings totally destroyed. All four men were killed with the cards in their hands.

During the late terrible tornado, a young lady of Carthage, Iowa, was overtaken in the woods and was blown more than or e hundred yards without touching ground, when she alighted comparatively unharmed by the side of a post, to which she clung until the storm subsided.

LONDON.—London is 16 miles in diameter; its streets measure 3000 miles. "The shops open on Sabbath day," says Dr. Thompson, "if put in a double row, would make a street 60 miles long."

☞ The season has been wet and cold in England, and competent authorities there say wheat and flour are going to be high.

Mr. Colden has accepted £40,000 subscribed by some of his Lancashire friends. This is the second time they have endowed him with such "testimonials;" his former donation was lost in the American funds.

The first page of the Machias Union this week contains the Declaration of Independence. This circumstance reminds us forcibly of the custom of all slave trading craft to hoist the American flag.—Eastport Sentinel.

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, FALL BIRTHS, MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, Leucorrhœa, Chlorosis, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old style, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, accompanied, exhausting, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has alarmed the friends of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well received, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In CONVERTING FEVERS, it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an entire disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All orders, etc., should be addressed to EASTERN RAILROAD.—We publish the following communication as we do any other advertisement—without adopting or endorsing its sentiments, or attempting to explain its statements.

To the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire:—An advertisement so arranged as to attract as little attention as possible, has appeared in the Boston Daily Advertiser, announcing that your annual meeting will be held at the Railroad Station in Hampton, at 9 1-2 A.M., on the tenth of July. This bears on its face evidence of its purpose. The Massachusetts President of your corporation is evidently afraid that he will not be elected if a fair vote of the stockholders can be obtained, and the frauds of last year are a little too dangerous to be repeated; therefore he now relies on just such a trick as cannot be reached by law to secure himself against opposition.

The time is fixed so that he and his friends may come down, hold the meeting, and be off before his opponents arrive, unless they are willing to go out in the early train, and spend hours in waiting for the meeting. And the place is so chosen as almost to prevent the stockholders from knowing what goes on, even if they attempt to attend the meeting.

Stockholders, will you not spend one day in convincing these Boston Dictators that you know your rights, and "knowing, dare maintain them."

Come one, come all, and make one united effort to rid yourselves of officers who misrepresent you, and claim perpetually the entire control of the corporation, and use it only to defraud you of your rights. S.

☞ Our fine new Post Office Building is now in a fair way for speedy occupation, outside and in. The sidewalks are being laid all around the premises, which are to be neatly graded and surrounded with a handsome iron fence. The furniture is also being put in, carpets laid down, &c. The Clerk of U. S. Courts has already removed his office to the new room on the second floor; the Custom House Officers will probably change their quarters next week, and the Post Office will follow ere long. Another month or so will doubtless clear the premises all up nicely.

☞ Messrs. Allen & Paine announce (in an advertisement which the Chronicle will publish on Monday,) that they are soon to remove to Boston, and are "selling out" their stock very cheap. Their pay-roll is no trifle per week; and their removal, considered in this light only, will be a loss to Portsmouth. They are talented, energetic and public-spirited young men—and such are the only real foundation of a city's prosperity; but in a larger field, like Boston, they can hardly miss of receiving a greater success than they could reasonably expect in a smaller and slower place. But we think, all things considered, that the balance is in favor of the "country cities"—while we wish our wide-awake friends all success in their new enterprise.

☞ We learn that the new schooner recently built by Messrs Snow & Badger at the yard of Messrs. Marcy & Pettigrew, has been named "Fanny Boardman," in compliment to one of Portsmouth's fair daughters. The "F. B." is a staunch and beautiful vessel, of 130 tons, and we learn is for sale. REP.

☞ The salute on Friday evening was fired in honor of raising a Douglas and Johnson flag, by the Democrats, at the South End.

STATE GOVERNMENT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—James M. Usher, of Boston, has published a large lithographic picture with the above title, which embraces likenesses of the Governor, Council, Senate, Speaker of the House, Clerks of the Senate and House, Secretary of State, Treasurer, and other officers of the Government. These portraits are all of them good, and some are unmistakably well taken. The engraving is by Grozelier, of Boston. Mr. Usher has been very expeditious in the preparation of the picture, and we hope he will realize a sufficient compensation for the outlay.—Statesman.

☞ The Dover Sentinel has both the Democratic nominations at the head of its editorial column, regrets the division, and for the present supports the Douglas branch, hoping for some arrangement which may unite the Democratic party.

The Portsmouth, N. H., Gazette puts up the Breckinridge ticket, and supports it.

☞ At Washington, George Marston of New Hampshire, doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, is very ill of typhoid fever. Mr. Tappan remains with him.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—It is stated here that the friends of Mr. Douglas refuse all coalition with those of Mr. Breckinridge on an electoral ticket, and will demand an expression of preference from the candidates for electors appointed by the Reading Convention, and claiming the right to amend the list if necessary.

BARN BURNT.—The barn of Benjamin Thayer, at Northville, Worcester, containing five hundred bushels of corn, was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The fire was caused by a child, who, in attempting to set fire to the tail of a cat that had scratched him, ignited the hay in the barn.

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and is so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

JOHN BENNETT, City Clerk.

THE SENTER HOUSE, kept by GILMAN & HUNTRESS, at the head of the Winnipissogee, is so well and favorably known to all lake and mountain tourists, that to praise either the house or its proprietors, would seem a work of entire supererogation. Located directly on the shore of the lake which it overlooks, and within a mile of Red Hill, few more picturesque places for either a longer or shorter sojourn, are to be found in the State. During the last half dozen years since the house has been in the hands of the present proprietors, it has justly ranked as hardly second to the best hotels at the Mountains. Travelers and sojourners are sure of always being served in the best style, with the best the market affords. We know of no pleasanter place to spend a few days than at the Senter House, says the Independent Democrat—and we fully agree in the opinion. Mr. Huntress being a native of our city, is careful in keeping up a good reputation with visitors from this locality, as well as with those from other states.

The body of Mr. Benj. Fletcher, of Kittery, who was drowned last week, was found at Newcastle, near the Fort, on Friday morning, June 29th.

The U. S. frigate Macedonian, from the Mediterranean, bound to Portsmouth, N. H., passed Gibraltar, May 30, and is daily expected here.

☞ Mr. Buchanan, it is stated, is preparing a farewell address, in the shape of a vindication of his administration.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Newport (R. I.) News has the following:—

Rats are somewhat proverbial for their natural instinct, which often manifests itself in expedients resorted to by them for self-preservation. We were witness of an instance of this a day or two since. Dick, our family cat, had caught a rat, and in its struggles for liberty and dear life the latter animal escaped up a post on which was stretched a clothes line. Out upon this the fugitive walked, a la Blondin and De Lave, till he had reached what he doubtless considered a safe distance from his pursuer, where he paused to await the issue, watching, with distended orbs, his enemy the cat. The latter, meanwhile, had lost no time in pursuing his prey, and having reached the top of the post, tried to imitate his ratship in his slack-rope performances. But finding this impossible, he descended to the ground, and after pausing for a moment, watching his prey, he apparently became bewildered at the strange turn matters had taken, and returned to watch the hole from whence the rat had emerged. This was the rat's opportunity, and seizing upon it he descended to the ground and made good his escape.

Devoured by Bears.—On Wednesday, 6th inst. a child four years of age, was carried off and devoured by a bear, in the town of Ellenburgh, N. Y.

The child, a boy, went a short distance from his father's house, with a brother, about eight years old, to fish in a brook. At school time the oldest boy went into the house to prepare for school, and told his mother that his brother had remained at the brook, and would return in a short time. In a little while his mother went after him, but he was not to be found. She then called him, and heard him cry at a distance. The sound rapidly receded, and passed beyond hearing. The woman immediately alarmed her husband, who made search for the child without success. The neighbors were then notified, and a general search took place till nightfall. Next day the alarm became more extensive, and the search was renewed with increased energy. It was continued from day to day, without avail till the following Monday, when a man passing a hollow log was growled at by a black bear. In the log were two young bears, the missing child's clothes, and a portion of one of his legs. The cubs were dispatched, and in the stomachs of all three were found portions of the devoured boy.—Ogdensburgh Journal 22d.

☞ A correspondent of the N. C. Presbyterian, writes from Rochester, of the Old School:—

It is a noticable fact that there seems to be quite as full a growth of hair on the face, as on the head, and in not a few cases the hair is quite confined to the face, the crop on the head having failed. It seems to us, that the fashion of letting the beard grow long is growing into repute among our clergymen. We have not seen a single member of this body chewing tobacco or taking snuff.

☞ Mr. Seward is appreciated out of his own country. A letter from Beyrout, May 3d, published by the Albany Journal, says:

"The American Consul told me to-day that he was going to send three magnificent horses to Gov. Seward rs a present from a Turkish gentleman who admires him exceedingly. They will be shipped in a fortnight."

Our farmers are about commencing their labors in the great work of gathering in the products of their farms, says the Chambersburg (Pa.) Times. The grass crops are abundant, and will furnish a large supply of hay, if the weather continues as favorable as it is at present for curing and putting up. We have never witnessed a finer wheat season than we have had during the spring, and broad acres of luxurant wheat greet the eyes of the beholder in every direction.

What Horace Greeley Says.—The New York Tribune philosopher predicts that the Douglas ticket will beat the secession ticket in the popular vote of the slave States, and run it out of sight in the free States.

Good Stock.—A lady near Farmington Falls, Me., one day about three weeks ago, yoked up the oxen and harrowed in two acres of burnt ground grain, alone, and the next morning gave birth to a fine, full sized baby. Mother and child doing finely.—Boston Herald.

☞ An enterprising flour manufacturer at Elk River, Minn., has made arrangements to ship two hundred barrels of flour to Maine, upon which he expects to make a profit of one dollar per barrel.

Col. Montgomery, of the Biggs House, Portsmouth, Ohio, was exceedingly pleased with the nomination of Bell and Everett, and illuminated the house in grand style. A few days later the wires brought the news of Old Abe's nomination at Chicago. "That suits me a leetle better yet! illuminate the house again, boys!" said the colonel, and it was done from garret to cellar.

Her First Ride on the Rail.—Mrs. Hannah Simmons, of Hyannis Port, Mass., aged ninety-three years, recently left her home to take her first ride on the cars—having never before been on a railroad car in her life!

An Irishman in Hopkinton, jubilant over the news from Baltimore, met a Republican friend the other morning. "Arrah!" said Pat, "It's all over wid ye now, sir!—It's beaten ye are, sure, for the Dimmycrats can nominate two tickets to ye'r one, and follow it up."—Statesman.

☞ There having lately been one execution and three or four convictions for murder in New Orleans, the newspapers there believe the "reign of blood" has come to an end.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction, and we speak advisedly. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and soothing virtues. We speak in this matter, "what we know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we advertise. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in the United States, and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but regulates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Neuralgia, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS tending CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERWORK, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will invigorate and Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirits, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headache, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities peculiar to their constitution, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

VERMONT BUTTER.

MATHES & VARRELL

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innuxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOUS, SALT RHEUM, MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids no longer but ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of hectic, pulmonary, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician prescribes air and exercise rly be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unfeigned DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the WESTERN STATES, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

HISSING IN PUBLIC MEETINGS.—The following anecdote is related of John Adams, of Revolutionary memory:—

While the port of Boston was closed in consequence of the rebellious attitude of the citizens, a public meeting was called to consider what was to be done in view of the scarcity of provisions, amounting even to famine. Some patriots proposed a public table, and nominated Josiah Quincy to bring the proposition before the people. He did so. The proposition was not well received. Few supported it, some expressed their disapprobation by hisses and rude noises; Mr. Adams rose, apparently irritated, and said: "Mr. Moderator, when I perceive the unhandsome manner in which the patriotic proposition of my friend has been met, I am forcibly reminded of the lines of Milton on his detractors:

"I did but prompt the age to quit their clogs
By the known rules of ancient liberty
When straight a barbarous noise environs me,
Of owls and cuckoos, asses, apes and dogs."

☞ Queen Victoria has expressed great disinclination to expedite the marriage of the heir-apparent to the British throne with a Princess of Prussia. The royal mother considers the agitation of the question premature, and, looking at the extreme youth of her beloved son, has openly conveyed her wish in the proper quarter that the subject may be dropped, at least for the present.

NEGRO KIDNAPPED.—Washington, Fayette Co., Ohio, June 27.—John Marshall, a negro, was kidnapped by three men about 6 o'clock this morning. They started immediately for Cincinnati with their victim, without going before the proper authorities. Sheriff Johnson and Constable Blackmore are in pursuit. Marshall is supposed to be a free negro, having lived here for five years.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, for the last 7 of 1857.
70 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting a Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

GREAT HUMBUG.

The idea that any one can sell CLOTHING FURNISHING GOODS cheaper than MOSES & DOWNIE,
is a great humbug. They buy their Goods in large quantities, and manufacture them under their own supervision. Therefore, no one can compete with them in low prices, who have to buy their Clothing Ready-made.

We have the largest and best Stock of Ready Made Clothing & Furnishing Goods ever offered in Portsmouth; and at the LOWEST PRICES. The whole of which must be disposed of lower than ever before, in order to reduce our immense stock.

It would be impossible to enumerate the different articles in our Store, but we would say that we have COATS varying in price from
50 CENTS TO 15 DOLLARS!
PANTS from
50 CENTS TO 7 DOLLARS!

We have also the largest and best assortment of
Cloths, Doeskins & Cassimeres,
Both plain and fancy, that can be found this side of Boston, which we will Make to Order in the Very Latest Styles,

We might go on and fill a paper with a description of our goods, but that would not satisfy the public mind nor clothe their backs. If there is any one inclined to doubt our statement, let them call at our store, and they will doubt no longer. The large patronage we have received is proof of our assertion. We have also any quantity of goods for Men's and Boys' wear, to sell by the yard. Also Sargent's Magic Soap!

It is free from all deleterious qualities, and perfectly harmless. Its use will not injure the skin, or the most delicate fabrics.

It saves labor, almost superseding the necessity of rubbing; washing can be done in about half the time, as the clothes do not require boiling, thus saving fuel and labor that is required by washing with other kinds of soap, and the necessity of having steam in the house.

Flannels and colored goods can be washed with the ease of cotton or linen, without fulling or shrinking. For washing and whitening Hosiery and Yarn, it is unequalled.

Grease spots of any kind removed in a short time from carpets and woolen goods.

It will instantly remove grease and dirt from paint without any water whatever; protecting windows, carpets and furniture from suds or slops. The worst blipe-water stains removed from paint immediately, by applying the soap with a sponge.

It supersedes the use of all polishing powders by imparting a brilliant lustre to Jewelry, Plate, etc.

For cleansing, softening or healing the skin, it is unequalled.

It is acknowledged by all who have tested its superior qualities, to be one of the greatest improvements of the age, and its use is indispensable to the comfort of every family, and the convenience of every hotel, ship, steamboat or laundry.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had a beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers: moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using about two and three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 80 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1860.

THE COURTS AND THE NEWSPAPERS. The Dover Enquirer does not think very highly of the late decision of our Supreme Court, that our Legislature cannot reduce a jury below twelve,nor authorize a verdict by a part of a jury. The Enquirer says:

The Supreme Judicial Court, of course, can give no decision which is not sound, and according to the Constitution; but isn't the idea that neither more nor less than the magical number of twelve can constitute a jury, a little old fogyish?

The Constitution, in its Bill of Rights, says nothing about the number,and because, up to that time, a Jury had always consisted of twelve, is that any reason why that number should be retained through all time?

When the Constitution was adopted, a Judge had probably never been seen without knee buckles, wig and pig-tail; is it not just as much a violation of the Constitution for a Judge to appear in any other garb at the present day?

The same Bill of Rights says, "a well regulated militia is the proper, natural, and a sure defence of a State"—which "well regulated militia," up to this day, was held to be the old-fashioned system, which went to the dogs years ago.

If three men are sufficient to decide a controversy, in a reference case, involving perhaps thousands of dollars, why are not the same number competent to sit upon a four and six-penny case in a Court of law?

And if the Legislature can whittle a "well regulated militia" down or up to the "Governor's Horse Guards," why can't they enact that a jury shall consist of any number of men which the case may require, and that one obstinate, ignorant or dishonest juryman shall not thwart the decision of all the rest?

☞ There was a great shower of rain in Boston and vicinity, about 7 o'clock Friday evening, accompanied with thunder and wind. The great tree on Boston Common suffered by the gale; one-third of it fell to the ground, with its iron chains and bands. Much damage was done to various buildings, by wind and rain.

At Brighton, a Mr. Goodnow was instantly killed at the tea-table by a lightning bolt. He had just been helped to a cup of tea by his wife. She was also prostrated to the floor. At last accounts it was doubtful whether she recovered.

Another report from Brighton—it may have grown out of this—was that two men were instantly killed, under a shed, and a third was so much injured that he died soon afterwards. According to reports they had gone under a shed, and were on their wagons, waiting to start for Boston, when the "fluid" descended.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Dennis Berry, of Augusta, had both his hands blown off while firing a salute in Augusta on Tuesday, in honor of the Democratic nominations. He was ramming the gun when it prematurely exploded. It was while firing this same gun in honor of the Republican nominations, that two men were seriously injured. —Portland Argus.

Uncle Toby thinks it rather foolish to fire guns, even in rejoicing over an election of president, which is a civil success of a party or a principle, among people who are fellow citizens and ought to be friends,—and not a military victory over enemies.

But there can be no doubt about the folly of firing guns over the nomination of each of four sets of candidates, three of which must be failures.

Better save your powder and your money, for some useful and pleasant purpose.

THE TELEGRAPH.—One afternoon last week, as the last up train on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad, was stopping at Derry station, Conductor Eaton entered the car with a down-cast eye. "What's the matter now, Eaton?" inquired one of his passengers. "I've got a dispatch from Lawrence,"said he,"to look for a bag of money," and read from it, "Look for Mrs. ——'s money-bag in the forward car." Every one was on the qui vive, and a Concord gentleman looking on the floor, opposite his seat, saw the missing article; and in ten minutes after the dispatch was received it was answered "all right," and the train was on its way, and the passenger who in getting out of the car at Lawrence had lost her money-bag, doubtless felt better at the prompt reception of the news of its recovery.

☞ The Boston Post sent its circulars for a campaign paper pretty extensively into Maine,and the democratic papers recommended it to all good democrats. The Post now hoists the Breckinridge flag, and this is the manner in which the Augusta Age endeavors to undo its fraternal recommendation:

The Boston Post Post deserts the Democratic party, and hoists the flag of treason and disunion. Let the Democracy who have been deluded into subscribing for it as a campaign paper, send the vile sheet back, and let it be kept out of the State as we would keep out the cattle disease.

☞ The Kansas City Journal of Commerce is informed that the agent of a large colony of Swedes has just concluded a satisfactory arrangement in Johnson county, near Olathe, Kansas Territory, by which there will be about forty thousand Swedes settled there within a few months.

☞ The Republicans had a great torch-light procession at Concord, on Thursday evening, of which we can only give a brief sketch from the Atlas.—They did not fire cannon, rockets, or tar barrels.

The demonstration opened with a display of the "Wide Awakes," who in the order of a battalion, with transparencies and two bands of music, marched through the streets. The offices of the Independent Democrat and N. H. Statesman and about 50 private residences were beautifully illuminated.—Rockets were sent up from the Phenix Hotel and the Eagle Hotel, and from other points along the route. At the residence of High Sheriff Ordway the procession halted a moment to witness his illumination,and were entertained with a felicitous speech by Mr. Ordway.

One part of the procession was composed of the workmen in Abbott's coach establishment. About twenty rods of Virginia rail fence were carried on the shoulders of men, and was preceded by a dozen men bearing immense axes. It was a striking feature in the procession and created great amusement and enthusiasm, and all along the route was saluted with deafening cheers.

At about ten o'clock the procession returned to the front of the State House, where an immense crowd had assembled. Hon. E. H. Rollins took the chair, called the assembly to order, and addressed them in a short, spirited and eloquent speech.

He then introduced Ex-Governor Colby, after which, in succession, Hon. L. D. Mason, of Tamworth, His Excellency Gov. Goodwin, Hon. A. F. Stevens of Nashua, and Hon. N. B. Bryant of Concord, addressed the assembled multitude. The speeches were all capital and spirited. The veteran and honored ex-Governor was in his happiest mood; Mason was witty and illustrative as usual; Gov. Goodwin made a sensible and eloquent off-hand speech, and the last two speakers, Stevens and Bryant, always popular favorites, were listened to with wrapt attention, interrupted by the spontaneous outbursts of enthusiasm.

The demonstration ended with three cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin, cheers for the speaker, music from the band, and displays of enthusiasm. The meeting was successful in the highest degree. The joke perpetrated the evening before by Mr. Burns, that with hard work New Hampshire could be carried by Douglas, was appreciated in the fullest extent by all who witnessed this demonstration. New Hampshire will give at least 6000 majority for Lincoln and Hamlin.

A SMALL BLUNDER.—In a debate in our General Court, on the use of Wine or Beer Measure, Mr. Shirley, of Andover, said that we had reached a measure important to the interests of this nation. Rum, before it was "extended," was sold by beer measure. He claimed the right to drink as much beer as he pleased, and would buy by the largest measure he could. His constituents did not want any interference with milk or rum.

The poor man exhibits his ignorance of all former usage. Spirits have been measured by wine measure, and milk by beer measure, in New England, ever since its settlement. What he says about his constituents is probably true!

☞ Liszt was once considered the favorite of the European piano-makers, because he used to break so many instruments by his heavy style of playing. Gossip says that in Paris alone he has ruined fifteen hundred piano-fortes. These reminiscences are renewed in consequence of the recent marriage of Liszt to the Princess of Wittgenstein. Passionately devoted to music herself, and particularly to piano-playing, the Princess, on becoming a widow, offered her hand to the great pianist. It is, however, a sort of morganatic marriage, as the bride retains her rank and title of Princess, declining to assume the plain name of Madame Liszt.

STEALING GAS.—Michael Lally, keeper of a rum shop on East Dover street, Boston, was before the Police Court, charged with larceny of gas. It appeared that a former occupant of the premises had used gas, but upon his removal the Gas Co. took away the meter, as Michael said he did not want to use the article. Subsequently he "tapped" the pipe, and by means of a gutta percha tube used the gas for some weeks, unbeknown to the officers of the the company. He was sentenced to the House of Correction two months, but took an appeal to the Superior Court. So says the Boston Traveller; and it is to be hoped the Superior Court may give him six months instead of two.

☞ On Sunday, the 17th ult., thirteen miners, most or all of whom were intoxicated, attempted to cross Portage Lake, (Lake Superior,) from Hancock to Houghton, in a skiff, and when half way across, the boat was swamped, and seven of the men were drowned.

☞ The United States officers who arrested F. B. Sanborn, at Concord, Mass., have been indicted by the Grand Jury of Middlesex Co.,—for inveigling, seizing, assaulting, &c.

☞ The San Francisco Bulletin has been sued for $40,000 damages for calling a lawyer Squire Dogberry.

GENERAL COURT.

Friday, June 29, in the House there was some business of interest.

Mr. Spalding, from the select committee consisting of the delegation from Portsmouth, reported in a new draft of a bill to amend the charter of said city.

Mr. Greenleaf of Portsmouth moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, inasmuch as he would like that committee to hear his views on the proposed amendment.

Mr. Spalding of Portsmouth opposed the motion, contending that the delegation from Portsmouth were better calculated to be informed on the subject than the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Greenleaf entered into a full explanation of the municipal regulations now in force in the city, and again urged the reference of the subject to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Bufford of Portsmouth didn't think the House wished to be troubled as to how the Mayor of Portsmouth should dump a load of gravel. Mr. B. explained the motive of the proposed amendments, they proving to be purely of local interest.

Mr. Greenleaf resumed, and the question on referring to the Judiciary Committee was decided in the negative—83 to 137.—The bill was then ordered to a second reading.

Mr. Hackett, from the select committee to whom were referred so much of the Governor's message as relates to national affairs, and also the resolves of the N. Y. Legislature relative to the re-opening of the slave trade, submitted a report and a series of resolutions, as follows:

Whereas, His Excellency the Governor, in his inaugural address, has called the attention of the Legislature and the people of this State to the condition of national affairs, and has communicated to the House and Senate a copy of a resolution of the Assembly of New York, in the following words:

Resolved, That this Legislature and the citizens of this State look with surprise, mortification and detestation upon the virtual re-opening, within the federal Union, of the slave trade; that against this invasion of our laws, our feelings, and the dictates of Christianity, we solemnly protest here, as we will protest elsewhere, and especially at the ballot box; that we call upon the citizens of this Union to make common cause, in the name of religion, humanity, and as friends of principles underlying our system of government, to unite in bringing to immediate arrest and punishment all persons engaged in the unlawful and wicked slave trade, and hereby instruct our Senators and Representatives in Congress to exert all lawful powers for the immediate suppression of the infamous traffic;

And Whereas, it has long been customary for the people of this State, through their Senators and Representatives in General Court convened, to make known their opinions and purposes with regard to pending national issues; therefore, to conform with this long observed custom, and to set forth the position of the people of New Hampshire,

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That New Hampshire is and will be as ready to recognize and perform its constitutional duties, as to claim and vindicate its constitutional rights.

Resolved, That the extension of African slavery by the power of the general government, into free territory, would be in derogation of the compromises and provisions of the Constitution, of the rights of the people to shape their own institutions, and of revolutionary tendency, and should be resisted by all those who desire "Union and Liberty, now and forever, one and inseparable."

Resolved, That the people, through Congress, possess the power, and ought to exercise it, "to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property of the United States."

Resolved, That the virtual re-opening of the slave trade in violation of law is a species of nullification more dangerous to the Union, and more degrading to the country, than that nullification which formerly threatened to accomplish disunion by force.

Resolved, That as our present sectional disputes have grown out of a departure from the policy and a disregard of the admonitions of Washington, the surest remedy will be found in a return to that policy and a practical regard for those admonitions.

On motion of Mr. Hackett of Portsmouth, the report was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

☞ It is stated ot the late John L. Schoolcraft, of Albany, that, while sick in his hotel during the Chicago Convention, he was so plaased with an active little bell-boy attached to the establishment, that he induced a Cayuga county gentleman to take charge of his education, leaving a bequest of $1000 for that purpose.

☞ Rodriguez Masta, a young man of Toledo, has recently finished copying upon a single sheet of paper, about the ordinary letter size, in legible characters and without abbreviations, the whole of Don Quixote. He employed two years, and nearly lost his eyesight in the useless task.

A LONG SLEEP.—A woman name Joly, who had fallen into a state of lethargy at Angouleme, France, has died after an uninterrupted sleep of 246 1-2 hours.—Her death was calm and appeared like the continuation of the slumber which had preceded it.

☞ Peter Ryan and William Downs, two boys nine and ten years of age, ran away from the Reform School, Thursday.—They are of Irish parentage, and were sent to the Institution on the 27th inst., by the city of Dover.

☞ Last Tuesday the Methodist church at Bloomfield, N. J., was struck by lightning while about 150 persons were within, engaged in a strawberry festival. All were severely shocked, and one young man was knocked senseless.

☞ The New York Tribune gives the names of nine vessels which have sailed from New York since the beginning of this year, and gone to Africa for cargoes of slaves.

Those persons who condemn the matter of Mr. Sumner's speech, havn't a word to say in condemnation of the Southern orators and writers who have sought to make it appear that "free society" is full of abominations.

☞ The celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the settlement of Brookfield will take place at West Brookfield on the fourth of July.

The New York papers are beginning to complain of the cost of entertaining the Japanese. The Times says "we had better make up our minds at once that the whistle is to be a pretty expensive one."

☞ Any one who shoots a robin in Halifax, N. S., is liable to a fine of $1, or a week's imprisonment, by a law recently passed.

The smartest dairy-woman in the United States is Mrs. Margaret Foucher, of Madison, Mich. She made 950 pounds of butter and 150 pounds of cheese last season, and is a very estimable lady.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will so certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

ASHFIELD, Oct. 6, 1858.

MESSRS. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents.—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at the juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

SOUTH PARIS, ME., Dec. 12, 1859.

MESSRS. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

NO LIQUOR—NO MISCHIEF.

The very "mischief" himself has been let loose for a few years past on the night before Independence day, by giving unlimited license to the sale of spirituous liquors.—Our city fathers are aware of the fact, and have put their heads together to do something, but it appears have not as yet concluded upon any measure. Last Thursday evening, the Common Council passed a vote to have the liquor shops closed at ten o'clock P. M. in future, which the Aldermen very properly laid on the table, as a movement countenancing the sale of liquor at other times.

We have already a State law which makes due provision with regard to liquor shops, which is, however, almost a dead letter. But it is strong enough to allow the police force of the city to be turned out upon these nuisances, if the executive of the city will only order it.

The way they attend to such things on especial occasions, sometimes, is shown by the following copy of a bona fide proclamation, handed to us by a resident of the city of Hamilton, Ohio, to which the notice was issued:

Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, that all drinking saloons in the city of Hamilton must be closed on Monday, April 2d, the same being election day. RAMSFORD SMITH, Mayor.
Hamilton, Ohio, March 31, 1860.

Why cannot Mayor Reding issue a like order for Independence day here—and the city back him with a sufficient police force? Doubtless all respectable citizens would thank him heartily if he would stop dram-selling here from Tuesday noon till Thursday. Q.

☞ A resolution passed both branches of the City Council, last Thursday evening, to employ the Portsmouth Band to furnish music on Market Square, on the evening of July 4th; but we learn the Band is engaged in Ipswich for the day and evening, and therefore cannot comply with the invitation to entertain our citizens on that occasion, as suggested and desired. We regret this, as no doubt all our readers will; but it was of course impracticable to make any engagement or arrangement whatever, for a notice of the day, until the vexed question of the appropriation should be settled.

But while many will regret that we can have no music on the evening of the Fourth; yet the circumstances may prove of benefit to the Band, and no loss to the people; because the Band gets a good engagement abroad now, and the City Council may and perhaps will use the money now voted, to aid in paying the Band for a series of ten or more of their charming out-door Concerts—for which we understand a subscription is soon to be started. Let us have them, by all means.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Calvin Coleman, of Dover Point, (through Messrs. Tucker & Downs of this city,) for a very handsome lot of Peach Bloom Potatoes (we believe they are,) raised by him. They are almost "as large as your fist"—if that is not dangerously great, and appear to be nearly ripe. Just wait till we get 'em boiled, and get some June butter on them. They are by far the finest sample seen in this section this season, and would do no shame to Bermuda. By the way, speaking of Dover Point, reminds us of John Hanson's Hotel beautifully located there—where we dare say such rich potatoes, and all the other good things to match, are being served up. Yes, yes, we must take a sail up river.

☞ All Rockingham County seems to be going to Diman's to celebate the "glorious Fourth." Well, Stratham Hill is big enough to hold them all. It is proposed to run extra trains from Portsmouth, in the morning, at 8 and 9 o'clock.

☞ The Piscataqua Floating Bath advertisement is just in order, as we write this paragraph, with the glass noting near 90.—That is the place for a splash or a swim in the salt water—while at the Rockingham House can be found excellent accommodations for in-door fresh water bathing.

☞ Sampson B. Lord, Esq., has been re-appointed Naval Officer of the port of Portsmouth.

☞ Allen & Paine's advertisement don't exactly say they are going into the lottery business, but—read it.

☞ A dispatch from Washington says that the President has finally determined not to fill the vacancy in the Supreme Court of the United States, caused by the death of Justice Daniels, until next winter.

☞ A Tribune Washington dispatch says it is arranged that Caleb Cushing is to succeed Judge Daniel in the Supreme Court.

Mrs. Shiner, 82 years of age, a resident of Detroit, hung herself last Saturday night while in a rage with her daughter about the possession of a candle-stick.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The Japanese Embassy left the Metropolitan Hotel, this afternoon, escorted by the City Government and the 71st Regiment to the Battery, where they embarked on board the U. S. cutter Harriet Lane. After inspecting the fortifications in the harbor, the Embassy took up their quarters on board the steam frigate Niagara, which sails for Japan on Monday.

Madame Zulavski, sister of Kossuth, died in Brooklyn to-day.

A severe wind storm passed over Brooklyn this afternoon. The force of the wind lifted the frame-work of the roofing of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, which, falling, crushed from eight to ten persons; farmers, masons, and others—seriously injuring two or three, and breaking the arms, legs, ribs, &c., of nearly all, but none were injured fatally. The building is a very large structure, and the walls have just been erected, the frame of the roof being about completed.

Thousands of people have congregated about the berth of the Great Eastern to-day, but no persons are admited. She will be thrown open for exhibition on Tuesday next.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—If the captain of this ship can discharge her crew, and keep her several months at New York, charging 50 cents a head for admission, he will make more profit for the owners than in sailing her. If, however, the whole of her crew are to be kept in pay and provisions whilst the ship remains there, they will take a great deal of the gilt off the gingerbread. Thousands, perhaps hundreds of thousands, will flock to see her, but she is a costly toy to exhibit. In running out she burnt 3000 tons of coal. To feed a crew of 500 officers and men, she needs earn a large sum for her owners.—Traveller.

☞ The cholera is raging on the Malabar coast with great violence. Of 5043 people attacked by this awful scourge in January, 4458 died.

☞ A picker up of loose coal in the streets of New York, recently purchased a farm near the city for $6000, and "retired from business."

☞ Mr. George Burnham and his wife, formerly residents of Farmington, N. H., were killed by the recent tornado in Iowa.

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—The approaching anniversary of our national independence is to be celebrated at Diman's Cottage and Stratham Hill in the most satisfactory manner. Amos S. Alexander, Esq., of Portsmouth, is to deliver an oration; the Declaration of Independence will be read by Robert T. Lincoln, son of the Republican candidate for the Presidency; Albert Laighton, Esq., and Dr. Frank Fuller have written some excellent odes for the occasion, which will be sung by a select choir under the direction of John Christie, Esq., of Portsmouth; J. W. Odlin, Esq., of Exeter, will be Chief Marshal, and all the arrangements are in the hands of gentlemen who will not fail to carry them out satisfactorily. Dinner will be served at the cottage and green-house, and strawberries and other refreshments will be served in the gardens during the day.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other, simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

THE OLD TOWN PUMP.

Say, where hath it gone! the old town pump!
No longer it greeteth my view;
I seek in vain for its well known face,
In the place which my infancy knew.

On this, my return to my dear native place,
How eager each landmark I sought;
My vision grew dim as I rode through the street,
The years that had passed seemed as nought.

Dear friends of my childhood! companions of old!
Again were ye present to view,
As we wandered together in days that have passed,
When each thought and each feeling was true;

When returning from school, on a hot summer day,
Though weary, how eager the jump!
How earnest was each, to see who should first
Shake hands with the old town pump.

Of "iron-bound buckets" sing all who may choose!
In their favor, who will, take the stump!
But give me a draught from the cool iron cup
That hung on the old town pump.

I grieve for the loss of the old town pump!
A requiem this, for its grave!
Thrice happy am I, if these humble lines
From oblivion its mem'ry will save. S. A. W.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine.—NEVER HAS IT PAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we know," after an years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we utter. In almost every instance where the child is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never failing success in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints: Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 3 Cedar st. New York.

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory, hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERTASK, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitution broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons suffering from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from menstrual complaints, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

VERMONT BUTTER.

MATHES & VARRELL

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Instances in all climates in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued depression of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no testimony nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no remedy.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the opinion of the profession is that no other preparation is so decidedly beneficial, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In uncocked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most carefully balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, increased strength, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 16. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1860. NO. 128.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ On Thursday last a cattle train of 106 long cars, laden with stock, was despatched on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Pittsburg to the eastern part of that State. This is one of the largest day's business of the kind ever done on any road in this country. There were about equal portions of cattle, hogs and sheep, and it is estimated the total amount was 5500 head.

☞ Judge Watson, of Howard county, Missouri, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for three years, for robbing the treasury of the county of $5000. He took an appeal to the Supreme Court, gave bonds in $9000, and then left the State. He is said to be possessed of property to the amount of $30,000.

Artemas Ward says—"The moosic which line most use to is the inspirin stranes of the hand orgin. I hire a artistic Italyun to grind fur me, payin him his vittles &.close, & spose it was them stranes which fust put a moosical tast into me. Like all furriners he has seen better dase, having formerly been a Kount. But he aint of much akount now, except to turn the orgin and drink Beer, of which bevrige he can hold a churnfull easy."

☞ Baltimore papers form estimates, based upon the number of names in the city directory, just taken, upon which they claim a population of 107,000.

FASHION is a deformed little monster, with a chameleon skin, bestriding the shoulders of public opinion. Though weak in itself, like most other despots, it has gradually usurped a degree of power that is irresistible and prevails in various forms over the whole habitual earth. It is the greatest tyrant in the world.

☞ O. Hutchinson, New York, has just published The Bobolink Minstrel; or Republican Songster for 1860, edited by Geo. W. Bungay.

Said a certain individual to a wag—"The man who has raised a cabbage-head has done more good than all the metaphysicians in the world" "Then," replied the wag, "your mother ought to have the premium!"

☞ Letters from Texas speak of a drouth as prevailing through a considerable part of that State, with great intensity.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior, to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would ask that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of law and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able to give beyond question, the best advice for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure a patent to them, on favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 3, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has obtained THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWIRE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudices aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances I think and me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1860.

VOLUNTEERS FOR GARIBALDI.—Three Hungarians, long residents in this country, sailed from New York, Saturday, for the purpose of joining Garibaldi's forces, with Col. Turr and others of their countrymen, who are now fighting so bravely in Sicily. L' Eco d' Italia gives their names as Carlo Kalbl, Major in the Hungarian war and ex-officer of the Austrian army; Goivanni Kadnics, Captain of artillery under the national government of Hungary, and another who graduated at the Military Academy of Vienna. These three men, at their own expense, now visit Sicily, and, going by the way of London, expect that some of their countrymen in that city will join them.—L' Eco also states that there is now preparing an American legion, intended to assist Garibaldi, and that already more than a hundred American volunteers have joined the corps, which will be commanded by a Capt. T——, who distinguished himself in the Mexican war in 1846.

COMMENCEMENT AT DARTMOUTH.—The exercises at the close of the collegiate year at this old college, the alma mater of Webster and Choate, will be held on the 25th of July. Chief Justice Perley of New Hampshire will deliver in the morning his long anticipated eulogy on Rufus Choate, and in the afternoon the United Literary Societies will be addressed by Hon. Edward Everett, and will listen to a poem from Mortimer Thompson, (Doesticks, the quaint and querious.) In the evening the Psi Upsilon fraternity hold their annual convention of the delegates of all the colleges where chapters are established, and Hon. Edward G. Parker of Massachusetts will deliver an oration before them.

FINALLY GONE.—The Japanese finally sailed for home on Saturday. New York will not soon forget them. That $40,000 ball will very likely remain in memory some little time. The Japanese take home with them an immense number of presents—in value, it is said, of at least $100,000. They have also made some few purchases. If Japan does not, on the arrival of the Niagara, learn something of the state of American art and manufactures, of our literature, &c., it will not be for want of samples.—The vessel is packed with one thing and another.

☞ In the letter of Mr. Douglas accepting the nomination of the majority convention at Baltimore, he finds the platform "to be a faithful embodiment of the time-honored principles of the Democratic party, as the same were proclaimed and understood by all parties in the Presidential contests of 1848, 1852, and 1856." He pronounces himself the "regular nominee" of the party, evidently looking at the other wing as they look upon his followers, as wanderers from the true path of democracy.

The Douglas papers, following the suggestion of Mr. Douglas in his speech accepting the nomination, are attacking the Breckinridge party as disunionists.

☞ The Liberator publishes a notice from James Redpath, of the celebration at North Elba, of the "American Insurrections." The call is addressed to the "believers in the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence, and of that method of proclaiming them, inaugurated by Gen. Warren at Bunker Hill and continued by Capt. Brown at Harper's Ferry." John Brown, Jr., is to read the Declaration of Independence, and Solomon, the youngest of all the sons, the Sermon on the Mount. Among the speakers are Rev. T. W. Higginson, of Worcester, Thaddeus Hyatt, Fred Douglass, Rev. Geo. B. Cheever, and others.

☞ M. Retzins, we hear, says the London Atheneum, died in the full pursuit of science. On his dying bed he made his observations on the progressing dissolution of his own body. 'This struggle of death is hard,' he said to those about him; "but it is of the highest interest to note this wrestle between life and death; now the legs are dead; now the muscles of the bowels cease their function; the last struggle must be heavy, but for all that it is highly interesting." These were his last words.

☞ The doctors and chemists have decided that the Hamburg swans in New York died of congestion of the lungs.

Science and humbug! Isn't it "a likely story" that four birds would happen to die at almost exactly the same time, of congestion of the lungs? Just about as reasonable as the report of the "learned" cattle men of Massachusetts, who gave as the cause of the mysterious murrain there, close stables and high feed! As if the same cause would not have produced this effect long before—or as if they would chance to produce it now simultaneously in several places, or the disease be contagious.

☞ There are 130,000 Catholics in Philadelphia, who have 28 churches.

HOW TO BECOME FAMOUS.—In 1798, a young school-girl made the first attempt at straw-binding ever known in the United States. This enterprising young lady is now seventy-four years of age, and is living at West Dedham, the honored wife of Obed Baker, Esq.

"The Rhode Island Society for the Encouragement of Domestic Industry," in Providence, has the imitation of the bonnet Mrs. Baker first braided, and also her portrait, painted by Lincoln. Her picture, occupying a conspicuous place in the rooms, was presented by Ex-Governor Dyer.

Thus is the young girl honored who first, when a mere child, employed her leisure in something useful. From her successful efforts an extensive manufacture has arisen, thousands of people are employed, and millions of dollars saved to the country by promoting domestic industry.—Godey's Lady's Book.

Where is the young lady among the fair readers of the city papers, that will do something like it; furnish employment and food to thousands, "save millions to the country" and confer lasting honor to themselves and the place of their nativity, and set a worthy example for others to follow. B.

☞ The Chicago Times, Douglas's special organ, speaks of the leading Germans in this country in this language:

Pretentious ranters and extravagant or reckless reformers, who fled from the oppressors, not daring to meet and combat their oppressors, have come here to indulge their oratorical propensities entirely out of harm's way.

It is said that the Germans will go, almost in a body, for Lincoln and Hamlin.—Hence this malignant attack by the Douglas organ.

☞ On Saturday, at West Dedham, a young man named Abner Baker was struck by lightning and instantly killed. He was nineteen years of age. He went into the pasture at about 6 o'clock, after cows, and not returning after the shower had abated, search was made for him, and at about half-past 7 oclock, his body was found in a field, his face being distigured. The fluid passed downward, melting his watch chain, tearing his pants and bursting one of his boots. His body was found in an open space, with no trees or other high objects near.

FRATERNAL COMPLIMENTS.—The Bath Times (Douglas Democratic) thus speaks of the Boston Post (Breckinridge Democratic):—

The Post, edited by Mr. Buchanan's Naval Officer, floats the traitor's flag at its mast head. Fitting emblem for such a paper, edited by the tool of such a traitorous administration—an administration which, from its head to its tail, like a nest of pirates, is ready to scuttle and sink the ship rather than give place to men of the people.

GLOOMY RECEPTION.—The general influence of the result at Baltimore is betrayed in the sad tone of the Democratic press, no matter which ticket may be espoused.—Thus the Concord Patriot, the old indomitable organ of the New Hampshire Democracy, in giving in its adhesion to the Douglas faction, says of the Democratic Convention:

We believe no body of men charged with such important interests, and upon whose action so much was pending, ever acted more foolishly or more recklessly; and the natural result of that action, and of the malign influences which dictated it, is seen in a divided party and double nominations.

ANOTHER STORY BY MRS. STOWE.—Mrs Harriet Beecher Stowe has just completed a new story, on which she has been at work for a year past. Those who have had an opportunity to see portions of it, pronounce it superior to any previous production. It is to be printed in the Atlantic Monthly, and subsequently in book form.

TIMELY CAUTION.—The city authorities of Boston have caused posters to be put up all over the city—first, warning people to beware of pickpockets during the present holiday week; and second, that all who are disposed to make night hideous on that which precedes the Fourth, will be provided with quarters in the Tombs, there to remain until Thursday.

☞ Dr. Ferdinand S. Wilsey of South Bergen, N. J., recently died and left a property in Chicago, Illinois, valued at twenty-five thousand dollars, to the American Swedenborg Publishing and Printing Society of New York, as a perpetual fund; the interest to be devoted to the printing and gratuitous distribution of the theological writings of Emmanuel Swedenborg.

☞ The African missionary and traveler, Livingston, found that his own skin changed its color alternately from light to dark as he visited different localities in Africa, a moist but hot temperature making his skin nearly as dark as the Africans, which again bleached out when he came into the dry regions.

☞ Rev. Dr. Eliot's (Unitarian) Society of St. Louis have contributed the liberal sum of $125,000 as an inducement for Washington University to be located there. It was but 25 years since this society solicited aid from the Boston churches to build them a church.

IMMIGRATION.—Ten thousand more emigrants from Europe have arrived at New York the past six months, than during the corresponding time last year.

THE JAPS AT A WEDDING.—The New York papers give glowing accounts of the marriage of a gay Son of Portsmouth to the "only daughter of a wealthy retired Italian merchant" of New York—in Grace Church last week. Among the crowd, which included many distinguished guests, the five princes of the Japanese Embassy were present at the ceremony, in full costume.—The princes had expressed a wish to see three things especially, before leaving the city—a funeral, a law suit and a wedding. The funeral and a court of law were of easy accomplishment, but a wedding of the first class, within the gorgeous light of Grace Church, and managed by Brown, does not come off every day. The bridal dress was superb as gleaming silk, clouds of lace and snowy flowers could make it; while a group of pretty bridesmaids, in pink and blue, gave a brilliant effect to the scene, enhanced on every hand by the gorgeous surrounding of the buildings. The Express thinks this is the first occasion on which the Embassy has entered a place of religious worship in America. They expressed themselves surprised and delighted by the beauty of the church, and said that America was a happy country to possess such buildings, where so many beautiful ladies could be seen together.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Steamship Ariel sails to-day for California, but Mr. Vanderbilt refuses to take the mails for the inland and ocean postage, and also refuses to carry express matter for Freeman & Co., or Wells, Fargo & Co.

Judge Ingraham of the Supreme Court has decided that all over-issued stock of the New Haven Railroad is valid.

John Walton, a wealthy distiller, was shot on Saturday night, while walking. The murderer was pursued by a crowd, John W. Matthews leadiog, when he turned and shot Matthews dead, and made his escape. The murderer is unknown, but warrants have been issued for the arrest of Charles and Edward Jefferds, sons of Mrs. Walton by a former marriage. Mr. Walton was 40 years old, and highly esteemed. He had sued for a divorce within the past month, alleging criminality on the part of his wife. Mr. Matthews was a railroad contractor, and had just returned from a fishing excursion with his sisters when he was shot. The pistol found near the scene of the murder has been identified as recently in possession of one of the Jefferds.

Charles Goodyear, the inventor of vulcanized India rubber, died yesterday.

CORN CULTURE.—The Genesee Farmer speaks as follows on the cultivation of corn:

We have spent considerable time and money in experimenting with the various fertilizers for Indian corn. We know the importance of the subject. But we are satisfied that for the country at large, good ploughing, proper preparation of the land, early planting, and good and thorough culture, are of far greater importance. Throughout the vast corn-growing regions of America, if we can remove stagnant water, prepare the land properly, plant in good season, and use the horse-hoe freely, the soil, in the majority of cases, is rich enough to produce fair and remunerative crops.

WON'T VOTE FOR HIM.—A letter from Worth county, Ga., contains the following:

I think the people—the Democratic party I mean—of this part of the State won't touch Mr. Douglas if nominated. They will vote for a Southern American first, and I know some of them mean what they say. Party leaders can't whip them back into the ranks for Douglas.

CALCULATION.—Here is a queer yet startling calculation made by Judge Capron of New York:—In New York city there are 15,000 dram-shops; 300,000 drinkers, each drinking two gills of liquor being 600,000 gills, or 805 barrels per day: 300,000 barrels per year. This would fill a reservoir 900 feet long, 50 feet wide and 63 feet deep, and could float four large ships in full sail. At $30 per barrel it amounts to $9,000,000. Out of the 6,000 persons tried before the Court of Special Sessions during the last year, not more than 94 were sober when arrested. Paupers in the city cost $3,000,000 a year.

☞ The Richmond Whig says:—

A large majority, perhaps, of the Democratic voters of Virginia prefer Douglas to Breckinridge. Indeed, Breckinridge is as much a sectional candidate as Lincoln, and is the nominee of a thoroughly sectional party, that is looking anxiously to an early dissolution of the Union. The national and conservative Democrats of Virginia, therefore, cannot vote for Breckinridge.

☞ The last and latest "card of thanks" is one signed by a party of prisoners, who, before leaving the jail at Wheeling, Va., to take up their residence at Richmond, "take this means of expressing their gratitute to the Warden and his lady."

Wouldn't you call this the calf of a leg? asked Bob, pointing to one of his nether limbs, rather compactly encased in representations of barber poles and running vines. "No," replied Jim, "I should say it was the leg of a calf."

☞ The Charleston Courier describes the late "Sambo" assemblage at Chicago as the "free-filth and wool-gathering Convention."

TREMULENT THUNDER.—The finest idea of a thunder storm was when Wiggins came home tight. He came into the room where his wife and daughters were, and just then he stumbled over the cradle and fell whop on the floor. After a short time he rose and said—"Wife are you hurt?" "No." "Girls, are you hurt?" "No."—"Terrible clap, wa'n't it?"

NEW YORK, July 1.—A fire in 18th street, last night, destroyed a planeing mill, chair factory, carriage house and stable.—Loss $25,000 insurred $11,000.

Another fire last night destroyed the building No. 48 Broadway, occupied by dealers in hatters' goods, furs, &c. Loss $20,000.

A fire in Liberty street partially burnt building No. 67. It was occupied by various persons, and was damaged by fire and water to the amount of about $10,000.

After fire fires were extinguished the firemen indulged in several free fights, using stone, clubs, pistols, &c. No one was killed, although many were badly bruised.

The Great Eastern will be open for visitors on Tuesday. The charge of admission will be one dollar. Two of the crew have been accidentally killed—one by falling from the topsail and the other by falling through the wheel house.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. As abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows upon the Island. The table is families. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and exciting power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashfield, Oct. 8, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, add so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

THE FOURTH.—Messrs. Editors:—As the night before the fourth approaches, the City Government are considering the expediency of an extra watch, and probably many individuals are beginning to feel uneasy of their premises. As it seems decided that we are not to have a "good fourth of July," so it is feared by many that we are to have a bad one.

Now what is best to do, each one look after his own premises and keep quiet, omit the extra watch, and save the city's money; or to take energetic measures by the city authorities, sufficient to protect persons and property?

Will the city do as has been done before, put on a few extra watchmen who will be under the necessity of keeping out of harm's way, or by coming in contact with the rowdies "add to the row"?

The wisest and best of generals and statesmen thought it cheapest and best to have force enough to have no serious contention and to make opposition useless. B.

EASTERN RAILROAD COMPANY.—The twenty-fifth annual report of the directors of the Eastern Railroad Company, gives a full statement of the operations for the year ending May 31st, 1860. The earnings of the road were $699,152 24; working expenses $344,237 56. The net earnings, interest off, were $229,643 90, a gain from 1859 of $34,268 71. During the year the balance of floating debt has been paid, amounting to $99,301 14, and also income bonds, $5,060, making the total reduction of indebtedness, $174,301 14, while there remains as available cash assets from current earnings the sum of $54,980 93. It is confidently expected that a dividend will be paid in January next. During the year the company have transported one million three hundred thousand passengers, without injury to any one. A source of gain is the diminished expense for fuel in the use of coal, although the miles run by trains have increased.

A GORGEOUS SPECTACLE.—It is worth a many miles' journey to witness a sunset, any of these pleasant evenings, from Sagamore Cliff or from "Cushing's Rocks." For miles and miles, over hill and dale, stretches a landscape of wood and lawn, clad in its new suit of fresh, undusty, unfaded green. And as the sun sinks to rest, it spreads its golden mantle over the whole scene, not hiding it, but revealing it as through the transparent meshes of the finest lace.—Nothing can be more delightful than to wander forth to these favored spots at this bewitching and enchanting hour, when all nature seems to feel and acknowledge the supreme and overwhelming power of Omnipotence. REP.

☞ Those voyagers for pleasure who would like a trip to the Shoals on the Fourth, will see, by an advertisement in our columns, that the beautiful new schooner Fanny Boardman, is to be at their service that day, at the very low rate of 50 cents per passenger, for the voyage complete.

☞ Persons desiring to hire good Sailboats, can learn where to do so, by referring to Deering & Yeaton's riggers advertisement, on fourth page. Among their little fleet is the staunch old Piscataqua, which was burnt once, but has been renewed and rebuilt almost from stem to stern.

HAPPY HARTFORD.—Two things are noteworthy in our sister city. The Times has no candidate for the Presidency. The city are to have no celebration on the Fourth of July. We shall not be surprised to hear that several quiet and worthy gentlemen from here and from other cities have gone there to spend the summer. For is it not a paradise of peace, where the Democratic paper goes for nobody, and there is no noise on Independence Day. Prepare for visitors, good Hartford friends.—Providence Journal.

A SPLENDID SHIP WITH A LARGE CARGO.—The fine ship Sarah E. Pettigrew, Capt. Burdick, just arrived at Philadelphia, from Liverpool, is a splendid A 1 ship of 1192 tons register, and about three years old. She has now on board 2715 tons of cargo, but carries, when fully laden, 3000 tons; her capacity being equal to 6100 bales cotton or 25,500 bbls. flour. She now draws 23 feet water, and crossed the bar with all ease, in tow of a steam-tug.—Philadelphia Paper.

REV. DANIEL WORTH.—This notorious rascal, who was convicted of circulating Helper's "Impending Crisis," has forfeited a bail of $3000, and is now in New York City, where he nightly holds forth on his "great wrongs" to large audiences, and finishes by taking up a collection for the purpose of "indemnifying his sureties."

We think the persons who bailed him should themselves be committed to jail for an indefinite period.—Wilson N. C. Ledger.

WHY JOHN ADAMS WAS NOT A SHOEMAKER.—The patriot, John Adams, it is said, was designed for a shoemaker, like his father. One day Deacon Adams, his parent, gave him some uppers to cut out by a pattern that had a three cornered hole in it, by which it had hung upon a nail, and it was found that he had followed the pattern exactly, triangular hole and all. The deacon upon seeing this, decided that John wan't fit to be a shoemaker, and put him to learning.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

FARTHER POINT, June 30.—Steamship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool 20th and Londonderry 21st, has passed this point en route for Quebec.

The Conference of Napoleon with the Prince of Prussia and other German sovereigns at Baden, ended on the 17th.

The French Prussian journals declare that the peace of Europe is now consolidated.

All is quiet in Italy. Garibaldi was organizing for an effort to invade the main land.

One of the steamers captured by the Neapolitan fleet carried the American flag.

CROSS-EXAMINING.—The veteran counsellor Caldbeck, one day cross-examining a fellow as witness, asked him in several ways what he thought a particular person to be, from his own knowledge, hearsay, or belief; but could get no other answer than that "He did not know, and could not tell."

"Come, fellow," said the counsellor, "answer me on your oath; what would you take me to be, if you did not actually know my person, and should meet me in the street?"

"Why, then," says the fellow, "since you ask me, I will tell you, sir. By virtue of my oath, if you had not that wig and gown upon you, I should take you for a little ould peddler."

The learned counsellor was silenced.

A correspondent of the Pennsylvanian, writing from Philadelphia says:—In August last, one of the unctuous community that exist in the Yard, canvassed in his official capacity, for subscribers to the Democratic Review, but his memory being of a lubricious nature, he forgot to remit to the publishers part of the subscriptions received, leaving the poor deluded subscribers, (some of whom subscribed through fear of being discharged if they refused) to whistle for the prosy production of the 'Widow's, Friend.'

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—The approaching anniversary of our national independence is to be celebrated at Diman's Cottage and Stratham Hill in the most satisfactory manner. Amos S. Alexander, Esq., of Portsmouth, is to deliver an oration; the Declaration of Independence will be read by Robert T. Lincoln, son of the Republican candidate for the Presidency; Albert Laighton, Esq., and Dr. Frank Fuller have written some excellent odes for the occasion, which will be sung by a select choir under the direction of John Christie, Esq., of Portsmouth; J. W. Odlin, Esq., of Exeter, will be Chief Marshal, and all the arrangements are in the hands of gentlemen who will not fail to carry them out satisfactorily. Dinner will be served at the cottage and green-house, and strawberries and other refreshments will be served in the gardens during the day.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whitemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine.—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN ONE INSTANCE. NO EFFECT OF A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this unanimous manner, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with the utmost success, in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the facsimile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and of course the True Food for Nourishment. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every case certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory, hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the Bowels must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsy.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when used in the proper way, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATES of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason it commends itself as the only safe preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain. It has so equal—being a mild aromatic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those and and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for these complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

VERMONT BUTTER.

MATHES & VARRELL

DR MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSUMPTION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of approved marasmus, accompanied by critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no remedy.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron, combined jointly to metallic Iron and the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases of costiveness, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to CHURCH MUSIC.—There is a general idea among the churches that the music of a paid choir costs too much; but a congregation may as well pay their money, as a choir spend their time. A volunteer choir, with any ambition to sing creditably, assume a great burden. They assume, first, the burden of always being at church, whether they be sick or well. They assume the expenditure of a great deal of time for rehearsals. They assume a thousand vexations. They expose themselves to the criticisms of those who will not touch the burden with one of their fingers. Who blames free men and free women for refusing to become the slaves of others? We have known those who voluntarily carried the burden of the music of a church for many years, as a Christian duty, and we give them all honor; but we have no right to ask it of them—no more right, really, than we have to ask a minister to give us his time for nothing, and "find himself." It is very pretty for a congregation to gather and hear good singing, and not have it cost them anything; but the fact is, all good singing—all singing worthy of the house of God— costs somebody something.—nay, costs somebody a good deal. Why should a choir bear the whole of this cost, and the congregation none of it?

Those who devote their lives to music are best calculated to perform acceptably the music of the sanctuary. We should add to this class all who, by the abundant expenditure of time and money, have become excellent in this accomplishment. To the first of these, music is the instrument by which they win their livelihood; to the last, it has been a costly thing, and they deserve return. It is just as reasonable, and just as legitimate, for a man to sing God's praise for a living, as it is to preach God's truth or lead in any other department of Christian worship for a living; and a church or a parish which shrinks from assuming its part of the burden of church music, can only justify itself by the plea of poverty or constitutional meanness.

One reason for the difficulty which churches meet with in their music, is the fact that it is intrusted to the hands of incompetent committees. We do not know why it is, but the music committee of a church almost invariably contains one man who cannot tell "Old Hundred" from "Yankee Doodle." If a parish can find a man who is utterly stupid and stolid—a man who has no music in his soul, and none anywhere else,—they will be sure to put him on the singing committee. There is nothing which asses feel so competent to manage, as church music. Such men and such committees are always disgusting singers, making trouble in choirs, introducing the most senseless changes, and raising a row generally. The best singers in a congregation make always the best and the only competent singing committees, and the further the number on such a committee is raised above one, the worse for all concerned.—Springfield Repub.

A HYMN OF THEODORE PARKER.—The following hymn, says the New York Evening Post, is from the pen of the late Rev. Theodore Parker, and may be found in the Rev. Samuel Longfellow's "Book of Hymns," published by Ticknor & Fields, of Boston. This book has been pronounced "one of the best collections of sacred poetry extant," and has already reached its tenth edition. Some of its hymns were copied into the Rev. Mr. Beecher's hymn-book by permission of Rev. Mr. Longfellow; and a little anecdote connected with the procurement of this hymn of the Rev. Mr. Parker's will not be out of place. It seems that when Mr. Longfellow applied for it, Mr. Parker at first declined (knowing how unpopular he was with many people,) and said, "It will ruin your book." "Well," replied Mr. Longfellow, "then let it, but I must have a hymn from you." So Mr. Parker wrote it, and his society adopted and used the book:—

CHRIST—THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE.

O thou great Friend to all the sons of men,
Who once appeared in humblest guise below,
Sin to remake, to break the captive's chain,
And call the wretched forth from want and woe,

We look to thee: Thy truth is still the Light
Which guides the nations, groping on their way,
Stumbling and falling in disastrous night,
Yet hoping ever for the perfect day.

Yes! thou art still the Life; thou art the Way
The holiest know—Light, Life, and Way of heaven!
And they who dearest hope and deepest pray,
Toll by the light, life, way, which thou hast given.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being grayand from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining ground in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saddle against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total destruction, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which have never failed to produce a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which induced me to use you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—I'rmit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 50 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1860.

PENNSYLVANIA.—There appears to be a great number of anti-Douglas Democrats in Pennsylvania. This is probably owing to sympathy among influential men for Mr. Buchanan. The Democratic electoral ticket was nominated last March; and is said to have a majority of anti-Douglas men on it. The Philadelphia Ledger, an independent Democratic paper, takes ground against Mr. Douglas, and calls upon him to decline. The same paper says "the troubles of the Democracy from having too many candidates, it is evident, have but just begun."

The Press, the Douglas organ in Philadelphia, appears to entertain the belief that Pennsylvania is more doubtful for Douglas than almost any other free State.

This is droll enough; if it means that he will get nearly all the free States except Pennsylvania, which is doubtful. But if it means that all the free States are so nearly sure to go for Lincoln that there is no great doubt about them, but that he has the benefit of the reasonable doubts in Pennsylvania,—then it is a little droll on the other side. If it means that his chance is worse in Pennsylvania than in the other free States generally, then it is droller still for a Douglas organ.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—Since the arrival of the giant steamship at her pier in New York, two of her crew have been killed by falling from her, and the ill luck which has always characterized her movements has in no way abandoned her, for on Friday last a sudden gust of wind from the west, striking full upon the steamer's immense broadside, drove her with force against the pier. An iron lighter had been placed between her and the wharf, to make a stage for painting the wheels; and it was stupidly left until the port paddle-wheel was driven by the wind full against it, breaking the floats, ripping out the rivets, and bending the arms, so as to require repairs which will cost several thousand dollars. Gangs of men are busily at work scraping and painting and putting the ship in a proper condition to receive company.

TO LOOK AT THE GREAT EASTERN. The price—one dollar—to see the Great Eastern, will prove, we fear, both profitless and unpopular. It is exorbitant. The New York papers have taken up the matter.—The Tribune well says:

Many think that a dollar is too high, others think that fifty cents would be reasonable, while a quarter of a dollar is considered a popular fee. One thing is certain, the stay of the big ship is limited, and the managers above all things desire to make money for the stockholders as soon as possible. They cannot do this by charging a dollar a head for visitors. There are a few who would be willing in order to avoid a crowd, to pay a dollar to see the Great Eastern. Perhaps there are ten thousand such; but the great masses—the farmers and mechanics, who take their wives, sisters, and sweethearts—the people who would consider such a visit an event in their lives—the people that throng museums, menageries and other shows, and support all the popular entertainments, cannot afford to pay more than twenty-five cents a head. For the exclusives, set apart one day in the week, and call it the dollar day. The only way to make the Great Eastern a paying show is, to popularize it.

THE PEMBERTON MILL LOSS.—By mutual agreement, the claim of the Pemberton Mill Manufacturing Company on the several insurance companies having policies on their mill at Lawrence, which was destroyed by falling on the tenth of January last, and afterwards burned, was submitted to a reference consisting of J. W. Balch, Esq., of the Boylston Insurance Company, Boston; J. Y. Smith, Esq., of Providence; and D. A. Heald, Esq., of the Home Insurance Company of New York. These gentlemen, after long and patient consideration, have awarded the company the sum of $99,375, amounting to 22 1-2 per cent. of the total insurance.

THE SOUTHERN PLANTERS.—Francis Parton says—"travel twenty-four hours into the Southern States, and then get ten miles away from the railroad, and you have arrived at sixty years ago. You are handling the implements, you are contemplating the caste of character, you are enjoying the usages, you are eating the viands, you are sitting in the fire-places, you are snuffing the candles of the year 1790. Often, too, you will have the heart-felt satisfaction of observing, particularly in North Carolina and Tennessee, that along with the primitive manners and customs of another age, have been preserved the primitive health, feelings, and virtues — a certain hearty, honest, homely dignity of character, which we have heard our great-grandfathers possessed. Everything is done slowly at the South, and people have time to live, to grow fat, and to grow old."

NEW YORK, July 2.—The friends of Douglas held a meeting at Tammany Hall to-night. Ex-Mayor Tieman presided.—Speeches were made by Senator Pugh, Marshall of Tennessee, and others, denunciatory of the Administration.

GENERAL COURT.

In Senate, Saturday June 30, Mr. Foster moved a suspension of rules and the following bills were read a third time and passed:

Resolution relating to the Atlantic & St. Lawrence Railroad; act relating to administering oaths; amending charter of N. H. Iron Factory Co.; act for assessment of State tax; to increase the capital stock of Citizens' Bank; relating to powers of Police Judges and Justices in complaints under the Liquor Law; relating to the power of fire engineers; altering the terms of Court in Belknap and Rockingham; incorporating the Carroll Co. Lead and Zinc Mining Co.; legitimatizing children born before marriage, whose parents afterwards intermarry.

In the House, some Portsmouth business was done, of special interest here. The act in amendment of an act to establish the city of Portsmouth came before the House on its second reading.

Mr. Greenleaf, of Portsmouth, said he had several amendments to offer, and he moved one.

Mr. Wheeler, of Newport, moved the previous question, which was ordered.

The amendment was then put and rejected.

Mr. Greenleaf rose to move another amendment, but was informed by the Speaker he was precluded from so doing, the previous question having been ordered.

The bill was then ordered to a third reading; and subsequently, on motion of Mr. Hackett, of Portsmouth, it was read a third time by suspension of the rules, and passed.

EXERCISE.—Miss Martineau says:—

I speak from experience here. For thirty years my business has lain in my study. The practice of early rising was, I am confident, the grand preservative of health thro' many years of hard work—the hours gained being given, not to book and pen, but to activity. I rose at six, summer and winter, and, (after cold bathing) went out for a walk in all weathers. In the coldest season, on the rainiest morning, I never returned without being glad that I went. I need not detail the pleasure of the summer mornings. In winter, there was either a fragment of gibbons moon hanging over the mountain, or a star quivering in the river, or icicles beginning to shine in the dawn, or, at worst, some break in the clouds, some moss on the walls, some gleam on the water, which I carried home in the shape of refreshment. I breakfasted at 7 1-2, and had settled household business and was at my work by 8 1-2, fortified for seven hours' continuous desk-work without injury or fatigue.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Edwin Jefferds was taken into custody to-day on suspicion of having murdered Mr. Walton, although it is believed generally that his brother Charles, who is missing, is the murderer.—Charles is said to answer the description given of the murderer by a girl, and his absence from the city since the murder was committed is suspicious.

The two Jefferds and their mother, the wife of Walton, appear from the best accounts in the papers, to be a trio of devils. Poor Walton got a great deal more than he bargained for, when he married such a widow bewitched.

A COINCIDENCE.—Archbishop Hughes preached a discourse in New York, Sunday, on the "Temporal Power of the Pope." On the previous day, but bearing date July 1st, Brownson's Quarterly Review had a lengthy article on the same subject. The coincidence is something more than accidental.—Archbishop Hughes accuses the Italians of robbing the Pope of his dominions in Romagna. The American people robbed poor King George the third, very much in the same way. "Ye that have tears, prepare to shed them now!"

LAKE SCHOONERS IN BOSTON.—There have arrived at Boston, within a few days, two schooners, the G. W. Hill and the West Wind, from Buffalo via Quebec. The schooners Sophia Smith and Fashion are on the way from the same point, and two more are yet to follow. These schooners are about 300 tons burthen each. They have come to seek business, the western railroads having almost entirely superseded the use of lake navigation.

☞ Forney's Philadelphia Press has hauled down the Douglas flag.

The Charleston Mercury has not as yet even referred to the Democratic nominations for President and Vice President.

The Steubenville (Ohio) Union places both the Democratic tickets at the head of its columns.

☞ Rev. G. B. Manser, of Bennington, Vt., has in his possession a sofa made by Stephen A. Douglas and his partner while in business at Williston. The workmanship is very good. He agreed to make it for forty dollars, but when it was finished, wanted a little more—fifty dollars.

RATHER TALL.—Abe Lincoln—the fence rail splitter and Black Republican standard-bearer—is six feet three inches in height; and his principal supporter in the Chicago Convention was Mr. Buskirk, one of the delegates from Indiana, who measures six feet eleven inches in his stockings.

DROWNED.—At Newburyport, on Saturday afternoon, Jefferson H., 11 years of age, son of Mrs. Eben G. Balch, by a previous marriage, was drowned while bathing in the dock.

IPSWICH will celebrate the Fourth, with procession, dinner, fireworks, and music by the Portsmouth Band.

UNION TICKETS.

A Philadelphia dispatch of July 2, says:

The Democratic State Committee met today, and, after a hot discussion, adopted resolutions, 45 against 15, calling on the Democracy of Pennsylvania to unite in support of Foster for Governor, and recommending a united electoral ticket on the following basis:—If the vote of Pennsylvania will elect Douglas, then it is to be given to him; if it will not elect him, but Breckinridge, then it is to be cast for the latter; if it will not elect either, then the electors can divide their vote according to their judgment. The Chairman of the Committee is authorized to communicate with the electors and obtain their pledges within thirty days.

A large meeting to ratify the nominations of Breckinridge and Lane was held here this evening, Charles F. Ingersoll presiding. Resolutions were passed strongly in favor of the Maryland Institute nominees, and declaring those of the Front Street Theatre a nullity, were passed. A letter from Wm. B. Reed, urging mild counsels, was read, and recommending that the electoral vote of Pennsylvania be cast against the Republicans for the most available candidate.

The Boston Herald of July 3 says, on this same subject:—

There is only a corporal's guard of Breckinridge men in the free States, and they will not be recognized by the Democratic party. The proposition of attempting to make up a union electoral ticket will not be entertained for a moment, and if the friends of Breckinridge desire to come into the party, they must lay down their arms and give in their adhesion to the regularly nominated candidates, Douglas and Johnson, or else "stay out in the cold."

The Breckinridge and Lane ticket is a bogus affair.

☞ The Bath Times says:—

New Hampshire is pledged to Douglas. We consider the electoral vote of Maine as sure for Douglas, as the vote of Vermont is for Lincoln.

As to the pledge of New Hampshire, says Uncle Toby, no reasonable man in the State supposes Douglas will come within 5000 votes of a majority here. It is one of the most improbable events.

The guess about Maine strikes the old man as not very likely to be realized, except over the left. The Lowell Advertiser, a Breckinridge democratic paper, says:

All the electoral votes Douglas can obtain will be from the Northern States, and is is impossible for us to put our finger on the Northern State whose vote he is sure to obtain.

IRON CARS are now being tried on most of our Northern railroads, and one of them passed through here on Monday. Built of wrought iron, with the exception of the floor-boards, it was, on the inside, one of the most convenient and richly-finished cars we have ever seen, while the material of which it is constructed obviates the danger from splinters, so great in the wooden car, in cases of collision.

☞ A letter from Vienna, in the German Journal of Frankfort, says:

The principal reason for which the Austrian clergy oppose the grant of the same religious rights to the Protestants as to the Catholics, is that they know if it were made, a great number of Catholics would turn Protestants. The concessions accorded to the Hungarian Protestants have already produced numerous conversions in Hungary. The clergy are alarmed and irritated, and the high clergy, in private, speak of the Emperor, Francis Joseph, in terms which they dare not employ in public.

THE GREATEST COW STORY YET.—Of all the wonderful cows of this season, none has equalled the native specimen owned by Mr. John Nichols of Salem, Mass. Mr. Nichols kept an accurate account of her daily production of milk through the year, and found that she gave an aggregate of 13,340 pounds, and showing an average production of thirty-six and one half pounds per day for a whole year! She repeatedly gave sixty pounds and more per day, and for months together more than fifty-five pounds daily.—Salem Register.

☞ Scott, Ackley & Co., of New York, have sent us a copy of the Cuban Messenger, a new paper in the English language, printed at Havana.

Southern Senators have fallen into an ugly habit of denouncing poor men and those who labor in the sweat of their brow. Senator Hammond pronounced them "the mudsills of human society." Wigfall, in his spirited manner, denounced them as "canaille," and Senator Green calls them "poor infamous scoundrels," and "lazzaroni." If these are to be regarded as the sentiments of the Democratic party, announced thro' its leaders, it is high time that such a disgraceful organization were broken up.—Louisville Journal.

☞ The Great Eastern will be a God-send to certain liquor shops in New York. One man pays $500 a week for the privilege of keeping a lager-saloon near the ship.

FORMS OF INTEMPERANCE.—There is the intemperance of mirth, and then its victim is a silly buffoon; the intemperance of seriousness, and then he is a gloomy ascetic; the intemperance of ambition, and then he is the laurelled hero of a hundred fights, a madcap poet, or a mountebank statesman; the intemperance of love, and then he is a good-for-nothing driveller; the intemperance of the bowl, and then he is a reeling drunkard.

☞ At Havana, on the evening of the 17th ult., a young lady named Isabel Quintero, daughter of the Fiscal Attorney General, was bathing her person with rum, when the spirits caught fire and she was burned to death.

NEW YORK, July 3.—The Post Office is surfeited with newspapers intended for yesterday's California steamer. The Tribune estimates the loss by the agents at one establishment here, in the purchase of papers for their California houses, in consequence of Vanderbilt's refusal to carry them, at from $25,000 to $30,000.

The cabinet shop connected with the State Prison at Sing Sing was burnt this morning. The loss to Mr. Woodruff, its proprietor, is $60,000; insured for $40,000. Loss on the building to the State $4000.

At the Douglas serenade at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, last night, speeches were made by Mr. Douglas and others. Toward the close a fight occurred, in which an employee of the hotel was badly beaten by rowdies.

A Washington dispatch says an altercation took place Saturday between the President and Senator Gwin, and that the latter's words were not at all measured. Gwin closed by saying he would never darken the doors of the President's mansion again.

The late Judge Pease, of the Supreme Court of Ohio, was a noted wag. A young lawyer was once making his first effort before him, and had thrown himself on the wings of imagination into the seventh heaven, and was preparing for a higher ascent, when the judge struck his ruler on the desk two or three times, and exclaimed to the astonished orator: "hold on, hold on, my dear sir! Don't go any higher, for you are already out of the jurisdiction of this court."

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—Prior to the adoption of the compromise resolutions by the National Executive Committee, many propositions were made, among which was one declaring Douglas the nominee of the Democratic party for President. It was voted down; ayes 19, nays 43.

STRIKE.—About 100 weavers of the Metacomet Mill, at Fall River, have struck for higher wages. They demand an increase of three-quarters of a cent per cut.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

PLEASURE SEEKERS COMING.

The hotels and promenades give evidence of the return of pleasure seekers from the South, to enjoy their summer holiday. Free from the cares of business, these ladies and gentlemen cannot but drain the cup of enjoyment during the several summer months, to return in the autumn with renewed health, and in bounding spirits. Who will say then, that money is not a blessing? The poor man must labor, week in and week out, or starve. His health may give way; still, he must work.—Now, if he would economize a little, and enclose his savings, say $2.50, $5.00 or $10.00, to Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, or St. Louis, Missouri, for a chance in one of their legalized lotteries, he might draw enough to make him comfortable for life, or at least enough to start a profitable business, or buy a farm.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief; and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.
Marriage, Visiting or Business Cards Printed or ENGRAVED in the best manner.

☞ All hands being engaged in celebrating the Fourth of July, of course there will be no Daily Chronicle on Thursday—unless, indeed, we Chroniclers should find it so strange to have a holiday, that we should feel obliged to keep at work, from mere habit, it is so long since we had a play-day.

☞ There is to be no "Fourth" in Portsmouth to-day; but the cars leave for Diman's at 10 minutes before 11 o'clock; and return from Stratham at 10 minutes before 6. Tickets out and back only 40 cents;—children 20 cts.

TIME. — The regular afternoon trains from Portland on the Eastern and Boston & Maine Railroads were detained about two hours, Monday, in Wells, Me., by the breaking of the water pipe in the engine, which put out the fire in the furnace. The passengers amused themselves by strolling away and sitting in groups on the grass, without appearing at all disconsolate. The five o'clock(boat) train from Portland came along and pushed the cars to Berwick Junction, after which they progressed in the usual manner.

☞ There was a grand Sunday School Picnic in the beautiful Grove at the Bay Side, not far from Diman's, in Stratham, on Tuesday. The party came down from Concord, with a Band, and we are told numbered upwards of five hundred. Of course they enjoyed themselves finely; but no better than the crowd at Stratham Hill will to-day, if the weather is as pleasant; and the crowd will number thousands to-day.

☞ The numbers who desire to visit Stratham to-day will doubtless be so great that the purchase of tickets at the depot will probably be attended with difficulty; offices have therefore been established at Preston's and Thacher's, where all who expect to obtain seats will do well to supply themselves.

☞ The celebrated Double Burlesque Opera Troupe gave a grand Concert at the Temple last night—and announce two more for this afternoon and evening, to help celebrate the fourth of July; and there are many less profitable ways of spending the day than that. Of course they had and will have good houses — for everybody knows they give as good entertainments of the kind, as can be well gotten up.

☞ Mr. George A. Edney had one of his legs broken, Tuesday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, as he stood on one of our north end wharves, where grain in bags was discharging from a vessel. One of the bags fell from a pile, throwing him down and breaking his leg. It was set by Dr. Folsom, who once suffered a similar injury.

☞ We are requested to state that the Young Men's Christian Association will hold a Prayer Meeting at their rooms in Market street, (entrance on Commercial Alley,) this, Wednesday afternoon, at half-past 2 o'clock. All interested are invited.

☞ Messrs. C. W. Brewster & Son have just issued from the Journal Press, their revised and corrected Portsmouth Directory for 1860–61. Every business man and every family should be furnished with a copy.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.—On the breaking out of the cattle disease, Dr. M. G. Smith of Newburyport, who has written a series of interesting articles on bathing for this paper, wrote to His Excellency that the disease might be cured by water alone, and if his current expenses were paid and a suitable bath was made large enough to admit an ox, he would test the applicability of water to the disease. He stated also that electrical disturbances was the cause of all disease, and that water was a most profound electrical agent, and alluded to Farrady in proof of his assertion; and furthemore if man could be cured of disease by water, cattle might be. The Governor did not deem the proposition worthy of notice. By the foreign mail we learn that the experiments had been tried by a gentleman in Ireland, and of eight infected cows, seven were at once cured on being driven into the bath; and all over Ireland the cattle are now being saved.—Newburyport Herald.

A MAN STRUCK AND A WELL DRIED UP BY LIGHTNING.—The Cleveland Herald of Monday evening says:—

During the heavy thunder storm of this morning the house of Julius Brown, clerk in the Recorder's office, was struck by lightning. The current struck the lightning rod and followed it down to the earth without leaving marks upon the house. Mr. Brown was sleeping in the bed room with his head to the wall, near the place where the lightning rod was fastened. The electric current in passing, filled the house with a sulphurous smell. When Mr. Brown recovered from his stupor, it was found that his left side was completely paralyzed.—A most singular fact connected with this lightning stroke is that the well, situated about ten feet from the end of the lightning rod, and which had copious supply of water on Sunday evening, is now completely dried up.

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—The approaching anniversary of our national independence is to be celebrated at Diman's Cottage and Stratham Hill in the most satisfactory manner. Amos S. Alexander, Esq., of Portsmouth, is to deliver an oration; the Declaration of Independence will be read by Robert T. Lincoln, son of the Republican candidate for the Presidency; Albert Laighton, Esq., and Dr. Frank Fuller have written some excellent odes for the occasion, which will be sung by a select choir under the direction of John Christie, Esq., of Portsmouth; J. W. Odlin, Esq., of Exeter, will be Chief Marshal, and all the arrangements are in the hands of gentlemen who will not fail to carry them out satisfactorily. Dinner will be served at the cottage and green-house, and strawberries and other refreshments will be served in the gardens during the day.

HAY MAKING.—As the season for making hay is approaching, we will give a few words of caution in advance. Don't dry your hay too much. Hay may be dried till it is as worthless as straw. As a good coffee-maker would say, "don't burn your coffee, but brown it," so we say don't dry your hay, but cure it. Our good old mothers, who relied upon herb tea, instead of "potecary medicine," gathered their herbs when in blossom, and cured them in the shade. This is the philosophy of making good hay. Cut in the bloom, and cure in shade. The sugar of the plant, when it is in bloom, is in the stalk ready to form the seeds. If the plant is cut earlier, the sugar is not there: if later, the sugar has become converted to woody matter.

Hay should be well wilted in the sun, but cured in the cock. Better to be a little too green, than too dry. If, on putting it into the barn, there is danger of "heating in the mow," put on some salt. Cattle will like it none the less.

Heat, light, and dry winds, will soon take the starch and sugar, which constitute the goodness of hay, out of it; and, with the addition of a shower, render it almost worthless. Grass cured with the least exposure to the drying winds and scorching sunshine, is more nutritious than if longer exposed, however good the weather may be. If over cured, it contains more woody fiber, and less nutritive matter.

The true art of hay-making, then, consists in cutting the grass when the starch and sugar are most fully developed, and before they are converted into seeds and woody fiber; and cutting it up to the point when it will answer to put in the barn without heating, and no more.—Ohio Cultivator.

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

The Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

DR. TOWNSEND'S

BLOOD.

the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its wonderful effects, and tens of thousands have testified to it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a uniform saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in cleaning the system from disease, exclusive and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic invalids, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of DR. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines in her home, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more in it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on M. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a home-stead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we witness the slightest disaffection by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we know," after ten years experience, and positively requesting the judgment of those who have tested it. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in thousands of cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and vigor to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We have put up and sold this REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 5 Cedar st. New York.

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection where ever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that when you gain your health. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

Dyspepsia Remedy

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous system shattered, constitution broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from their natural organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

For sale in Portsmouth, by PRESTON and THACHER, and B. HUTCHINGS. Sold by all country dealers.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. BAILEY'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the cause of your child's suffering, and not deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN SUFFERING from DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. BAILEY'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

D. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz.:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, TIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at Business at Rochester, Great Falls, Dover, Exeter, Raymond, Epping, Manchester, Concord, Wolfboro', Centre Harbor, or at any way station attended to.

A COURAGEOUS BOY.—At Marston's Mills, on Saturday last, as a boy named Tolman, aged 13 years, and an elderly lady, Mrs. Landers, aged 70, were attempting to get out of a dory boat into a larger one, they fell into the water. They were probably near 300 feet from the shore, and where the depth of the water is some 17 ft. With most persons of their ages, under like circumstances, death would seem inevitable. Not so with this cool and courageous boy. He grasped hold of the lady's dress with one hand, and swam to the boat with the other. No person was in sight, and it was impossible for our hero to get into the boat without releasing his hold upon the lady. He quieted her fears by courageous assurances, and then, raising his voice to its full strength, he succeeded, in a few minutes, in rallying help which was out of sight but within hearing. In another boat the rescuers came to the brave and faithful boy and the venerable matron, and saved them both. We need not say how welcome was safety was to them, nor with what wonder and affection they were received by the families to which they belonged, and by the friends and neighbors who supposed them lost beyond recovery.—Barnstable Patriot.

A LARGE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY AWARDED TO EMANCIPATED SLAVES.—On the 21st of May, 1855, a North Carolina planter arrived at this port in a steamboat, having with him seven slaves—a woman and six children. This man, whose name was Elijah Willis, had treated the negro woman as his wife, and he acknowledged all the children as his own. His object in coming to this State was to emancipate these slaves. Previously he made a will, leaving his property, valued at about $80,000, to the woman and her children.—Immediately on stepping upon the wharf at this place, he fell dead. The will was soon thereafter discovered, and Mr. Joliffe of this city proceeded to North Carolina to secure the property for the woman and her children. His presence there caused much excitement. The heirs of Willis at once commenced proceedings to have the will set aside, and they were successful in the lower court. The case was carried to the Court of Appeals, and on the 21st of May that tribunal reversed the decision of the lower court, thus sustaining the will and securing the property to the legatees. The decree is signed by two of the Chancellors, one Chancellor (Wadsworth) dissenting.—The woman, we believe, is now residing at New Richmond, Ohio.—Cincinnati Gaz.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, is here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1853.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made ON TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of erysipelas and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application; I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flattered myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was so rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1860.

UNION DEMOCRAT.

The Manchester Union Democrat puts up the Douglas ticket, with many editorial reasons, or apologies, from which we make a few extracts.

Mr. Douglas was not our first choice. So far as personal considerations go, he was our last. Yet, we were prepared to waive all prejudice and repugnance, if it should be thought advisable to confer upon him the nomination. Nay, more—when the Convention met, and when it was seen with what unanimity and zeal he was likely to be supported by the North, we almost desired that the South would adopt him too, as the most hopeful means for the final extinguishment of Republicanism in the Northern States. There was no good political reason why it should not do so; nay, there was some reason why it should. Mr. Douglas had led the Democracy of the North to defeat, to vindicate a supposed interest of the South; and when circumstances seemed to indicate that he might lead us back again, it was but fair to let him try.

But there was a strong array of personal reasons against the nomination of Mr. Douglas—many of which had our entire sympathy. But the politicians were less magnanimous than we were willing to be—for they would not forgive. His hand had been against them all, and now he found theirs against him. We have no condemnation for them, except in their mode of vengeance—a mode which sacrifices friends and foes together. He tried to upset two Democratic administrations by throwing "the nigger" beneath their chariot wheels; and he now finds the same impediment in his own path, in the shape of the slave code. The Democrats of the North lifted him from that embarrassment, but at the cost of a disruptured Convention. Here is where our Southern friends displayed bad judgment, as well as bad temper.

The North will not abandon the doctrine of popular sovereignty as expounded for the last ten years; and the mistake of the South consisted in forcing an identity between a man of whom we were not tenacious, and a principle we cannot yield.

[Yet the Douglas Baltimore Convention did yield it, immediately after nominating him, showing that they were tenacious of a man, and that they either knew nothing or cared nothing about the principle. And now the Belfast (Me.) Journal puts up the names of Douglas and Johnson, "because the Douglas men abandoned their Squatter Sovereignty dogma by the last resolution adopted."]

The Union Democrat continues:—

In this feeling, the adjourned convention met at Baltimore. Northern Democrats went there as the partizans of a man, as well as disciples of a faith. * * * It looks as though there was a foregone purpose to nominate Mr. Douglas or nobody; and we fear that the complaints of unfairness in the organization of the convention are not altogether baseless—and that the secession at Baltimore has justification or apology which was lacking at Charleston. * * * We have had occasion to condemn the course of Mr. Douglas very often during the last and present administrations; and, upon a review of the matters in issue, we feel as little inclined as ever to utter one word of retraction or apology. "Let the dead past bury its dead." We shall work for him as well as though we loved him more. * * * We anticipate no change of programme which can affect the duties of the Democracy of this state; yet, Douglas and Breckinridge are friends; their adherents are, to a great extent, friendly, and we pray they may remain so, and that the overwhelming Democratic sentiment of the country may be so combined and directed, that this foolish feud among the politicians may not prove disastrous to the party and the Republic.

☞ It appears by the papers, that the Mrs. Walton, in New York, whose son shot her husband, has had three husbands besides, one or two of whom are now in the land of the living; that she has three sons, and an illegitimate daughter of five years, that she has been accustomed to pass as the daughter of her sister. She also had many particular friends, and among them was the late defaulting Postmaster Fowler, who was a frequent visitor at her house. She and her Jefferd sons beyond doubt planned and executed his murder. He had anticipated it, and even made his will in preparation. He was afraid to meet his wife or her sons, and never went out in the evening alone. Mr. Walton was a little over 40 years old, and his wife, who is reported to be a woman of good education and much personal beauty, is about the same age.

☞ Hail fell in Hancock, thick and fast, very coarse and mostly ragged fragments of ice, on Saturday, the 23d. Six hundred panes of glass were broken in the village alone, and as many as twelve or fifteen hundred in town. Much of the corn with other tender crops in the Northeast part of the town, have been very much injured. Winter rye in several cases has been so much cut up that farmers are mowing it for fodder. The track of the hail was some three miles in width, extending from the village in Hancock, into Bennington. So says a correspondent of the Peterboro' Transcript.

ART UNION.—The engraving of the Cosmopolitan Art Association, for the seventh year, is to be "Falstaff Mustering His Recruits," and will be ready for delivery September 1st.

☞ The New York papers say that Mayor Wood, in his late interview with the President, offered to run a Breckinridge ticket in the city, provided the President would give him the New York Post Office and one-third of the Custom House patronage. Mr. Buchanan declined. Hence the disinterested Mayor hurried home, and came out for Douglas.

The New York Herald says that it believes that a combination is to be formed upon this basis between Mayor Wood and Richmond, Cagger & Co., the Albany Regency, who have been sowing corruption and division in the party throughout the State for the last fourteen years. The Regency having succeeded in cheating Dickinson, humbugging Seymour, and betraying Wise, are now ready to promise their support to Mayor Wood for Governor at the fall election. This new combination, then, will have to solve the very important question as to which can cheat the other best. But the Regency will find its match in the Metropolitan Mayor.

Thus it appears that out of these extraordinary movements we have already two candidates for Governor—Gregley on the side of the unshackled Republicans, and Wood on the side of the harmonious Democracy.

CONNECTICUT.—The Hartford Times, one of the ablest Democratic papers in New England, has a strong article in which it throws upon the Douglas men the responsibility of creating a breach in the party; says Douglas cannot carry three States unless proper arrangements for a united vote are made. It hopes that some friendly understanding may be arrived at, but confesses that the prospect is discouraging.

☞ Last Saturday evening, says the Bath Times, as Capt. Thomas was coming through Fiddler's Reach with a sail boat, having several children in the boat with him, a sturgeon of monstrous size leaped from the water into the boat, and, as may well be supposed, created quite a panic among the litte folks. No damage was done except to the unwelcome passenger, which was allowed to occupy his new quarters until he became a dry fish.

☞ The Washington Constitution describes the Douglas party as a "miserable faction who, from motives of sordid self-interest and personal ambition, have labored to disrupt the Democratic party and surrender the government into the fatal grasp of the Black Republicans." The same paper predicts that in a few weeks Douglas will be nearly abandoned.

☞ Forney's Press bitterly denounces union with the disunionists, and calls upon the Union supporters of Douglas and of Bell and Lincoln to keep the election out of Congress, which would result in the choice of Lane.

☞ It is said that only two influetial papers at the South have yet come out for Mr. Douglas—the Mobile Register and the St. Louis Republican. There is talk of others coming over, but they move slow.

☞ The Richmond Whig earnestly enjoins the Bell and Everett men of the South to make no alliance with either Democratic faction.

☞ The Charleston Courier terms the body that nominated Douglas the "squatter, dregs and residuary convention."

☞ The Washington Constitution is to be reorganized for the Breckinridge interest, while the States is to be wholly purchased by Douglas men.

SYRACUSE, July 3.—The National Democratic (Hard) State Committee met here to-day, and adopted resolutions calling for a State Committee to nominate a Breckinridge electoral ticket.

WASHINGTON, July 3.— The Jackson Democratic Association, of twenty years standing, has been disruptured by a disagreement on the Presidential question.

The democrats of Pennsylvania have indignantly spurned the propositions to compromise the electoral ticket with the Breckinridgers.—Bath Times.

NEWS FROM EUROPE, via Liverpool, 23d June.

No new movement in Sicily. Neapolitans were fortifying Messina, and had concentrated 8000 troops there.

The evacuation of Palermo is completed. Garibaldi was forming twenty regiments for operations on the main land.

All of the communes in Sicily had presented addresses requesting annexation to Piedmont.

The American vessel seized by the Neapolitans was the Charles and Jane, of Baltimore, Capt. Quain. The American Minister at Naples had demanded passports for his son and two other persons, with permission to visit the vessel at Gaeta.

The Prince of Wales emarks for Canada July 11.

PARIS, June 23.—The Patrie says Garibaldi held a council of war on the 21st, when it was decided that the insurrectionary army, should march on Messina. The march would probably commence on 28th.

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 4.—Senator Green spoke at the Breckinridge ratification meeting last night. The friends of Breckinridge have nominated Hancock Johnston for Governor, and Munroe Parsons for Lt. Governor, in consequence of the Douglas proclivities of the present Democratic nominations.

CONCORD, July 4.—The New Hampshire Legislature adjourned sine die this forenoon. The Democrats in the Senate voted for the National resolutions offered by the Republicans.

THE TURF.—Philadelphia, July 5.—The trot between Flora Temple and Patchen, was won by the former. Time:—2:22 1-2; 2:21 3-4; 2:27 1-2.

THE FOURTH

IN PORTSMOUTH passed very quietly—some say, rather sleepily. Young America touched off perhaps about the usual number of crackers, squibs, pistols, cannons, &c.;—the bells were rung and salutes fired; and there was the traditional bon-fire on the Parade "the night before"—but it did not stream so high as on some occasions, (probably partly on account of the showers, and partly because of the large special police force,) nor were the outrages on private property so numerous or extensive as last year—indeed we hear of few or none of serious account.

Hundreds of our citizens went out to Diman's—in the cars or by private carriages; many others went sailing, walking or riding, in all directions—and very generally the occasion was observed as a rational holiday. Though some made fools of themselves by liquor, as usual, there was much less drunkenness and rowdyism than is common on such occasions here. The schooner Lizzie Stewart took a pleasant party to the Shoals; but the Fanny Boardman, which was to leave an hour later, it was decided not to start, on account of the state of the tide and wind.

AT STRATHAM, was the Celebration for this region; and right pleasantly did it pass off. The beautiful grounds of Diman's Highland Cottage were early thronged with visitors from all surrounding towns; and after enjoying strawberries and cream indoors, and the tastefully arranged and ornamented grounds, without, until 2 o'clock,—the crowd was led by Marshal J. W. Odlin to the delightful oak grove on Stratham Hill, where the exercises were gone through with according to programme. After the long procession had climbed the weary hill, and the people had seated themselves on the fresh green grass beneath the waving trees, in view of the most delightful scenery,—the North Berwick Band opened with a voluntary of stirring martial airs. Rev. A. J. Patterson offered prayer. The Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. Robert T. Lincoln of Illinois, son of the Republican nominee for President, and a pupil at Phillips Exeter Academy. He was introduced by Dr. Frank Fuller, President of the day,—after a neat off-hand speech, in which he endorsed young Lincoln as a "worthy son of a noble sire." After "Hail Columbia" by the Band, the following Ode, written for this occasion by Albert Laighton, was sung (to the tune of Bruce's Address) by a select choir under direction of Messrs. John Christie of Portsmouth and Wm. F. Lawrence of Epping.

Sons, who boast a patriot sire,
Strike the chords of Freedom's lyre;
Wake its echoing music higher
Till the woodland rings!
Here beneath the glorious skies
Let your glad hosannas rise,
While each swelling heart replies
And its tribute brings.

Hill and valley, lake and sea,
Bird and flower and waving tree,
Sing the song of Liberty
On this festal day.
Brothers! from yon granite peaks,
Where her nest the eagle seeks,
Hear ye not the Voice that speaks,
"Own no tyrants' sway!"

If we bow when despots nod,
If we help to lift the rod
O'er a single child of God,
Then we still are slaves!
But the deeds for Truth we do,
Throb and thrill the world's heart through,
Freedom's heroes tried and true,
Bless us in their graves.

The President then introduced the orator of the day, Amos S. Alexander, Esq., of Portsmouth; who very agreeably entertained the crowd for a while, with patriotic and national sentiments—earnestly defending the love and need of the Union, along with the regard and necessity of liberty.—He stated at the commencement that the only mistakes the bountiful purveyor for the day (Mr. Diman) had made, were in the selection of orator, and in locating the speakers so that the audience must stand down hill instead of sitting above—and for these reasons he should be briefer than he might otherwise have been.

The choir sang, to the tune of Bethlehem, the following Ode, written for the occasion by Dr. Frank Fuller:

When from formless void and darkness,
At the word of His command,
Shadows fled before the sunlight,
And uprose the solid land—
Lo! the chorus of the heavens,
And the voice of teeming earth,
Joined the song of glad thanksgiving,
Sang the wonders of their birth.

When a world in darkness shrouded,
Hailed at last the promised light,
And the Lowly One—the Saviour,
Stood revealed to mortal sight—
Lo! the shining hosts of heaven
Touched their tuneful harps again,
Sang "To us a child is given!
Peace on earth, good will to men!"

Sing we too our wondrous story—
Tale of Freedom—theme divine;
Song of those whose deeds of glory
Through the waiting nations shine!
Raise with one accord our voices!
Speak their deathless names with pride
In whose fame a land rejoices,
Who for us as martyrs died!

After more music by the Band, Benediction by the Chaplain, and the singing of Old Hundred by all the people—the crowd dispersed—to ramble among the beautiful natural attractions of the Hill and vicinity, till evening. The cottage and grounds were filled with visitors all day.

The weather was admirable for this "true-ly rural" celebration, which was, from first to last one of the most agreeable occasions we ever participated in. The only drawback was the contemptible conduct of a few miserable half-drunken young sots, who, while being beyond farther disgrace to themselves, are a reproach to Portsmouth that they hail from here—and who had drank just enough bad liquor to completely fuddle what little brains they have, and make their native arrant cowardice resolve into pot-valiant rowdyism. The police of the day, instead of arguing with and coaxing such beasts so long, should at once have bound them hand and foot, and pitched them into some barn or pig-sty, out of the way of disgusting decent people.

HURDLE RACE AT CHELSEA.—A mile hurdle race, at the Franklin Course, Tuesday, June 19th, excited great interest and resulted most successfully. This is the first race of the kind in Massachusetts. The last hurdle race in the United States took place more than twenty years ago, when Mr. Downing, proprietor of the Hoboken race course, rode one of the horses and was killed. On this occasion no serious accident took place, and the race was extremely satisfactory to the large number of spectators present. The contending horses were the bay gelding Pascal, and bay mare Heatherbloom. Both jockeys wore the customary buff breeches and white topped boots. The rider of Pascal wore a shirt with blue stripes and a black cap. Heatherbloom's rider was adorned with a green cap and purple shirt. Ten hurdles, three feet six inches high, were placed across the track. Seven of these were within the half mile pole, leaving the run clear around the lower turn. Once the mare failed to clear the hurdle and tumbled, throwing her rider, but no damage was done. Pascal was declared winner of the race. Time, 2:21—2:19—2:22 1-2.

For the Chronicle.

TEMPERANCE LECTURERS AND LIQUOR HOUSES.—A temperance agent, on arriving at a country town where he was to lecture, inquired for the minister with whom he had corresponded, but he lived two miles away, so he went to the tavern. By the next day it was noised abroad that he put up at a rum tavern, and in agony some asked why he did so? Well, we reply that two years ago an effort was made to have the liquor traffic in that house broken up by enforcing the law, but the sympathies of several in the village were with the rum-seller, and but little was accomplished.—And since, the seller has felt emboldened by the encouragement he then received from professedly respectable citizens around him, and other influences; and he is carrying on his destructive work so that many in the village are ashamed of his conduct, and alarmed at the results. Let others beware in season, and not countenance liquor-dealing.

We would advise, however, that temperance agents and other good temperance men make due inquiries, and if possible avoid putting up at public houses where liquors are dealt out, especially if they are so low and vile in character as some few found in country places. A CITIZEN.

A SUSPECTED SLAVER.—New York, July 3.—The bark Kate was seized to-day by the cutter Harriet Lane on suspicion of being a slaver. She cleared for Cape Palmos, Africa. The tug-boat Magnolia, which was making for the Kate with a suspicious number of men on board, was also seized and detained, and the men held for examination.

FIGHT AMONG N. Y. FIREMEN.—New York, July 3.—A fight of some twenty minutes in duration took place in Broad street, this afternoon, between Engine Companies 18 and 21. The stones flew quite thickly for a time, and the conflict was only stopped by a large force of policemen.—Several were injured, but none seriously.

The same Companies had another fight in Chatham street at a latter hour, in which pistols were used, and it is reported that quite a number were shot.

POISONED WITH INK.—New York, July 3.—Four children on Twenty-eighth street were poisoned yestesday with blue ink, a small quantity of which they found while playing in a yard, They mixed it in water and drank it. Two, named Ami S. Wright and Eugenia F. Cise, are dead. The others will recover.

CONCORD, N. H., July 4.—Samuel Butterfield, Esq., an old and esteemed citizen, and father of the editor of the Patriot, died this afternoon, after a lingering illness.—He was President of the Capitol Bank, and filled many offices of public trust.

SLAVES LANDED IN CUBA.—Advices from Guantanamo, Cuba, say that ten or twelve American vessels have landed 5000 Africans within six months. One was an American steamer.

☞ One of the Great Eastern's crew, getting drunk, attempted to escape by the wheel, fell upon its iron braces, and was so seriously injured that he died.

QUESTION.—What is the difference between the Union and Republican candidates for President? Why, one is a Bell man, and the other is Abe L., man.

☞ The old wooden house, formerly used as the Hospital at Fort McClary, in Kittery, was burnt to the ground on the night of the 4th of July, or rather the morning of the 5th. The fire was discovered by Mr. Pike, who keeps the fort, about 2 o'clock A. M., and it could not be saved. It was not worth twenty dollars, so that the United States are not great sufferers by the fire. It was a handy place to shelter a cow or a pig; so it is a loss to the fort-keeper.—The incendiary, whoever he was, must have been tipsy, to have fired such a building as that.

DIED, at North Wolf borough, 23d June, Rev. Stephen Merrill, pastor of the Congregational church in that place. He was a graduate of Bangor Theological Seminary, and was ordained at Kittery Point, June 26, 1821. In 1831, he removed to Biddeford, Me.,—and afterwards fulfilled various missions, with fidelity and zeal. He was an earnest friend and advocate of temperance, education and good government. His age was about 70.

☞ George Henry Wadleigh, about 12 years of age, son of J. B. Wadleigh, of Stratham, had his thumb blown off his left hand last Friday by a pistol. He was in the act of cocking the weapon, with his thumb over the muzzle, and the hammer slipping from his finger, the pistol was discharged.

The State of New Hampshire sends annually into Massachusetts about $800,000 worth of milk. The heavy dealers in the lacteal fluid in the Granite State have petitioned the Legislature to make wine measure the standard, the same as it is in Massachusetts. It is now sold in New Hampshire by beer measure chiefly, which contains 20 per cent more than wine measure.

☞ Perley writes from Washington July 1:—

Mr. Marston, Doorkeeper of the House, is thought to be out of danger. His wife is now with him, and Hon. Mr. Tappan has watched over him with brotherly care, to the neglect of professional duties at home.

PLEASURE SEEKERS COMING.

The hotels and promenades give evidence of the return of pleasure seekers from the South, to enjoy their summer holiday. Free from the care of business, these ladies and gentlemen come, but drain the cup of enjoyment during the seven summer months, to return in the autumn with renewed health, and in bounding spirits. Who will say then, that money is not a blessing? The poor man must labor, week in and week out, or starve. His health may give way; still, he must work. Now if he would economize a little, and enclose his savings, say $2.50, $5.00 or $10.00, to Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, or St. Louis, Missouri, for a chance in one of their legalized lotteries, he might draw enough to make him comfortable for life, or at least enough to start a profitable business, or buy a farm.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1858

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at the juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I improve that the cure was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE LAMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. epnot 6wdaw

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Swett's Panacea they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1856.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the ease and freedom of its walks—freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a uniform saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the System, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a one of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is compounded in accordance PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in clearing the system from disease, extracted and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for the last year, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a household, to be sure and have a Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES."

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action; and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine.—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we witness an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of unqualified commendation of its glorious and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of the blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection that ever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. No. 5, SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Sick Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance.

Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint Bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given to children. It acts as a charm and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING; DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WINDS, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being the only preparation that it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and desire to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

MATHES & VARRELL

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land, from very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no other remedy. Nervous affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be unerring and salutary. Besides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

Its is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the hectic pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly adapted to them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported of, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

A MINISTER NOT FOR TEMPERANCE.—Mr. N. wished to lecture in a town some miles away, where he had no acquaintance, and he wrote a notice of the time, and directed it to Rev. F. N., or to Rev. R. O.—Rev. Mr. N. was at the office when it came, and so it was put into his hands. Well that it so happened, for the other one, who professed to be a minister, never took the temperance pledge, nor was he ever known to attend a temperance meeting but once, and that was out of town. He has been accused of cider-drinking, even to inebriation, and of using ardent spirits until very much intoxicated. Once he admitted that he had been intoxicated, and then excused the use of liquors, as he said he used them as a medicine.

Glad that there are but very few ministers among us who use liquors that intoxicate. Glad this one, as he does not fall in with the temperance reform, does not preach, as the good reason exists that he cannot find hearers; and finding so few to fellowship with him he left his denomination and does not belong to any. J. F.

THE IRISH BRIGADE.—The Boston Pilot, in an article favoring the Irish Brigade to fight for the Pope's temporal power, says:

Italy has been under many obligations to Ireland since the middle ages. And Italy is in need now. In ancient times she needed scholars and teachers, and Ireland sent them to her. In our days she wants warriors with stout hearts and determined wills, and the Irish youth run to her rescue.—Several hundred already stand by the Papal Labarum, ready to flesh their maiden swords, and plunge them to the hilt into the miscreant parricides who swell the ranks of Zambianchi and Garibaldi. Blood for blood, and heart for heart! In this Italian war no quarter can be given. The mad followers of the standard of the fiery dragon and of the polluted beast, spare none that will not blaspheme God and the name of His Christ. Let there be no quarter, then. Blood for blood! hearts for hearts!

☞ Miss Rachel J. Medkirk, a teacher in one of the Cincinnati public schools, on the 21st of May last, risked her life in behalf of her scholars, and was so badly injured that she is yet confined to her chamber. A few days since she was presented with a watch and chain valued at $175, and free passes over 28 railroads, with the expectation, we suppose, that one so heroic will risk her life as many times more as she has the privilege of riding.

A school committee in a town in Androscoggin County recently visited a school kept by a female teacher. Not making themselves known directly, nor their business, the mistress supposed they had entered the premises without authority, and ordered them to take their seats with the rest.

The Portland Advertiser says:—

We think we have seen members of the school committee in other places, who, if in their proper seats, would be at the scholar's instead of teacher's desk.

☞ The bodies of a woman, named Willis, and two children, were found mutilated, last Saturday, near Batavia, Iowa. The murders are supposed have been committed by a man named Kepheart, who was arrested, and confessed to having committed the murders at Eddyville and hauled the bodies thirty miles to the place where they were found.

The Journal of Commerce alleges a qualification in Mr. Breckinridge almost equal to Lincoln's rail-splitting endowment. His wife "is the daughter of a useful and honorable Presbyterian minister, Rev. Mr. Birch." We think if Mrs. Breckinridge's husband had been made more familiar in his boyhood with another birch family, he might be less disposed now to become a cats-paw for traitors.—Bath Times.

☞ A very interesting number of the North American Review, for July, 1860, is on our table from the editor. The Private Character of Jefferson, Margaret Fuller Ossoli, and Slavery in Rome, are papers which need only to be named in order to be read.

Tom during his last tour to Niagara in company with Jim, saw an Indian hewing a small piece of timber, with a view of making canes.

"Pray, sir," said Jim, "to what tribe to you belong?"

"The Chip-a-way tribe," replied the Indian, without looking up to his interrogator.

☞ The Springfield Republican says there is a large swarm of honey bees in one of the wooden pillars of the Pyncon street church, in that city, and their continual singing during the sermon is quite annoying.

The Michigan State Convention enthusiastically endorsed the nomination of Douglas and Johnson, kicked out a resolution endorsing the policy of the administration, and even refused, by a decided vote, to invite Gen. Cass, who was then in the city, to visit the Convention.—Bath Times.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe proved a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not small, in its behalf.
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillips, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1860.

A REVIEW, AND A RESOLVE.—The Manchester Union Democrat has an earnest editorial on "The Great Mistake of the South,"—by which it means the Slave Code test. We have room only for the close of the article:—

If this new theory of Congressional protection to slavery be sound, we would not stop to inquire whether it was likely to be popular, but would give it the best support we could. But we do not believe it to be sound, and we know it to be not merely unpopular but odious; and if the South insist upon the test, she will lose most of her Northern friends, and give the rest of us over to the tender mercies of Abolitionism.

Look at it: We have been struggling for ten years against the Abolition theory of Congressional prohibition, and in favor of popular sovereignty. Just as we are ready to triumph, shall we say it is not popular sovereignty that we mean, but, Congressional protection? If we thought it was right, we would say so, though not five thousand of the glorious thirty-three, should go with us—and we should scarcely expect the company of more. What then? The Democracy of the North is not only defeated, but annihilated—the offending abstraction is condemned as nothing was ever condemned before, and instead of protection for slavery anywhere, the South gets a vigorous aggression, prosecuted by the people and every department of the government, the Supreme Court not excepted.

The South has made a terrible mistake; and it can only be remedied by a hasty retreat to the doctrine of absolute non-intervention by Congress with slavery everywhere. That is where the Northern Democracy stand and will stand; and while the South is divided and enervated by an abstraction, we mean by a thorough union upon the sound basis of non-intervention, to reciprocate the favor of our united Southern friends in 1856, and save the country, in our own way, from the grasp of Black Republicanism.

☞ The New York World informs us that after the conclusion of the mass in the cathedral in that city, last Sunday, Archbishop Hughes ascended the pulpit and made a vigorous and stirring address, of twenty minutes, on the position and difficulties of the sovereign pontiff, and explained a plan he has adopted for conveying to the "holy father" a substantial expression of the sympathy of his diocese. He denounced with unmeasured severity the "transient emperors and contemptible kings"—meaning, of course, Louis Napoleon and Victor Emmanuel—who, though pretending to be Catholics, had co-operated in despoiling the Pope of a part of his "patrimony," which, said His Grace, had been snatched away by the "sacriligious hands of assassins and invaders." He announced that next Sunday he will preach a sermon which he has "no objection to see in print," in which he will explain at length, as far as is possible in a single discourse, his views on this whole Italian question, and refute the lying statements of "Protestant papers and infidel bureaus established for the purpose of misleading the Catholic world."

☞ The Friend's Society in New York are about to erect a costly meeting house in which to hold their meetings, and the sum of $100,000 has been raised for the purpose; fifty thousand of which was raised at the monthly meeting; $40,000 will be realized by the sale of the present property in Houston street, and $10,000 is to be given by the yearly meeting. A site has been purchased, consisting of eleven lots near Stuyvesant Square which cost $65,000.—The subscriptions were remarkably liberal. One Friend in the Leather trade gave $6000, another in the hardware trade $4000, and several gave sums varying from $1000 to $3000.

☞ Some time ago a few Irish newspapers discovered that General M'Mahon was or ought to have been an Irishman. The name certainly came from the county of Clare; but the General, in addition to the name, retained the modesty of the country, and confessed that he had no clear recollection of his descent from any of the later Milesian invaders. A sword, however, was prepared for him, and he graciously accepted it. A French pampleteer supposes that the General's claim to the throne of Ireland is quite as good as that of Mr. Smith O'Brien; and accordingly he has published a brochure suggesting that M'Mahon ought to be the King of Ireland. His arguments are not very cogent, but the intention is obvious—says the Boston Post.

WESLEYAN METHODISM.—The annual returns just prepared with reference to the position of the Wesleyan Methodist communion, exhibit a total of 277,580 members in the Society, being an increase of 15,468 in the year. There are also upwards of 26,000 members "on trial."

☞ It is said that a very gratifying change has taken place among the students at Bowdoin College within the past year, in relation to the subject of temperance. Many of them a year ago, were in the habit of drinking freely; now nearly all are pledged to total abstinence.

☞ In France, great preparations are made at Toulon for an experiment to be tried with the steel-plated frigate Gloire.—This vessel is to be impelled by all the power of steam to strike against a ship of the line and endeavor to cut her in two with her bronze prow. The steam engines of the Gloire are enveloped with mattresses to protect them from being too much shaken by the force of the shock. Every precaution against accidents has been adopted by skilful engineers. The experiment is to be tried against the ship of the line Montebello, which is now old. Should it succeed, several large steamships will be built on the plan of the Gloire.

☞ A new fire-escape recently exhibited in New York consists of two or three ladders joined together so as to reach the summits of the highest buildings; should the parties escaping be timorous or in a state of undress, a large canvass bag is provided, running the length of the ladder, into which children, women, and infirm people may ensconce themselves and slide safely down to terra firma. At the exhibition the firemen slid down over and over again in order to give the public confidence in the invention, which the New York papers say is highly calculated to save human life in moments of the most distressing danger.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says "the proposition for a common Democratic electoral ticket in Pennsylvania is positively repudiated by Mr. Douglas himself. There will be no coalition between the Douglas and Breckinridge men anywhere. Senator Fitzpatrick has come out for Breckinridge, and will speak in his support in Pennsylvania. The whole South, except Missouri, and perhaps Maryland, appears now to be uniting on Breckinridge. Louisiana was thought doubtful, but is now no longer so."

WHAT HORACE GREELEY SAYS.—The New York Tribune philosopher predicts that the Douglas ticket will beat the secession ticket in the popular vote of the slave States, and run it out of sight in the free States.—Bath Times.

Yes; but the Times does not give the remainder of the paragraph as it appeared in the Tribune; for while placing Douglas ahead of Breckinridge, Greeley adds the confident belief that both together cannot poll over fifty electoral votes.—Augusta Journal.

☞ Lady Franklin, for whom an interest has been awakened all over the world for her persevering efforts for her husband, Sir John, and his companions, will arrive in this country in a few days, the guest of Mr. Grinnell of New York. In the United States she would not be less welcome than the Prince of Wales, who will reach Canada about the same time.

☞ The Insurance Companies of Paris intend presenting a petition to the Emperor, praying that a law may be passed to prohibit the sale of matches made with white phosphorus. Official returns show that the annual average number of accidental fires in France was abous 230 up to 1830, before friction matches came into use. In 1844, the number had risen to four thousand fires.

☞ The Prince of Wales, attended by the Earl of St. Germans, the Lord Steward of the Queen's Household, and a large retinue, will leave on the 11th of July for Canada. The Prince goes out in the St. George, 120, screw steamship, Captain the Hon. Francis Egerton.

☞ The Nord says the Queen of England and Prince Albert will visit Belgium about the middle of August, on their way to Berlin, to attend the baptism of the royal child, to whom Princess Frederick William, the Queen's daughter, is about to give birth.

☞ Only fifteen hundred persons visited the Great Eastern on Tuesday, the first day of her exhibition. The price of admission is so high that there will be no rush, and the managers will not reap the harvest of dollars they anticipated.

☞ Barnum has written a letter advising the agents of the Great Eastern to come down in their prices to 25 cents and run excursion trains. He thinks they could secure four millions of visitors. "To a dead curiosity," says the great showman, "there is no resurrection."

☞ A Texas paper says of Gen. Sam Houston that he looks in feeble health, and the wreck of what he was but a few years ago in vigor and strength. He now goes upon a crutch, because of lameness in one of his ankles, the effect of a wound received at San Jacinto.

☞ Among those who have engaged rooms at Newport are Stephen A. Douglas, Gen. Jo. Lane and Col. Orr of South Carolina.

The two "J. B.'s"—John Brown and James Buchanan—the former dead and the other dying; the former executed for a raid upon an individual State, the latter convicted of a raid upon the people of the entire Union.—Bath Times.

☞ Joseph Hefnorth died in Norfolk, Va., recently, and his physician ascribed his disease to the habit of wearing tight boots.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune says Lola Montez lies at the point of death.

GUNPOWDER JOY.—In speaking of the death of one man and the dismal mutilation of another, by bad gunnery in the Douglas salute at Manchester, the Union Democrat says:

We wish the wit of man could devise some safer and more becoming mode of political jubilation than the burning of gunpowder. If there are no more Presidential nominations to be ratified, it seems that our people should agree, by common consent, to stop this costly, gross and dangerous entertainment.

We wrote against the foolish practice more than thirty years ago; but of late years have supposed that about so many people were determined to blow themselves out of the world on each fourth of July, each election, and each nomination! We don't mention it with the idea that anybody will take heed; but surely some writer ought to step forward and say one word in favor of suicide by a salute.

☞ The Centennial Birthday of Deacon John Phillips of Sturbridge was commemorated on Friday week, in the Baptist Church, where addresses were delivered.—At the opening, deacon P., in response to the universal wish, amidst deep silence, made a few remarks. They were spoken in a strong manly voice, and heard by every listener. "Here I stand," said he, "a monument of the mercy of God; Let us pray."

That prayer voiced the happy experience of a hundred years, spent as "in the great Taskmaster's eye," and could have come only from the depths of a profoundly religious soul. It was the service of the day. It blessed and hallowed the occasion. Four generations of the family were there.

☞ One day's later news from England, viz., to June 27, comes by the Fulton.

Two hundred pounds of Australian gold arrived at London on Monday.

Garibaldi's Council of War unanimously decided that the insurrectionary army should march on Messina on the 28th. The National Guard are to occupy different positions in Palermo.

The organization of the troop of marines is progressing.

The Emperor Napoleon will not recognize the annexation of Sicily, Tuscany and Romagna to Piedmont.

The governments of Russia and Spain will withdraw their legations from Turin, if the expeditions from Sardinia against Sicily continue.

The King of Naples is said to have given his assent to the Constitution proposed by his Council, and will form an alliance with Piedmont on certain conditions.

Prince Jerome Bonaparte is dead.

The Emperor Napoleon will visit Savoy in July.

Since the Emperor's return from Baden, the troops which were concentrated on the eastern frontier of France have been withdrawn.

The new French loan will be twenty or thirty millions sterling.

The steamer Malabon, having on board Lord Elgin and Baron Gros, had been wrecked in the harbor of Galle. No lives lost. The bullion in the ship was lost, and the ambassadors lost their credentials and papers, and would be delayed at Galle until the 6th of June.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Douglas ratification meeting on Tuesday night was a failure.

There is nothing in the correspondence between our government and the Spanish government to support the assertion that increased hostility exists.

It appears that Mr. Churchill has declined the mission to Guatemala, and the mission is still vacant.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The cannon used for firing the salute at the departure of the Seventh Regiment to-day burst, seriously and probably fatally wounding Frederick Gilbert, inspector at the water works; John Donnelly, feeder upon the press at the Tribune office, and John Welsh, a boatman.

Corporation counsel Bronson gives an opinion that a part of the unsafe building law is unconstitutional, as it authorizes the destruction of private property without just compensation to the owners.

CHICAGO, July 5.—A tremendous rain and thunder storm occurred at Peoria on Sunday night. Much damage was done on the Bureau Valley Railroad. Seven bridges were washed away between Peoria and Washington, on the Logansport and Peoria road. The loss to ferries in the vicinity will amount to $50,000.

COLUMBUS, O., July 5.—The Ohio Democratic State Convention was organized yesterday.

Resolutions endorsing Douglas and Johnson were passed, whereupon fifty Breckinridge and Lane men withdrew from the Convention, met at the Neil House, and appointed a State Central Committee and a Committee to prepare an address to the Ohio Democracy. They also issued a call for a State Convention in August to nominate State officers and an electoral ticket.

PORTLAND, July 5.—The Republican mass meeting yesterday at Farmington was addressed by Hon. Israel Washburne, Jr., James G. Blaine, C. J. Milman and John J. Perry. It was an enthusiastic meeting, and it is reported that 3000 people were present.

☞ The Houlton Times speaks of an affray between Mr. Freeman Pike and Mr. John Dillon, in relation to the school in the district of which Dillon is agent, resulting in a fight, in which Pike had one side of his nose entirely torn off.

The three candidates for Governor of Arkansas are Thomas Hubbard, Richard H. Johnson, and Henry M. Rector—"Tom, Dick and Harry."

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, July 5.—The Committee on Streets, &c., to whom was referred the petition of D. H. Treadwell, respecting water standing in front of his store on Market St.—also the subject of placing posts on the line of the sidewalk on Bridge St. from Hanover St. to Concord depot, reported that further action is inexpedient.

The petition of John J. Pickering to have Peverly-Hill Road bridge and culvert widened and repaired, was referred to Committee on Roads, &c.

MORTALITY OF PORTSMOUTH. — The number of deaths in this city for the month of June, as shown by Mr. Bell's record, was twenty, as follows:—

Males, five—aged 2 months, 7 years, 61, 68, 90.

Females, fifteen—aged 5 mos., 10 mos., 4 years, 4 years, 4 years 6 mos., 7 years, 10, 10 years 4 mos., 21 years, 22, 27, 28, 37, 68, 71.

Messrs. Editors:—I believe there is a city ordinance prohibiting cows from going at large without a keeper within the compact part of the city, in any street or public place; and the ordinance makes it the duty of the City Marshal to carry into effect and enforce the provisions of the same.

I learn that the City Marshal, though poorly paid (by the city,) still persists in holding office until the act recently passed by the Legislature shall go into effect, when doubtless he will have leave to withdraw.—But as he still remains sworn to do his duty, and desirous, as officers usually are, of fees, he should notice that quite a number of cows, some of which come in from the outskirts of the city, are daily to be seen about Auburn, Middle and Austin streets, to the great annoyance of owners of trees, shrubbery and front gardens at the West End.—If owners of cows persist in pasturing their cattle in the streets in this manner, they must not be surprised if they find that some self-appointed police officer should have complaint made against them before the Police Court—a proceeding that would be more expensive to these owners of prowling cows than the cost of pasturing them in an honest way would amount to.

Several energetic women have declared war upon the cows that are at all times to be found on side-walks and crossings, and owners may take a hint in time to save the expense of going before those protectors of women's rights, the able judges of the Police Court, who, in this particular will doubtless keep a "single" eye upon the public good. BETTY BROOMSTICK.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION. — Agreeable as was the Celebration at Diman's, on the Fourth, it was lamentable to see what a fuss many made in getting up Stratham Hill. The sick, the lame and the lazy could hardly be expected to climb its sides easily; but young men and women ought to be able to mount a few hundred feet of ascent without being leg-weary or blown—and the view from the hill is worth five miles of such easy climbing.

A couple of young men from this city, a few years ago, riding by there, one bantered the other for a race up Stratham Hill—the latter stating he could do it in ten minutes, while the challenger said he could in five. The proposer of the race mounted from the wall to the highest point, in just one minute—his companion in two minutes.

ORDINATION.—Mr. Edward C. Miles was ordained as pastor of the Congregational church in Stratham, Thursday, 28th ult. Sermon by Rev. John L. Taylor of the Seminary church, Andover, Mass.; Ordaining Prayer by Rev. W. Fifield, of South New Market; Charge to the pastor by Rev. Geo. Moore, of the Old South church, Andover; Right Hand of Fellowship by Rev. E. Robie, of Greenland; Address to the People by Rev. O. T. Lamphear, of Exeter.

DOUGLAS BANKRUPT.—A writer in the Detroit Advertiser asserts with great confidence that Senator Douglas is hopelessly bankrupt, and that his notes are under protest in Wall street to the amount of $100,000. A few years since, he was justly regarded as a man of large fortune; but his ambition to be President caused him to enter the contest purse in hand, which had the effect to draw around him a band of cormorants, and harpies, who of course took more pleasure in putting his money in their pockets than in the advancement of his cause. In the great contest in Illinois he was compelled to compete single handed with the immense corruption fund of the Administration, and it was asserted at the time that that single campaign cost him over $100,000.

GARIBALDI ON POPERY. — Garibaldi lately, in a reply to the students of the University of Pavia, thus spoke of the cause of his country's ruin:—"In the midst of Italy, at its very heart, there is a cancer called Popery—an imposture called Popery. Yes, young men, we still have a formidable enemy, the more formidable because it exists among the ignorant classes, where it rules by falsehood! because it is sacrilegiously covered with the cloak of Religion. Its smile is the smile of Satan. This enemy, young men, is the priest!—the priest, with few exceptions."

☞ A fire at Hannibal, Mo., Wednesday, destroyed property valued at $50,000.

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

AMENDMENT OF THE CITY CHARTER.

We have not yet seen the law which was passed at the close of the session amending our City Charter, but understand it provides, that any ordinance which has passed both boards, if not returned by the Mayor within fifteen days, becomes a law, the same as though it had received his signature.

It also provides that the Mayor and Aldermen shall have power to appoint a Superintendent of the City Farm, Chief Engineer and Assistant Engineers in the same manner in which they are now empowered to appoint other City officers.

It also provides that if the Mayor and Aldermen shall not appoint the officers of the City or any of them in the manner provided in the fifth section of "an act to amend an act to establish the City of Portsmouth," approved June 27, 1857, within thirty days after the first Tuesday of January of any year, the City Council in convention shall on the next Thursday evening, or as soon thereafter as may be, proceed to elect such officer or officers; and in such election the person having the largest number of votes shall be elected.

If the Mayor and Aldermen shall fail to appoint any of the said officers for the present year, for the space of thirty days after the passage of this act, then the City Council in convention shall proceed to elect said officers in the manner above provided.

While this law does not abridge the veto power of the Mayor in the first board, it transfers the adjudication of difficulties to the other board, and in such a way as to insure an election.

In addition to the above, we have noticed the disposition of several other subjects, in which our readers are interested.

The act to prohibit the use of seines in the smelt fishery in Great Bay from Dec. 1 to April 1, was amended in the Senate by striking out Dec. 1 and inserting Dec. 25th.

The act to enable counties to fund their floating debts, became a law.

The bill giving to material men, mechanics and laborers, a lien upon the buildings into which their property had entered, at first met opposition in the House. After debate, it passed by a very decisive majority. But it met with much opposition in the Senate. After a hearing before the Committee on the Judiciary in the Senate, it was understood a majority were in favor of the bill—but it was finally defeated in that body.

The proposition to employ prisoners in the county jails in some useful branch of industry, was rejected by the Com. on the Judiciary in the House.

The session has been a very busy one: one committee having had more than 160 subjects referred to it, all of which were acted upon and disposed of.

All accounts agree that our distinguished townsman makes one of the most acceptable Governors the State has had for years.

WORTHY OF SPECIAL MENTION.—Geo. M. Browne, Esq., President of the Eastern Railroad, reports that for the year ending May 31st, that corporation transported one million three hundred thousand passengers over its road, without injury to any one.

Eastern Railroad Notice.

ON TUESDAY, July 10, a SPECIAL TRAIN will leave Portsmouth for Hampton, at 9 o'clock, A. M. to convey the Stockholders of Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire, to the Annual Meeting that is to be held at Hampton on the 10th inst.

Stockholders must show their Certificates before entering the cars, as paying passengers will not be taken in this train. J. PRESCOTT, Sup't.

Boston, July 3, 1860.

To the Stockholders of the Eastern Railroad in N.H.

At the last annual meeting of this corporation, it appeared by the report of a committee appointed the preceding year, that, when the road was leased in 1840 to the Eastern Railroad, in Massachusetts, the latter corporation became tenants of the New-Hampshire Road for ninety-nine years, as rent, our proportion of the net earnings of the whole road from Portsmouth to Boston, annually; and this without any regard to the dividends which should be made by the Eastern Railroad (in Mass.) From 1854 to the present time nothing has been paid to the Eastern Railroad in N. H. and consequently you have been deprived of dividends from that date to the present time. But the whole road has, during that time, as appears by the reports of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad, earnings sufficient to have paid you at least five per cent. annually upon your stock; and that money, being at least thirty per cent. of your whole stock, is now due to you from the Eastern Railroad in Mass.

The facts disclosed in that report have never been successfully denied or avoided. But the Eastern Railroad in N. H. is and has been controlled by Directors whose interest in the Eastern Railroad in Mass. is so much stronger than its interest in your corporation, that no effectual steps have been taken by them to collect the rent and pay the dividends which belong to you.

An attempt was made at the last annual meeting to place upon the Board of Directors, some men, whose interest would not prevent them from asserting your rights; but by management which we cannot admit to be fair or legal the attempt was defeated, and Directors were chosen, who have comparatively little interest in your stock, and one of whom was also President of the Eastern Railroad (in Mass.) A suit was thereupon commenced in our Supreme Court by some of your stockholders to enforce their rights, but the Eastern Railroad raised objections to the jurisdiction of the Court, which have not yet been decided.

The next annual meeting occurs on Tuesday the 10th day of July instant, and it is desirable that an attempt be again made to elect such officers as will be disposed to insist upon your just and legal rights. The Directors have thought proper to call the meeting at Hampton, and at half-past nine o'clock in the morning. The time and place are both very inconvenient to the New-Hampshire stockholders, and we understand that there is no suitable room near the depot in which the meeting can be holden.

But it is hoped that these inconveniences will not prevent any stockholder from attending and voting according to his just and legal interest. If a full and fair meeting of the stockholders can be had we are convinced that such measures would be adopted as would at once secure your rights and put an end to litigation.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE CHURCH.—It is a remarkable fact that the very spirit to which christianity is most hostile, the passion for power, dominion, pomp and preeminence, struck its deepest roots in the church. The church became the very stronghold of the lusts and vices which christianity most abhors. Accordingly its history is one of the most melancholy records of past time. Channing.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS —of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction in any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in one, or at twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. We will mention briefly some of the

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the safest and surest remedy IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints: Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you have made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies in the Blood in different diseases. FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inclining CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD.", $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Headaches, Cold Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilirates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy; remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, or any DISORDER OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal.—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

VERMONT BUTTER.

MATHES & VARRELL

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of Vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innumerable are the maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOUS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if raised from protracted sickness in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguinal exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physicians has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operations of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over heating; and gently, regularly aperient, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has arrested the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known inhibitics.

The attention of females cannot be too confidentially invited to this remedy, and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the ague settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to ☞ The execution of Nathaniel Harten for the murder of Melissa Morris took place at Moundsville, Marshall Co., Va., Thursday week. The crowd was immense.—When the condemned man beheld the scaffold, the little blood in his face disappeared, his eyes seemed to sink suddenly deeper into his head, and he seemed almost instantly to lose one-third of his flesh. This lasted but a short time, and becoming seated upon the scaffold, he assumed the old dull, morose appearance which characterized him ever since his arrest. Rev. Mr. Richmond offered up a prayer in behalf of the condemned man, in which he intimated that Harten had experienced a change of heart, and hoped for Divine forgiveness. The rope was adjusted, the next moment Harten was swinging in the air, and soon was lifeless. Among the persons who pressed upon the line of soldiers surrounding the scaffold, before the drop fell, was the father of the murdered girl, Morris, who was very much intoxicated, and so clamorously eager for the awful scene that it was with difficulty he was restrained by his neighbors.

A CONVERT.—The Boston Pilot tells the following good story of a recent convert to the Roman church, at Columbus, Ohio.

Of the converts in St. Patrick's church, one was Oran Brownson, Esq., a brother of the distinguished Publicist. Mr. Brownson resides thirteen miles from Columbus. He was educated, when a child, in the doctrines of the Universalists. When grown up, he travelled awhile on the same road with the Methodists. Finding that was leading him in the wrong direction, he joined the Presbyterians; soon dissatisfied with the revolting theories of Calvin, he sought for truth among the Shakers. Disgusted with them he was immersed by the Mormons. When their peculiar views developed themselves as they are now seen, Mr. Brownson, as an honest man and sincere inquirer, sought and found the truth where Christ had placed it in the Catholic Church, and was received into the Redeemer's fold, eighteen months ago, by Rev. Edward Fitzgerald, Pastor of St. Patrick's. Like his illustrious brother he very naturally accounts for his frequent changes of religion, if changes they can be called, from the fact that he was necessarily dissatisfied until he found the truth.

☞ Mr. Seward has accepted the invitation of the Republicans of Michigan to pay them a visit, and has written the following letter:

AUBURN, June 28, 1860.

By-and-by, after some respite at home—from which I have been absent, except in a few stolen visits, eighteen months—I will meet you as you propose. But, in the meantime, do not let your committee wait for me. Let them proceed to organize and concentrate the energies of the Republican cause under the leadership of the worthy candidates approved by the Convention at Chicago, assured that I should feel it a calamity, and almost a reproach to myself throughout my remaining life, if any one of the band of loyal patriots with whom I have acted so long should fall back from his advanced position in the coming engagement, the first one, I am sure, of a long series of national triumphs of our righteous cause. Very faithfully yours,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

FAILURE OF THE CROPS IN NEW MEXICO.—A Sante Fe letter of June 18 says:

No rain has fallen in New Mexico this year, and the crops are almost entirely destroyed. There has never been such a scarcity of provisions and forage in that country as at present. Corn is selling at almost any price asked. Troops from Utah are expected about the last of July. Fears are entertained that when they arrive they arrive they will almost create a famine.

The Navajoe Indians are becoming insolent, and unless they are chastised by the troops, will soon make a foray upon the settlements.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. — We learn from the Cattaraugus Freeman that Chauncey Kilby, of Mansfield, was instantly killed by lightning, in the road, during the storm on Thursday evening week. A moment before he had made the remark, "I think the most of this storm has passed to the North of us," and at the same time looked up to the sky. The words had scarcely escaped his lips when the lightning struck, and he dropped to the earth a corpse. He was about thirty years of age, and leaves a wife and one child.

Fowler, the defaulting New York Postmaster is reported to be in Havana, at Pike's Peak, and half a dozen other places, where he has been seen and recognized by persons who are sure that they know him. More likely he has never left New York, where he is as sure as a thief in a mill, and will remain so for all harm that will come to him from the Government.—Tobias Watkins, thirty years ago, was so unlucky as to take one or two thousand dollars only of public money, and was sent to jail therefor, but whoever heard of Swartwout, Price, or any other magnificent defaulter for hundreds of thousands being meddled with?—Dover Enquirer.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered the dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a proud sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much: and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. HILLBERG,
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MONDAY, JULY 9, 1860.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Some days ago there was a rumor that Pres. Buchanan had appointed Hon. Caleb Cushing as Judge of the Supreme Court.—On this report, the Bath Times said:

Caleb Cushing went to Charleston, and there, as president of the Convention, acted more like Beelzebub than even his most familiar acquaintances had thought possible; and what was the wand with which he was touched? Almost every one thought he was bedeviled. * * * Death had created a vacancy on the Supreme Bench, and we find him elevated to a seat which was once thought to require incorruption in its incumbents as a reward for his treachery.

It is to be hoped that death has no more work to perform with the members of the Supreme Court prior to the 4th of March next; otherwise we may have that august tribunal converted into a mere political cabal, ready to become the tool of faction, the engine of oppression, and the instrument of despotism.

Uncle Toby remarked, as he read these paragraphs, that some people think the Court is already in that condition; Mr. Hale said in the Senate, "the Court is filled up with politicians, not lawyers;" and the Douglas convention has just promised to take the dicta of these judges as their platform—in other words, to pass a slave code through Congress, if the Supreme Court shall decide existing laws to be deficient.

THE COOLIE TRADE.—An Havana letter in the New York Journal of Commerce says:

We are planning to get license from the Crown to introduce laborers from the East, which are much needed by our agricultural interest.

What an insatiate maw slavery possesses! Cargoes of Africans are landed in Cuba almost every week—yet the supply of laborers is not equal to the demand. The unhappy wretches are worked to death so fast that the slave-catchers cannot supply their places. What a commentary on the "barbarism of slavery." The same letter says:

The story circulated in relation to the mutiny of coolies on board the American ship Messenger, proves to have been an entire fabrication. There were no lives lost in quelling a slight disturbance, instead of the one hudered reported.

☞ The Pope has got as many Irishmen as he wants. The fact is officially notified in Dr. Cullen's organ:

Such a number of Irish emigrants have already reached Italy, that no more should think of proceeding there at present.

There is reason to believe that the Irish levies are rather troublesome. The Roman correspondent of the Morning Post speaks of the "discontented spirit already" displayed by them; and even the correspondent of the Dublin News alludes to "some irregularities which have occurred."

THE WASHINGTONIAN HOME, established in Boston., Mass., for the cure of drunkenness, in the first year of its operation, just closed, had 250 inmates, of whom 147 were married and 103 single persons; 121 were natives of Massachusetts, and the remainder from other States and foreign countries. During the year there were 44 cases of delirium tremens, and two deaths. The statistics show how the vice and evil of intemperance has reached every class, trade and profesion. Among the inmates were two clergymen, four lawyers, twenty-four merchants, and four physicians.

WHY HE WAS KILLED.—Mr. Walton, of New York, who was killed by the fast sons of his fast wife, seems to have been killed that his murderers might finger his money. Mr. Walton was well known and highly respected on the New York Corn Exchange, where his word was considered as good as his bond. His manners were gentlemanly and affable. His age was between 50 and 60. He has left property to the amount of half a million dollars, about $75,000 of it in real estate. By his death previous to the divorce being granted, his wife will become entitled to one-third of the real estate. Had he died before making his will, she would have been entitled to a much larger portion of the property. Had he lived until the divorce was granted, she would not have been entitled to any of his estate.

☞ The amount of gum "chewed" by the ladies of New York State is astonishing, and to supply the demand several factories are kept incessantly busy. There is one in West Troy which does a "land office business," and another at Rochester which does even more. The Rochester Express, in speaking of the latter, says the daily demand keeps ahead of the supply; three thousand boxes are manufactured per day, each box contains 200 rolls, and thus 600,000 boxes are the daily make and sale.—Allowing four chews to the roll, this would give 2,400,000 persons a "chew" daily.

☞ It is reported that an arrangement has been made between Vanderbilt and the Postmaster General, for carrying the California mails.

☞ Among the flatboatman wrecked in the late hurricane on the Ohio, were two brothers of the name of Gibbons. When the boat went down one of them was rescued, but the other sank and perished beneath the waves. The survivor, after searching in vain for the body, returned to his home in Pittsburg. Saturday night he dreamed his brother came to his bedside and told him that his dead body might be found buried by the side of that of a relative who perished on the same day in like manner with himself. The brother immediately started down the river, and found, sure enough, that his brother and relative were interred side by side.

☞ A Yankee in Connecticut, last week, hitched his horse at a neighbor's gate, and walked in to trade off the animal. While they were talking, a shower came up, and a flash of lightning killed the horse.

Another Yankee, in the same State, hitched his horse to one end of a joist that lay on a wall. When he came back to take him, the horse started back, and brought the other end of the joist against the man's head so forcibly as to kill him.

☞ The Gospel Banner says that the Kennebec County Jail, located in Augusta, is an elegant structure, and in point of architecture the finest building in the place. And it relates that not long since an Irishman, a stranger there, walked up to the front entrance, kneeled upon the steps and reverently crossed himself. Then, rising, he passed to the opposite side of the street and inquired of a bystander at what time the cathedral would be opened.

BURNING OF AN ENGLISH SPINNING MILL.—The cotton mill of Messrs. Mayall, which was destroyed by fire on the 23d ult., was situated at Moosley, about midway between Manchester and Huddersfield, and was one of the most extensive spinning mills in England. It had 120,000 spindles, mostly with the latest improvements, and a quality of yarn was spun in it which generally commanded a good market. The fire was first discovered about half-past one in the morning, but from what cause it originated is not known. The loss is estimated at $600,000 to $750,000. A great number of workpeople were thrown out of work by the occurrence.

☞ The Democratic City Committee of Roxbury, at a meeting held on the 3d inst., by a vote of 5 to 11, rejected a proposition in favor of a Douglas ratification meeting, and by a vote of 10 to 6 endorsed the nomination of Breckinridge and Lane, and appointed a committee to make arrangements for a meeting to ratify the nomination.—The Douglas men of Roxbury will form a new organizaiion.

☞ The Rockland Democrat says that on the 14th ult. lightning struck the house of the lath Nathan D. Rice, Esq., passed down the chimney and through the house, discharging a loaded gun in the closet, and took its departure without doing much injury. The inmates were uninjured by the shock. It was certainly a very discriminating spark.

☞ The people of Monson, Me., have held a meeting and passed a series of resolutions, in which they attribute the recent disastrous conflagration in that village to the effects of rumselling and intemperance—and declare their purpose to abate these evils within their limits by all lawful means.

☞ In township No. 9, in Aroostook, Me., Mr. Elisha Brown has a thrifty orchard, and a correspondent of the Pioneer states that the rose bushes cover almost the whole of the log house occupied by his family. He expects to raise this season over a hundred bushels of apples, besides cranberries, blackberries and other fruits.

☞ Coolies are getting numerous in Havana. A letter from that city says:—"We already begin to see idle and worthless Chinese in our streets in too large numbers for the safety of property. In Havana and suburbs, at this time, we have between 38,000 and 39,000 of free negroes or colored; about 37,000 slaves, and 92,000 to 93,000 white persons—all told, nearly 169,000."

☞ At Petersburg, Va., at a political meeting, Mr. Yancey, of Alabama, in the course of his remarks, said that Mr. Seward, of Georgia, who had previously spoken in the same city, had asserted that he (Mr. Yancey) desired the election of the Black Republican candidate for the Presidency. If this was true, he pronounced Mr. Seward a base calumniator.

☞ The Yarmouth Register says Mrs. Anner Hamblin, of that town, celebrated her Fourth of July by taking a horseback ride, which she appeared to enjoy very much. Though about eighty years of age, she is seemingly smarter and more vigorous than many of our eighteen year old belles, and we hope will be able to celebrate many more Independence days in as happy a manner.

☞ The tallest man in France is dead. He was seven feet and six inches high.

CIVIL WAR IN SYRIA.

Interesting letters from Beirut, Syria, of June 6th and 7th, published in the Traveller, give stirring accounts of a civil war, which, being waged between different religionists, is terribly bitter. It may lead to a general war between the Mahometan power and three or four great Christian powers. The letters says:—

Syria is now the scene of one of the most sanguinary conflicts ever enacted in this land, which has ever been the battle field of the old world—and Mount Lebanon is now one vast funeral pile.

Druses and Christians, numbering hundreds of thousands, are now engaged in wholesale murder, arson and pillage, in which fiendish work they are aided by Turks, Moslem Arabs, and the people known as the Metawalies.

From my window last week I counted from twenty to thirty burning villages upon the mountain a few miles from Beirut, from whence the flash of musketry may be easily seen and the volleys heard, one after another in rapid succession, as they echo through the valley. The dying and the dead are brought daily into the town in large numbers, and the widows and the orphans may be seen in great crowds weeping and wailing about the streets.

The barbarity of this war is truly shocking. Men, women and children are overtaken while fleeing for refuge and without arms, and ruthlessly slaughtered while praying for quarter.

The Christians have thus far suffered most terribly. Their villages have been burned, their crops destroyed, and great numbers have been brutally murdered, while the Druses, who are better warriors and far more courageous, are assisted by the Turks, Moslems and Metawalies, and up to this time have proved successful.

The bloody war which is waged on both sides as a war of extermination, has its origin in religious and political causes. The Christians and Druses hate each other with a deadly hatred on account of the differences in their religious faith—and the Christians hate the Druses with a special hatred because the Druses are, in a great many of the mountain christian districts, feudal chiefs and rulers over the Christian or Maronite and Greek Catholic villages.—The more immediate causes of the war may be traced to the bloody feuds existing between Druse and Christian tribes. Last summer at Bait Marri a quarrel arose which threatened to precipitate a war, in which the Maronite Christians were victorious, having repulsed the Druses, killing forty or more, while their own loss was less than one-third of that number. Although peace was then declared, the Druses have since assassinated every Christian who came in their way, with an evident determination to make the number of the Maronite loss equal to that of the Druses. This aroused the Christians and so exasperated them that they made an attack upon several Druse villages. At first they were successful, but relying upon their numbers they neglected to appoint leaders or to form any plan for the campaign; consequently, the Druses rallied under their warrior chiefs and burned every Maronite and Greek Christian village within their reach. The provincial authorities pronounced the invading party—the Christians—to be rebels, and the Governor General proceeded with all his available force to the mountains, and bro't his cannon to bear upon the Christians, checking them at every turn, while the Druses, aided by the soldiery, carried on their work of pillage and murder in a manner shameful even to a North American Indian.

The success of the Druses has undoubtedly stirred up all the Moslem hostility to Christians, and a general insurrection seems to be trembling in the balance. The presence of a Russian frigate of thirty guns gives a feeling of security to the Frank population of Beirut, and the expected arrival of a French fleet is generally hailed with delight.

What political motive sends so many vessels of war to Syria just at this time is not fully known, though it may be conjectured easily—but it is considered by every one as providential!

The Consuls General have been holding daily consultations to devise ways and means for the protection of the Christians, and each one has written to his national fleet for vessels of war, as the only means of restraining the Moslems in their present excited state.

It is believed that this state of things will hasten the end of the "sick man;"—indeed the French Consul-General declares that this is the end of the Ottoman Empire! If this be so the Moslems will undoubtedly try to die "game," and the Christian population is beginning to quake with fear as the time approaches, dreading a general insurrection.

☞ The following outrageous item appears in the Taunton Gazette:

An eminent wag from a neighboring city has expressed to us his surprise that, in view of the fact of six cows being killed by electricity during a recent thunder shower in the western part of Massachusetts, an extra session of the Legislature has not been called to provide the rest of the cattle in the Commonwealth with lightning rods.

☞ We hear nothing lately of the purpose of the South to dissolve the Union, in the event of the election of a Republican President. The fire-eaters seem absorbed just now in effecting the dissolution of the Democratic party.

☞ All over the country there seems to have been an unusual exemption from fatal accidents upon the Fourth. In New York, however, a man accidentally shot his wife in the head; her recovery is doubtful.

☞ A decree is said to have been signed by Garibaldi confiscating all the property of the Sicilian Jesuits.

FROM CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.—Fayettville, Ark., July 5.—The telegraph was completed to this place yesterday.

The overland coach has arrived, with the mail of the 15th.

There is great excitement in Arizona, in regard to the gold discoveries in Aremymtres. Many are on route for the mines.—All the members of the Provisional Government have gone to the mines. Some pronounce the mines a humbug, but one man had some gold, and he is very sanguine that there will be a rich yield as soon as water can be had. The whole country is a desert upon which neither man nor beast can exist.

Trade is without particular movement. There is a trifling improvement in a few articles, but still are greatly within remunerative prices.

A continous line of telegraph is to be built between San Francisco and Los Angelos. By the middle of July it is thought that 480 miles will be in operation.

The grain harvest has commenced, and the accounts are extremely favorable.—Wheat and barley will be unexpectedly large, and a full third will require to be exported to find a market.

Returns from twelve counties in Oregon give the Democratic candidate for Congress 1032, and the Republican candidate 1033. The thirty-three counties to be heard from gave a Democratic majority of 152.—There have been material changes both ways in the counties heard from, and both parties are hopeful.

All accounts agree that the Republicans and anti-Lecompton Democrats will be strong enough in the next Legislature to defeat Lane and elect Smith to the Senate.

British Columbia dates of the 9th have been received.

The ship Lawson from China brough 70 coolies. The ships Leonidas and Daniel Elliott were overdue with 600 coolies on board.

The Frazer River mining news is encouraging.

There had been considerable emigration to Washoe, and the mining accounts continue good.

NEGROES IN CANADA.—A correspondent who has recently visited Canada, writes as follows concerning the negroes settled there:—

"I went with a view of examining the country and the condition of the people of color. It is currently reported all along the southern border, and of course in the interior of the South, that the colored people in Canada are in a suffering and even starving condition. Being a Southron myself, I knew the value of this report to Slavery, and as I am opposed to all lying I was determined to find out the truth of this matter. And I am prepared to say from personal observation and from personal interviews with reliable men from different parts of Canada, that the report above mentioned is utterly false! The country is fine, land yielding splendid crops, and many of the colored people are amassing wealth. All parties testify that the colored man's condition is as good as that of any other emigrants. Why should it not be? Except slavery has paralyzed his manly energy! There is a prejudice of color among the whites on the ground of social equality; and so far as I could see and hear, both white and colored discourage any attemps at amalgamation of the races."—New York Tribune.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, add so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 19, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

☞ We learn from the Portland Advertiser, that James Hall, Esq., formerly of this city, has been appointed as one of the Railroad Commissioners for the State of Maine. Mr. Hall has long been favorably known in that section of the country, as the Civil Engineer in charge of the construction of the P. S. & P. R. R., and also of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, and has had extensive experience in the construction and managing of Railroads in New England and several Western States. The late law of Maine requiring a careful examination of the state of the roads and their management, also makes it the duty of the Governor to appoint an Engineer as one of the Board of Commissioners. Mr. Hall possesses the requisite qualifications to perform the duties of the office. We think that Gov. Morrill has made a wise selection in his appointment to that position.

CATTLE COMMISSIONERS.—The Governor has appointed, as Commissioners under an act concerning contagious diseases among cattle, Larkin D. Mason, Tamworth; Oliver Pillsbury, Henniker; and Walter Harriman, Warner.

The Manchester American says:—

The Commissioners are well selected.—They are men of ability and sound judgement. Messrs. Mason and Pillsbury are first class farmers, and Mr. Harriman is at this time a successful tiller of the soil. The appointment of these gentlemen will give unusual satisfaction.

A FIRST RATE NOTICE.—The Pennsylvanian, Mr. Buchanan's Philadelphia organ, gives Mr. Forney the following puff over the left:

The Press, which assumes the leadership of the Douglas Democrats here, advises them to make common cause with the Black Republicans in order to defeat the Breckinridge movement, the object of which, it assures them, is the disruption of the Union. The advice, monstrous as it is, does not surprise us in the least, it coming from the hireling Clerk of the Republican House; but what surprises us is that, after so many palpable evidences of the treasonable designs of this political Swiss, there should still be found people so utterly blinded, and so easily imposed upon, as to be influenced in their political opinions by this apostate of the Press.

We wonder what the friends of Mr. Douglas, and that statesman himself, will have to say to this beautiful combination ticket of Lincoln and Douglas.

Gov. Floyd, Secretary of War, is known to be a Douglas man. A correspondent of the Boston Herald says that Gov. Toucey, Secretary of the Navy, maintains that Douglas is the regularly nominated national Democratic candidate; and that it is the duty of the Connecticut Democracy to unite cordially and earnestly in his support.

We copy the foregoing from the Providence (R. I.) Daily Post, for the sole purpose of giving the statements which it makes the promptest and most unequivocal denial; and of, at the same time, calling the attention of the public to the utter recklessness with which some of the organs of the Douglas faction are endeavoring to mislead and deceive the North as to the feelings entertained by prominent men against those whose aim it is to divide and conquer the Democratic party.—Constitution.

☞ Oliver Wendell Holmes says, "Our brains are seventy year clocks. The angel of life winds them up, once for all, he closes the doors, and gives the key into the hands of the angel of resurrection."

"My dear doctor," said a lady, "I suffer a great deal with my eyes." "Be patient, madam," he replied, "you would probably suffer a great deal more without them."

☞ An unhappy young married woman in Hartford took strychnine to kill herself. As she began to straighten out, lobelia was freely administered, and through its influence her life was saved.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Kephart, the murderer of Mrs. Willis and her two children, near Batavia, Iowa, last week, was hung there yesterday, by a mob, numbering 250 persons.

☞ Dennis Berry, who had both arms blown off in firing the Douglas salute at Augusta, has since died from the effects of injuries.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

From the Journal.

VALUABLE RELIC.—One of the anecdotes of Sir William Pepperell, which we do not recollect to have before heard, was related to us this week by Geo. A. Ward, Esq. of New Brighton, N. Y. Soon after the capture of Louisbug, Sir William was presented to George second. The King duly appreciated the valuable services he had rendered, and asked Sir William what he should bestow upon him as a token of national gratitude. "I ask nothing," was his modest reply, "but the placing of a national ship on our coast, to protect the vessels of your American subjects."

The King was so pleased with the reply, that he at once had a silver snuff-box made, on which was engraved the scene of Diogenes in his Tub, and a King retiring at his request from obstructing the sunshine.

A relative of the Pepperell family, Mr. Ward, now holds as an invaluable heir-loom that silver snuff-box in his possession.

From the Gazette.

PORTSMOUTH DIRECTORY.—Messrs. C. W. Brewster & Son have issued the new Directory of the City, and it is now ready for delivery. This little book of 170 pages contains the names, occupations and residencies of all the citizens of Portsmouth, the local laws passed since 1856, officers of Corporations, Societies, &c., as existing on the 1st day of June last. The street Directory is a peculiar feature, and gives the names of the residents in each street in regular order, and is a great convenience to all who have occasion to examine that part of the work. The external appearance of the present edition is far more tasty than any before issued, while the contents are undoubtedly as accurate as such a work well can be. Every house and store in the city should be furnished with at least one copy.

☞ Messrs. Allen & Paine, the enterprising dry goods dealers and manufacturers of cloaks, mantillas, &c., have determined to give up their retail business in this city, and remove to Boston, where they propose to devote themselves exclusively to the sale of ladies garments and trimmings at wholesale only. They have engaged a new store in Devonshire street, and will take possession about the first of August. These young gentlemen have been engaged in business in this city only three years, and they have exhibited a capacity in the successful management of an extensive retail and jobbing business, which affords great promise of their continued prosperity in the more expanded field which they now enter. Their departure from this city will be a serious loss, as they have given employment to a large number of hands in the prosecution of their business. Their retail stock is nearly all disposed of; what remains can be bought at almost any price. No reasonable offer will be refused.

DR. HAYES' ARCTIC EXPEDITION.—The arrangements for Dr. Hayes' expedition are completed. The vessel "Spring Hill," sailed for the North this week. The following are the names of the officers: Commander, Dr. Isaac T. Hayes; Astronomer, and second in command, Dr. August Sontag; first officer, S. G. McCormick; second officer, H. W. Dodge; Commander's Clerk, George F. Knorr; Assistant Astronomer, Henry Redcliffe; Carpenter, Gibson Carrathers; Surgeon and Artist not yet appointed. The steward, cook and six seamen, seventeen in all, compose the whole ship's company.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—before assimilation can take place, there are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that wonderful gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford immediate relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions, or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics or which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.
Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSUMPTION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOUS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if from a grave, from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, chronic changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the iron of oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the removal of habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, obstinate, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very grateful and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.
In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which acts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to DEMAND FOR OPERATIVES IN THE ENGLISH COTTON MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS.—The Cotton manufacture, says the Traveller, has been the most prosperous business in England and the United States for the last year, and it is increasing in England with a rush which must inevitably, at no far distant period, produce a disastrous reaction.

Lancashire county, which comprises within its limits the city of Manchester, is the great seat of the English cotton manufacture, and the papers say that ten thousand more operatives are wanted at the present moment and 30,000 to 40,000 will be needed before long. The Bury Guardian says that within that small district alone thirty-nine large chimnies are rising to tell by their smoky pennants the bustling industry which exists by their side. The same journal says:

In Ireland the people are panic-stricken. They are hastening from their green fields and crystal rivers to other lands. The tide of emigration has set in, and the best of the peasantry are leaving for America. In the west and midland counties there are hundreds of girls who toil over the "sewed muslin work" for ten or twelve hours a day for a wretched wage. Will no kind Samaritan help them to quadruple their earnings in a Lancashire factory. Look also at the supply of domestic servants. The demand has long ago exceeded the supply, and the wages paid are greatly in excess of other parts of the kingdom for a much less intelligent domestic.

The manufacturing fever has seized every class. All around we have bustling industry. New mills are rising and new companies forming at the rate, in this district alone, of six a week. The shillings of the working man are being clubbed together, and are competing with the rich man's pound. Joint stock and co-operation companies are on every hand. Vast sums of money are monthly deposited by the working classes in these concerns. Wages are high, as every one wishes they should be, but a want is being felt of persons to receive those wages. Already the people of Rossendale have been obliged to obtain labor from a distance, and at the present rate of increase the want is likely to be severely felt. Where are the additional hands to come from? On the southern downs of England—by the pastures of Dorsetshire—or tending the kine in Wiltshire—are the people we want. They are existing on a paltry pittance, while the younger branches of the family are a burthen rather than a blessing.

Mrs. Dr. Lydia Sayre Hasbrouck, who edits the "Sibyl," and has taken a short vacation lately, seems to be a good deal better than could have been expected. She makes this "personal explanation" in her last:—"Above all fruits, plants and flowers, we have another little nursing plant to tend and nestle to our hearts, in the shape of a little boy ten days old, who lays quietly sleeping near us as we write this. A blue-eyed, fair-skinned, golden-haired and tender plant, he seems to meet the roughness of this world in striking contrast to our dark-eyed little Daisy, whose place here seems if possible more vacant, now that the little brother she so often asked us to get her has come amongst us."

A gentleman in Winstead had occasion the other day to introduce a water-pipe from the road through a drain some sixty feet in length to his house. How to do it without taking up the drain was the question. An old grimalkin solved it. Puss, it was known, had been accustomed to hunt in the drain for vermin, and even to travel from one cellar to another through its connections. So a fine twine was attached to one of her legs, her nose inserted into the lower end of the drain, and peremptory directions given her to s-c-a-t! She complied, and the line was at once received by parties in waiting. A stronger cord was next drawn through, and by that the pipe.—Portland Advertiser.

John Leach has a picture in the last Punch which is undoubtedly intended for the Marquis of Westminster, the richest and meanest nobleman in England. It is entitled "Very Careful," and shows a carriage, horses and liveried servants exposed to the pouring rain. The party inside, the "economical peer," exclaims to the footman with feeling, "Good gracious, Thomson!—Haven't you men got an umbrella outside?" Thompson—"No, my lord!" Peer—"Dear! dear! dear! then give me those new hats inside!"

CHARLESTON, July 5.—The weather has been intensely hot both in South Carolina and Georgia, causing many deaths. The crops are materially injured.

Matrimonial history is a narrative of many words; but the story of love may be told in a few letters!

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will produce the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed, from the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months afthr the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jefferson Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1860.

☞ The Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, of the Douglas party, has issued an official document, from Washington, declining and condemning any Union ticket, or union of any sort, with the Breckinridge party. The manifesto says:—

Nor does the committee believe that any such arrangement can with propriety be made at any time, in any place, or under any circumstance, with those who have placed Breckinridge and Lane in nomination, and are now their avowed supporters in opposition to the regular nominees of the democratic party.

The New York Journal of Commerce pedicts, though it does not desire, the election of Lincoln and Hamlin.

Some of the western Douglas papers, it is said, publish their platform with the Supreme Court plank omitted.

More Protests.—Twenty-nine of the seventy delegates from New York in the Baltimore Convention have published a protest against the action of the Douglasites in rejecting regular and admitting bogus delegates for Douglas' benefit. They will run a Breckinridge ticket in New York.—Fernando Wood's proposed "half-in-half" does not go down with the Hard Shells.

☞ One of the delegates to the Baltimore Convention, from Canton, Ohio, on his return home, was received, not by a triumphal procession of rejoicing Democrats, but by a funeral procession with a hearse all prepared for him, the whole parade being got up expressly for his reception! He did not like it very well, having seen quite as much of the funereal at Baltimore as was agreeable.

☞ Burleigh, the New York gossip writer for the Boston Journal, says:—

Tammany Hall is in a stew. She does not know what to do—with two tickets in the field, and danger and perhaps political death attending the reception or rejection of either—what can she do? The days of those old corrupt political associations seem to be over. A new order of things is springing up around us. The Irish and Catholic influences that have so long ruled over our city have seen their best days. The hope of Douglas and his friends was in the united Catholic vote. Mrs. Douglas is a devout Catholic. All the people of Washington know that the Papal priests have the run of Mr. Douglas's house. While he entertains his political friends in one part of the house, Mrs. Douglas is at home to Father this man, and that, who come up in their carriages. It is expected that should he get into the White House these gentlemen will have the run of that also. The Catholic papers here have been zealous in his favor, and have even demanded his nomination. But another foreign influence in New York has arisen that casts the Irish Catholic vote in the shade—I mean the Germans. They are numerous, clanish, influential.—They worship in lager beer gardens on Sunday. They hate the Pope. They hate slavery, and will go with any party who go against the peculiar institution of the South. But they demand their Sunday games and fun; and the recent action of the New York Legislature in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, is telling on them fearfully. As a whole, the political horizon is rather squally just now.

Complimentary,—very.—The Boston Herald says:—

The intriguers and demagogues engaged in the Breckinridge fizzle are hard up.

These fellows know perfectly well that the Democratic party will not touch the nasty, nauseating dose.

The bogus and bolting rascals feel the humiliating position in which they are placed. They see the handwriting already on the wall. They see the word "traitor" staring them full in the face.

The Democratic party has no enemies so bitter as these vipers, who have fastened upon it for the purpose of stinging it.

It must be indeed galling to the Massachusetts bolters to find the people whom they have insulted turn from them as from a serpent, and give them the cold shoulder. Whitney, Cushing, Butler & Co. are dead cocks in the pit.

Another Guess.—Somebody promised New Hampshire to Douglas, by a vote of thousands, on the night when they fired the guns in Concord. Now the Manchester American says:

We do not believe that the Democratic vote of New Hampshire in November will be as large as it was last March by 1500 to 2000 votes, including the Breckinridge vote. We shall be surprised if the Douglas vote exceeds 30,000. Lincoln's vote will in no event be less than 39,000.

☞ The Savannah Republican, which is no doubt one of the smartest of papers, proposes this little arrangement:—

"Let Breckinridge and Lane both withdraw from the contest; let Mr. Bell do the same thing, leaving Edward Everett, the purest and best man of his day and generation, the compromise candidate for the Vice Presidency. Then let a southern Democrat head the ticket. We know but one who, in all respects, availability included, is fitted for the post, and that is Hon. James H. Hammond of South Carolina."

☞ Lola Montez is very ill, and her medical attendant doubts whether she will live the week out. Her complaint is of the nature of pleurisy.

Firing Salutes.—The lives of a dozen persons were sacrificed last week in firing salutes. Many of the people who engage in this business know very little about the management of cannon, and they often use unsafe pieces. At the great Douglas meeting at Manchester, it has already been mentioned that one man was killed, one supposed to be mortally wounded, and others injured. The Mirror gives the particulars of this calamity:

The gun had already been fired many times. The procession was marching up Elm street, and when it had got opposite the cannon the accident took place. The previous time the cannon was fired, Charles A. Hackett, who thumbed the vent, told Richardson that the cannon was too hot.—Richardson said it was never too hot till it sizzled on the outside; and so earnest was he to give the procession a loud one immediately, that he did not stop to swab it out. He was ramming it down hard with a wooden rammer, using grass for wadding, when it went off. The cause of the discharge was that the cannon was too hot. No one had warning. Hackett was holding his thumb on the vent, and received the force in his right eye, and its recovery to sight is doubtful. His left is uninjured. Richardson was killed instantly. Whipple is a sight to behold.

The Wood-Rangers, or the Trappers of Sonora. By Capt. Mayne Reid, author of "The Scalp Hunters," "Rifle Rangers," &c., &c.—Beautifully illustrated with original designs.

This new work is just published by R. M. De Witt, 13 Frankfort street, New York; and is for sale by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth. It contains 54 chapters, arranged under appropriate heads, introducing a variety of characters and incidents. As a brief synopsis of the work, we extract the following from the preface:

The popularity of Mayne Reid's works, both in this country and abroad, is sufficiently indicated in the avidity with which each new publication is sought by the many readers of those already published. This eagerness we have spared no pains to gratify, having invariably secured the advance sheets, at the earliest possible moment; and we are happy to be able to present to the American public a new volume, which is said to surpass all the previous ones in stirring incident and graphic adventure.

The "Wood-Rangers" cannot fail to enlist the warm sympathies of the reader, who will here find that the talented author has entered a new field, rich in all the romantic incident which his pen is so capable of working up into those thrilling climaxes, which, while they startle the imagination, enchain the mind, as, with a magician's wand, each new wonder is revealed to the absorbed and attentive reader.

The perfidy and wickedness of the ambitious Antoine de Mediana, in compassing the murder of his brother's wife, and, as he supposed, the destruction of her son, are graphically contrasted with the devotion and noble daring of Bois-Rose and his singular companion Pepe; while the love passages of Fabian (son of the Countess de Mediana, lost in Sonora under the name of Tiburcio Arellanos,) and the thrilling adventures of the expedition to the Golden Vally, are intensely interesting.

Antioch College.—The fourth Commencement of Antioch College, at Yellow Springs, Ohio, took place week before last. Rev. James F. Clarke addressed the literary societies on "The choice of an occupation in life." The graduating class numbered twenty-eight. The Baccalaureate by the new President, Rev. Thomas Hill, discussed the form and extent to which religion should enter into a course of public instruction. The venerable Father Taylor of Boston was present, and at President Hill's request gave his blessing, in a characteristic speech, to the graduating class.

More Trouble for the Great Eastern.—The Boston Herald reports that it is said that the directors of this unfortunate vessel are to be sued by the Grand Trunk Railway Company, for breach of contract in not going to Portland. We heard the story several days ago—and the amount of damages to be claimed is set at $200,000; but the sheriff seems to be a long while getting his attachment on and his keepers aboard.

The Largest and Smallest Steamers.—In 1860, the Atlantic is crossed by the largest and smallest steamers that ever were borne across it—the Great Eastern, from England to New York, and the Seth Grosvenor, of only 69 tons, from New York to Liberia. The Great Eastern is now safe in New York, and the Seth Grosvenor, we doubt not, is also safe in Monrovia.

☞ The Philadelphia Bulletin states that a poor sailor has been cruelly hung up in the rigging of the U. S. steamer Pawnee, by his hands and feet, four hours, in a rain storm. The same punishment is to be repeated as soon as he is sufficiently recovered to mount the rigging. The man's crime was having a bottle of whiskey on board this vessel. He had been confined, double-ironed in the "brig" forty-eight hours previous to the hanging.

☞ The following extract from a letter gives a most favorable account of the wheat prospect in the West:—

The whole West, from the Ohio to the Missouri, is one vast grain field. Times ought to be good now, if ever. One of the sharpest flour manufacturers in Ohio, told me yesterday that this State would have thirty million bushels of wheat—five millions more than ever raised in Ohio. More than all, the wheat is of the best quality.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.—A Haverhill man, who trades in flour, grain, &c., trusted a Hibernian with two barrels of flour, to be paid for in a few days at the outside. The account ran along six months, and as by that time the flour was consumed, the debtor seemed to have lost his interest in the matter. But the creditor still thought of it, and hatched up a novel expedient to get his pay. The derelict had no more property than the law would protect him in holding. He had one hog only, but that was a very fine one, weighing 500 lbs. The creditor bought a store pig out of a drove, and got a friend to sell it to the debtor at his own price. The bargain was too good for him to throw away, and he bit at the pork bait. Flour, Grain & Co. then attached the large hog, took it away, sold it, and realized enough to cover his demand and the costs, and to return a "V." to the debtor.

Fall of a Building—Lives Lost.—The St. Louis Democrat learns from St. Joseph, Mo., that a new four story building in that city, owned and occupied by McCord & Co., wholesale grocers, fell at about 2 o'clock Friday, the 6th, crushing a frame building adjoining, occupied by three families, and killing nine out of ten occupants instantly, viz.: Miss Boyce and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Cogswell, and four others, whose names are unknown. The building caught fire immediately afterwards, and the stock of McCord & Co., was entirely consumed. The store of Tootles & Fainligh was also consumed, together with the entire stock of boots and shoes. Total loss $20,000.

☞ The meeting-house on Nottingham Square has been taken down, the lumber to be used in building dwelling houses at Northwood. The meeting-house had stood fifty-six years, was built by the town in the strongest manner, and occupied an eminence commanding the view of an extensive and beautiful landscape. It was sold, to be removed, by vote of the town; and when the rubbish comes to be removed, the Square, with the recent improvements of other buildings, will continue to present an inviting aspect to every traveller of good taste.

☞ A fatal accident happened at East Fairfield, Vt., on the 4th. For some years the young men have been in the habit of firing a salute by placing a charge in a hole drilled in a rock. While following up the custom of former years, a charge did not ignite readily, and a young man by the name of Gilbert, was in the act of stepping over it when it was discharged, and killed him instantly by tearing off a part of his head.

☞ A very melancholy death occurred in Tolland, Mass., on the 4th, caused by the administering of laudanum to a little son of J. J. Andrews, Esq., aged about nine months. The laudanum was given by its mother, under the supposition that the bottle held Madeira wine. It may, after all, be a happy thing, for the child would probably have been a drunkard from the cradle, under such prescriptions.

☞ A gentleman in New Bedford recently received a letter from a friend in Pennsylvania, aged 71 years, who has been an agent for the Underground Railroad for fifty years past, during which time he has assisted 2,260 fugitives from slavery on their way North. During the last month he has passed twelve over the road to Canada.

☞ Mr. Ira Blake, of Newburyport, while at work on Friday afternoon last in the reconstruction of the Essex Merrimack Bridge, was precipitated into the river, by the swinging of one of the stringers, and drowned.

☞ Com. Stockton and family are at Rome, on a visit to his son, the minister resident at the Papal Court. Mrs. Stockton has recently presented her husband with another heir, who is said, not without truth, to be 'the noblest Roman of them all.'

☞ Over four hundred clergymen of the Episcopal Church of England are in great pecuniary distress, and the Secretary of the Poor Clergy Relief Fund has put forth a circular containing some sorrowful statements.

☞ It is asserted, upon what is stated to be unquestionable authority, that the King of Naples has given large pay and promises to a band of about fourteen brigands who have engaged to murder Garibaldi.

☞ Queen Victoria has conferred the order of Knighthood on Francis H. Saltus, Esq., of New York city, for important improvements in Artillery. Mr. Saltus is the first citizen of the United States thus distinguished.

☞ The Boston Journal regrets to learn that the Breckinridge party in Salem, consisting of fourteen, is divided into a Custom House clique and a Post Office clique.

New York, July 7.—The entrance fee to the Great Eastern has been reduced to fifty cents, commencing on Monday, the 9th inst. Henry C. Jarrett, of Baltimore, has been apointed agent of the visiting department of the Great Eastern.

☞ Parodi and her Troupe gave a Concert at Bath, Me., on Friday evening.

Washington, July 7.—Ellis H. Schnabel entered the Constitution office this morning, and assaulted Gen. Bowman with a stick, while the latter was quietly setting in his chair. One of the clerks came effectively to his assistance, when Schnabel made his retreat. Immediate steps were taken for his arrest. The reason for the assault was a publication in yesterday's Constitution reflecting on the conduct of Mr. Schnabel.

Mr. Breckinridge's letter, formally accepting the nomination for the Presidency, will appear in the Constitution of Tuesday.

The Constitution has been transferred to Wm. M. Browne, editor, by Bowman.

Edmund French, late Assistant Superintendent of the Treasury Department, under indictment for embezzlement, died this morning. His trial was to have taken place to-day.

Frightened to Death by a Monkey.—A little girl twenty-seven months old, was so scared by the sight of a monkey a few days since, in Philadelphia, death resulted from her terror. The child was playing at the door of her father's house, when an organ grinder with a monkey came along. The child became terrified, and congestion of the brain resulted from the excited condition of the sufferer. She died on the second day after her fright.

☞ A Baptist society in Bath made an excursion on the river on the 4th, which resulted fatally to one of the company. Jesse Hodgdon, a young man who for years has been terribly afflicted with fits, was seized with a convulsion and jumped overboard. He sunk before the small boats, which put out, could reach him.

Who finds all the umbrellas that everybody loses? Every man we meet loses the umbrellas he buys, but we never got acquainted with the man that finds them.—Can any one answer the question before the next rain.

☞ The good people of Biddeford celebrated the 4th by laying the corner stone of their new City Building, with masonic ceremonies.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? Dyspepsia a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Auburn, Oct. 5, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which result from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have invariably given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,
WM. A. RUST, M. D.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 8wd&w

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

Betsey Sanborn.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1835.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, Portsmouth, N. APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place on New England shores affords. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

ROCKINGHAM AGRICULTURAL SO. As the ridiculous excitement gotten up about "the cattle disease" has entirely died out; and there seems no reason to doubt the holding of the Annual Rokingham Fair in Portsmouth this year, we propose to briefly state the origin of the County Society, and its transactions thus far.

In the Fall of 1852, Hon. H. F. French and a dozen other influential gentlemen in Exeter, interested in agriculture, called a public meeting "for the purpose of forming a County Agricultural Society." The motto on their circular call was:

"They who labor on the earth, are the chosen people of God."—Jefferson.

The meeting was held, the Society formed, a constitution adopted, and officers elected. The objects of the Society are stated in the constitution to be, "The improvement of Agriculture, Horticulture and the Mechanic Arts in this County." Members cannot be assessed more than $1 per year; and any person paying $5 becomes a life member, and cannot be assessed for five years. A large number of gentlemen present became life members, thus at once raising a fund of about $300. This was afterwards increased in the same manner to $5000; a large portion of which, however, has since been expended to pay premiums and make good the deficiencies in the receipts at the Annual Fairs—of which we think seven have been held. The Society now holds property represented to be worth about $1,000; and it is proposed to increase the fund by life subscriptions—of which there are at present comparatively few in Portsmouth and this section of the County.

From 1853 to 1856, inclusive, there were four annual Exhibitions and Cattle Shows of the Society, in Exeter; in 1857 the Fair was held in Portsmouth; in 1858 and '59, in Exeter; and is proposed in Portsmouth again. We have no doubt our citizens will readily appreciate the advantages of holding the Fair here, and subscribe liberally to aid in meeting the expenses. Those who are not already members, by subscribing $5 will become such, and thereby have the privilege of entering articles for premiums without paying entrance fees—and also have free admission for themselves and their families at Fairs for five years.

☞ The new Post Office in this city—we will state in reply to frequent impatient inquiries, at home and from abroad—is "all done but finishing," as it has been for a long while; but it does certainly look now as if it would be entirely completed in a very short time—say within a month. The furniture and fixtures are being put in or built on the premises; and about two hundred yards of rich Brussels carpets have within a few days been furnished for the office rooms in the second story, from the establishment of Jones & Mendum; the iron fence has arrived in Boston from Philadelphia, and is expected here daily; the sidewalks are to be laid, and the yard graded and turfed forthwith, and then Portsmouth will have a Post Office which, for location and arrangement, far excels those of Boston or New York.

☞ We learn that Mr. S. A. Trefethen and others, contractors for erecting the new Magazine Building on the Navy Yard at this city, having failed to comply with the terms of their contract, in not completing the structure by the 30th of June—the bondsmen have employed Albert Blaisdell, Esq., to superintend the finishing of the building.

☞ It will be seen that the elegant Ocean House Omnibus is advertised to commence this morning running regular daily trips between Portsmouth and Rye Beach—leaving this city in the morning and returning in the evening. The fare is only 25 cents each way,—cheap enough, certainly, for a ride of seven miles or more. By this route, passengers can also visit the Shoals, in the fine yacht Prioress, and return to Portsmouth same day.

EASTERN RAILROAD. — The annual meeting of this company was held in Chapman Hall, Boston, on Monday. The excellent report just made is very satisfactory to the shareholders. The stock now sells at $85.

The annual meeting of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire is called at Hampton, this morning, at 9 1-2 o'clock. There is considerable feeling, on the part of some of the stockholders, respecting the division of the entire earnings of the line, since the dividends ceased; and the New Hampshire stockholders are appealed to by some of the solid men of this city to rally at the meeting. The Boston Transcript thinks some music may reasonably be expected on the occasion.

Hon. V. D. Parris, Naval Store Keeper at Portsmouth, has stopped his Portland Argus because it supports Douglas and Johnson. Bro. Adams of the Argus "expects to survive" the shock. We met Virgil the evening before the Convention, in the hall at the United States, and he was "blowing like a porpoise." Among other things he boasted of his fidelity in "supporting the two last administrations." We told him it had been a perfectly "mutual business, for they had reciprocated by supporting him." —Bath Times.

☞ One day's later news from Europe comes via Liverpool, June 28.

The Paris Siecle says the Papal loan is contrary to the traditions of the church.—Every council has excommunicated money lenders at interest. It also says the Peter pence contribution has failed.

A Palermo letter says Garibaldi lost 900 men in the battles of the 27th and 28th.

The municipality of Palermo have sent an address to the Dictator, requesting the immediate annexation of Sicilly to the Italian kingdom. Garibaldi answered that he was in favor of annexationb, ut at present the annexation of Sicily alone was not advisable.

☞ By the overland mail we have San Francisco dates to June 18.

R. E. Brewster of San Francisco has failed; liabilities $300,000. In ten days it is expected every unsound house will go by the board.

Oregon advices indicate the probable election of the Democratic candidate for Congress by a small majority. All parties concede 28 to 30 anti-Lecompton and Republican members of the Legislature against 18 or 20 Democrats, by which means Baker will probably go to the U. S. Senate. This is a great defeat of Lane.

DOVER, N. H., July 9.—Moses Paul, Esq., agent for the Cocheco Manufacturing Co., died this morning at 6 o'clock.

☞ The old Orthodox church at Saco, built in 1800, at a cost of $25,000, was burnt on Sunday. No insurance.

MARRIED,

In Dover, Daniel H. Tucker, of South Berwick, to Maria M. Ham, of North Berwick.—Arthur M. Smith to Fannie S. Farnham.

DIED,

In this city, July 9th, Mrs. SARAH GREEN, aged 86 years, widow of Nehemiah Green; for many years a highly esteemed member of the North Church.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,

FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

To all classes and all constitutions they are a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.

TO VOCALISTS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS, these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will in ONE DAY remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

THE FOURTH IN TOWN.

[BEING THE LAMENT OF A POET WHO COULDN'T GET AWAY.]

I really don't know what to do
('Twas thus the Poet sang,)
Amid this dreadful hubaboo
That drives me crazy,
(Bang!)
I did not wish in town to stay,
It cost me quite a pang
To find I couldn't get away,
But fate is cruel,
(Bang!)
The streets are filled with smoke and noise,
And everywhere a gang
Of ruffian men and rowdy boys
Are firing pistols,
(Bang!)
Ah, out of town the air is sweet,
Where nodding roses hang
Above the brook that laves their feet,
But here, 'tis horrid!
(Bang!)
In every public place and hall,
The orators harangue
Amid a dun and dusky pall
Of smoke and sulphur.
(Bang!)
Whatever patriots may say
With all their buncombe slang,
In town this Independence Day
Is but a nuisance!
(Bang!)
'Twas well enough, when into birth
Our Independence sprang—
But now it is Tophet here on earth!
(Crack! clash!! whang!!! clang!!!! slam-bang!!!!!)

THE WORST YET.—It is said that the reason Horace Greeley advocates Lincoln is that he once lived next door to him, and accordingly goes in as an Aber. (Let not your angry passions rise, intelligent reader.)

SPARKLING JOKE.—Our French correspondent attributes the effervescent temperament of the Irish to the fact of their being principally Seltz.

THE BIRD.—The Republicans propose to change the ornithological symbol of America, by withdrawing the Eagle and substituting the Rail!

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE

DR. TOWNSEND'S

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

IS THE GREAT RENOVATOR OF THE BLOOD.

the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cared by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of enervating weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a unfavorable diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will rouse the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY, and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

RENOVATING & PURIFYING THE BLOOD

It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved to be a powerful purifier, cleanser of the system from disease, extracted and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
under the act of 1836.
76 STATE STREET, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in matters appertaining thereto. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that no agency is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, in addition to his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States since the commencement of the Revolution, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."—Extract from a letter of Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. I have no hesitation in the proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply those deficiencies, and a cure is made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERWORK, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, ERUPTIONS, BLOTCHES, &c., use BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for the last five years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, &c. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headache, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, or six for $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to give immediate relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and reviving pain, it has so equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of morphine or whiskey and other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable form of disease in all such ladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSUMPTION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has proved its marvellous merits and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported of, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE GREAT ITALIAN SCHISM.—Seven millions of Italians are now in rebellion against the Papacy. With the Pope's Bull suspended over his head, King Victor Emanuel has been spontaneously joined by Tuscany, Modena, and all that is now denominated Central Italy, the priests leading the way. How far the Roman House may prove an exception to the rule that makes division against itself the precursor of a fall, we cannot pretend to say; but there are no apparent grounds on which any lasting recuperation of the Catholic power in Italy can be presumed. Humanity has cause to rejoice at this termination of the oldest and most absolute despotism in history. By permission, the Pope will yet retain the insignia of power, but he can no longer use them to any effective end. He may be likened to Bunyan's Giant Despair grinding his teeth at the Pilgrims as they pass to the Holy Land, but wholly unable to pursue them by reason of his stiffened joints and other infirmities of age.

The feebleness of roar of the Bull issued against the King of Sardinia, suggests a comparison with other days, when it was mere sport for a Papal Bull to split the Alps and shake the steeples of London and Paris. Before the time of Henry VIII. all Europe trembled as the thunder of the Vatican rolled out its mighty curse to blast the eyes, the noses, the tongues and the loins of heretic kings. To-day, the Bull of Pius IX. does not frighten a nursery maid in all Italy.

The state of the Roman Catholic Church in other countries must be affected more or less by this prafysis in the Head. It must gradually lose political power wherever it has held it, and with that, the respect it has hitherto commanded as a part of the State.—Century.

DEATH OF A NOTED GLUTTON.—On Wednesday morning last, says the Baltimore American of July 6, a colored man named Thomas Thomas, well known in the eastern section of the city as eatinig Tom, died at his house on Fip-penny-bit alley, near Eden, north of Baltimore street. He had partaken the previous evening of a large quantity of cucumbers, and on rising early on Wednesday morning, drank immoderately of ice water. In consequence he was seized with violent pains from colic, and notwithstanding the efforts of Dr. Healey, expired in two hours. He was in the 88th year of his age, having been born in 1772, four years before the Declaration of Independence. In his early life he was engaged as a stevedore, continuing that occupation until his advanced age compelled him to quit it. He has been known to eat a moderate sized ham with vegetables, &c., in proportion, at one meal. Six large loaves of bread, with more than a quart of coffee or tea, would scarcely suffice for his breakfast or supper. A good sized goose or turkey would disappear from sight in a short space of time. His daughter would prepare a plum pudding at stated periods, and cook in a bushel bag. This would serve him and two others as a desert. A number of instances wherein his voracious appetite has been tested have occurred.—At other times he would be content with a more moderate share of edibles.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter what we do know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect trial:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saiky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipsi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly; and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was so pretty bedonined, gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent, more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1860.

THE BOSTON POST has an able editorial on "Democracy and Non-Intervention, a Slave Code," &c., in which it copies the platforms of the Breckinridge and Douglas parties, with extracts from speeches of Douglas and Johnson—and then says:

Now we earnestly ask candid Democrats, who mean to be governed by reason and common sense, where is so mighty a difference between these platforms and the candidates that stand on them, as to justify the Douglas leaders in charging the Breckinridge branch of the party with being advocates of a Congressional slave code?

Uncle Toby, being entirely "candid," answers that there is no "mighty difference" between their platforms—for both of them are bound hand and foot to the protection of slavery in the territories!—and that while the Douglas leaders are justified in charging the Breckinridge party with the slave code—they have all bound themselves to do the same thing by their new plank.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Traveller writes that "Gen. Cushing will not be appointed to the vacant seat on the Supreme Bench. The South will have one of their own men. They have already lost power in the House of Representatives; in 1861 will be thrust from the White House and the executive departments, and in 1863 will lose the control of the Senate. The Judiciary is all that is left them, and they will nail that Supreme Court with actual slaveholders."

☞ The Queen of England has lately issued a proclamation "for the encouragement of piety and virtue, and for the prevention and punishing of vice, profaneness and immorality." The special means by which it is proposed to attain the desired end, are explained in the following extract from the proclamation:—"We do hereby require and command them, and every one of them, ('our loving subjects,') decently and reverently to attend the worship of God on every Lord's day."

AMERICAN SHIPS AT BOMBAY.—The Providence Journal prints the following extract from a letter received in that city, dated Bombay, May 24th:

Ships are making fortunes now. Large ships get from here to China 100,000 rupees and over. The passage can be made in forty days in this season. A New York ship, the Tornado, has just been chartered by the English government at 24,700 rupees per month, for not less than six months. The expenses, except sailing, to be paid by the charterers. We have twelve American ships in port. Nearly all will leave within a week.

A LONG SERMON. — A cotemporary, speaking of the old meeting house, (a very elegant one, by the way,) lately burnt at Saco, says:—

The church was erected during the ministry of the Rev. Elihu Whitcomb, and the dedication sermon was preached by him, February 12th, 1806. It was ninety feet in length by fifty-four in breadth, &c.

Uncle Toby remarked, as he read this, that he had heard and seen some long sermons, but didn't remember any one so long as ninety feet; and that the breadth was quite uncommon — long sermons usually being slim or slender.

☞ A Philadelphia paper says "the 4th in New York city seems to have been one wild saturnalia of intoxication, incendiarism, assassination and recklessness," and a New York paper retorts that "in Philadelphia on the 4th, no less than seventeen persons were killed or wounded by accidents, affrays, &c.; there were six bloody riots, besides a full proportion of fires—some of them possibly acts of incendiarism."

☞ The new city paper in New York—the World—endeavors to keep up with its older neighbors in matters of news. The Albany Argus can say this much in regard to its moral and religious character—that no one ever reads it without longing for "another and brighter World."

☞ In his "Letters," Humboldt says, "all positive religions contain three distinct parts:—First, a code of morals, very pure and nearly the same in all—next, a geological dream—and thirdly, a myth or historical novellette; which last becomes the most important of all."

☞ Col. J. H. Cutter died at his residence in Hollis, N. H., on Sunday. Col. C. was known as the manufacturer of Bourbon Whiskey, in which business he had amassed a fortune.

☞ The Jonesboro' (Ill.) Gazette, the leading Democratic paper in 'Lower Egypt,' hoists the names of Breckinridge and Lane at the head of its columns, and entirely repudiates Douglas and Squatter Sovereignty.

☞ The Grand Jury of Oswego, New York, have published a card, notifying managers of fairs and festivals held by church societies, that the practice of disposing of their goods by lottery is contrary to the statute, and must not be persisted in.

☞ Brigham Young, the Mormon Mogul, was said to have 217 children at the last accounts.

THE FOURTH IN KENTUCKY.—Our correspondent at Boston Station, Ky., says: "the Fourth of July was duly celebrated there by a grand Picnic and Cotillon party. We had a big crowd and everything passed off finely. Some of our enthusiastic patriots procured a couple of anvils and reminded peaceable persons of the near approach of the anniversary of "Yankee Doodle," by the discharge of the anvils until nearly midnight on the eve of the glorious Fourth, and in the morning long before roosters thought of spreading themselves. The morning trains brought a large number of persons, who were received amid the roar of—anvils. The explosions were made by filling the hole in one anvil with powder and then placing the other anvil on it.—The report was equal to that of a small cannon, and was heard many miles distant. One of the principal features of the pic-nic was a mammoth swing of chain 58 feet high, to which a boat was attached holding about twenty persons at a time. A dinner, dancing and the reading of the Declaration of Independence were the remaining attractions of the day."

Our correspondent here goes on into extended political speculations,—which are getting so plenty now-a-days as to lack value and interest, except to partisans and party papers. We would prefer to wait the statement of the result, after election, than to dive very deeply into guess-work before.

☞ Some of Garibaldi's decrees have caused commotion among diplomatists. One of them orders the dismissal of all the employes of the Neapolitan government, and that their places be filled, as far as practicable, by the functionaries of the revolutionary period of 1848. Another decree abolishes taxation on all articles of consumption, such as grain, potatoes, and the like, which, now that they cannot count on subscriptions from abroad, will embarrass those who are to carry on the government. A third orders the distribution of all the property of the communes between the poor thereof and the soldiers of the insurgent army—the soldiers to select first their lots, and those of the needy to be drawn for. These measures, reviving the Gracchi and the agrarian laws of ancient Rome, are denounced by conservative journals abroad as spoliations of a dangerous character, which, depriving the communes of their revenue, will ruin them, without benefitting the poor.

☞ The Laclede, Mo., Journal "regrets to learn" that a "little difficulty" occurred at a horse race on Fox Creek, Douglas county, Missouri, the results of which are summed up as follows:—Wm. W. Gideon, a citizen of Wright county, was shockingly and brutally beaten over the head with a gun, by Jack Alsup, until life was extinct—Arthur Neal was fatally stabbed—Wm. Neal, Isaac Davis, and Joseph Todd were knocked down and severely injured—a man named Teterick had his head split open—Jack Alsup was knocked down, Wm. Alsup's jaw was broken, another Alsup had his arm broken and his head badly bruised, and a man named Davis was shot through the hand and wrist, although not participating in the 'little difficulty.' "These men," adds the Journal, "had long lived neighbors and friends, and constituted one party in their sports;" consequently their temporary misunderstanding is the more to be regretted.

☞ On the 4th July evening, at Akron, a young man named Samuel O'Neil, while adding fuel to a bonfire, fell into it, and remained some seconds among the blazing tar-barrels. As soon as he could feel his way, he came out crawling on his hands and knees, with not a shred of raiment on him. "Kill me!" he shrieked, "for God's sake kill me!" He died on Thursday morning.

☞ What lots of money the singers do make! Here's Kate Hayes foreclosing a $35,000 California mortgage; Jenny Lind supports a husband in luxury; Alboni is building a palace; Grisi can agitate a stock market; Piccolomini acrumulates £40,000; all of any account in the business earn from $500 to $1500 per week.

☞ For the production of the single article of hay for the New Orleans market, the fertile meadows of Illinois are becoming appreciated; one farmer south of Urbana sold last season 1000 tons of timothy at $10 per ton; this hay was shipped by the Illinois Central south and sold for $35 per ton.

☞ Queen Victoria's inconsistency is being criticized in issuing a stringent proclamation for the suppression of all kinds of vice within her realm, including betting and gambling, and herself attending the Derby races, than which there is said to be no more vicious and immoral exhibition in any land.

The Douglas men have refused to amalgamate in any way with the seceders.—They claim the regular nominations, and will run clean tickets in every State of the Union. This brings the fight between Lincoln and Bell—they will be the two leading candidates.—Newburyport Herald.

MURDERER CAUGHT.—John McNulty, who was fined in Worcester for disturbing the peace, was on Saturday, says the Worcester Spy, taken to Montreal by deputy sheriff Hibbard of St. John, Canada East, on a charge of being an accomplice in two most foul murders committed near that locality on the 7th day of April last. The officers had long been on his track, and had travelled thirteen hundred miles in order to catch him. The murder was committed about thirty-three miles from Montreal. The persons murdered were Mrs. Adelaide Bazaillon and her daughter Marie. Two others, Moise Collette and Flavien Morin (the latter formerly known in Worcester by the name of John Morey,) were accomplices with McNulty in this double murder. They are in jail in Montreal, waiting trial. It was one of the most brutal murders, perpetrated in the woods at some distance from any house, the bodies being mutilated and mangled. The cause of it was a persistent refusal on the part of the daughter, a maid of fifteen, to yield to the desires of the perpetrators of the outrage.

☞ The following extract from a private letter appears in the Nashville (Tennessee) Union:

MACON, Ga., June 30, 1860.

Gov. Johnson, our former great Southern Rights advocate, has accepted the nomination for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Douglas, to the great mortification and disgust of his old friends and admirers in Georgia. He spoke here last night, and all who heard it pronounced it the poorest effort they ever heard from him. When he had spoken about three-quarters of an hour, the Breckinridge enthusiasm was so strongly manifested that the Governor stopped and closed his speech by saying "Minorities had no terrors for him," evidently feeling that his ticket wouldn't "go down" in Georgia.

MR. BRECKINRIDGE'S LETTER.—New York, July 9.—Mr. Breckinridge's letter of acceptance is quite lengthy. He says he has not sought or desired to be placed before the country for the office of President. He expresses his approval of the action of the Convention, and says it does not become him to shrink from the responsibilities of the post assigned him. He favors the doctrine of non-intervention by Congress or Territorial Legislatures to establish or prohibit slavery in the Territories, and thinks it is the duty of the Federal Government to secure to citizens of all the States the enjoyment of their property in the Territories as everywhere else within its jurisdiction.—He expresses the hope that the canvass will be conducted without rancor, and invokes the protection of Divine Providence on our beloved country.

THE POPE, HIS BANKER, AND CARDINAL WISEMAN.—His Holiness, says the Turin correspondent of the Times, applied for money the other day, and the banker, Torlonia, after asking free leave of speech, pointed out to him where money was to be found, charging Cardinal Antonelli with the recent embezzlement of eight millions of money. Presently Cardinal Wiseman brought the same charge against the Secretary of State. The Pope turned his back upon the plain-spoken banker and the blunt English prelate, and would hear never a word against his Minister. Wiseman came from the audience completely crestfallen, and was heard to say "it was full time to bow to the hand of Providence, by which the downfall of the temporal power was visibly decreed."

☞ Lord Palmerston annually sends out twenty young men and the same number of young women from his estate to Canada, at his own expense. All their legitimate wants are provided for, not only as far as Quebec, but to the end of their journey.—They are selected from the largest families on the estate.

☞ When Garibaldi went on board the English ship Hannibal, to meet the Neapolitan commander, he wore the full uniform of a Piedmontese General; but his usual working dress includes nothing more ornamental than a red flannel shirt, a slouched hat, and a colored cravat.

☞ The New York papers advertise the confession of Hicks, the pirate, who is to be executed on Friday. They allege that he has been connected with over one hundred murders! A little steep, that, we should say. But anything to make the book sell and sell the public.

A CLOSE VOTE.—The two wings of the Democrats composing the Jackson Club, at East Boston, had a sharp fight Friday evening, but the administration men won the victory, and by a vote of 24 to 23, it was decided to throw out a flag bearing the names of Breckinridge and Lane. The Douglas men then withdrew from the Club.

☞ The Baron Rothschild, of Naples, has gone bag and baggage to live in a villa at Geneva, which he bought some four years since. He thinks Bomba's country in a desperate condition and doesn't mean to go back to it.

☞ Dr. Wallace is lecturing to the people of Wisconsin on the density of air. His labors are but useless. Every one in that state knows by experience how hard it is to raise the wind.

The entrance to a woman's heart is thro' her eye or ear. But Napoleon said, the way to a man's heart was down his throat. Good housewives understand this, and accordingly are more attentive to the quality of their husband's dinners than to the odor of the flowers which adorn the table.

HAVERHILL, MASS., July 9.—Miss Lizzie Ames, daughter of Isaac Ames, of Bradford, committed suicide at her father's house this morning at half-past ten o'clock, by taking strychnine. She lived about an hour, much of the time in intense agony.

She took half a grain of strychnine and a powerful dose of laudanum. She made a full statement of the circumstances to her friends. Misplaced affection was the cause.

THE RIGHT PLATFORM.—Carl Schurz happily condenses the platform of the Republican party as follows; it should be the platform of all parties:—

"To man, his birthright; to labor, freedom; to him that wants to labor, work and independence; to him that works, his dues."

ANOTHER REMOVAL AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE.—Mr. Christopher Plunkett, a Night Inspector at the Boston Custom House, was removed Monday. He is a Douglas man, and was removed last Fall by Collector Austin, and was restored to his place by Mr. Whitney when he succeeded to the Collectorship.—Boston Trav.

☞ The rumor of the removal of Col. North, special agent of the Post Office Department, is well founded. Col. North's removal is dated 29th June, immediately after the Baltimore Convention.

☞ The State Democrat, published at Springfield, Illinois, after a few days' deliberation, runs up the Breckinridge and Lane flag.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA, a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This vegetable and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, said so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE R. RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD COMPANY held their annual meeting in Boston on Monday. The following directors were elected by almost a unanimous vote:—George M. Browne of Boston; Samuel Hooper, Boston; Micajah Lunt, Newburyport; Franklin Haven, Boston; Nathan D. Chase, Lynn; Wm. L. Dwight, Portsmouth; Henry L. Williams, Salem. These are the same as last year except the two last, who take the place of Henry H. Ladd of Portsmouth, and John C. Lee of Salem, who declined.

By vote the Directors were authorized to issue bonds (for redeeming some bonds outstanding,) for an amount not exceeding seven hundred thousand dollars, and to dispose of the same on such terms and conditions, as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the corporation.

The Directors were also authorized to renew the contract with the Rockport Railroad Company, by which they agree that when the road shall be built from Rockport to Gloucester, the Eastern Railroad shall run an engine over that road for five years without remuneration.

EASTERN RAILROAD IN NEW HAMPS.—The annual meeting of this corporation was held at the Railroad Station in Hampton on Tuesday. The Portsmouth stockholders left the city by an extra train at 9 A. M. Hon. Benj. T. Reed, of Boston, President of the Corporation, took the chair and presided. Considerable discussion ensued relative to the stock list, and the meeting proceeded to the choice of directors. The following named gentlemen were elected by large majorities:

Benjamin T. Reed, Robert W. Hooper, E. P. Bancroft, of Boston; Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Wm. M. Shackford, of Portsmouth.

Considerably discussion was then had in relation to a proposition regarding the reference to arbitrators of the claim of certain shareholders in this Corporation upon the Eastern Railroad, for its due proportion of the earnings of the road; and a resolution offered by Mr. Hatch of Portsmouth, to which an amendment was proposed by Hon. A. Huntington of Salem, was indefinitely postponed upon a stock vote.

A vote of thanks was passed, complimentary to His Excellency Gov. Goodwin and Messrs. Drown, Chase and Brown, who have retired from the board of Directors; and the meeting, at half past one o'clock, was dissolved.

The directors subsequently elected B. T. Reed President, John B. Parker Treasurer, and Daniel P. Drown Clerk of the Corporation. The opposition ticket polled about six hundred votes, to about eleven hundred cast for the ticket that was elected.

SPORT.—There has been considerable discussion as to which is the quickest sailing yacht—the Viking of this city, or the Live Yankee of Newburyport. They are both nearly new, and of about eight tons each. In the regatta at Boston, a few days ago, the Yankee received the second prize, and the Viking was awarded the third, but refused it, and claimed to be entitled to the second. Since, at a trial near Newburyport, the Viking claims to have beaten; but we are told the owners of the Yankee are ready to match their boat against the Viking for from $1 to $5000, to sail off Portsmouth harbor, and it is reported that a race has been decided on for $100 a side. The Yankee is owned by Messrs. Davis and others, of Newburyport; the Viking by Mr. B. F. Martin, of this city.—Both are fine boats, and if the race comes off, there will be no little interest felt among the boating public here. The Viking was built and is sailed under the direction of Mr. Wm. C. Merrill, a skillful and famous boatman.

☞ Our attention was invited, the other day, to an immense, wide-spreading and handsome elm tree, standing on Winnicut Road, in Greenland, about half a mile in the rear of the fine farm of Capt. Geo. T. Ball. We were told that the trunk girths thirty feet, and that it is the largest tree in the State. A few yards from the ground, it divides off into three branches. One of these was split off in a gale, a few years since, and contained three or four cords of wood; and it is estimated that the whole tree would make at least thirteen cords;—we presume there is no immediate prospect of its being corded up, or down.

The handsomest elm we know of, is on the farm of Mr. John Fabyan, at Newington; and the finest linden tree we ever saw, stands in front of the old Gardner mansion, at the South End.

BIG EGGS.—Wm. De Rochemont, Esq., Post Master of Newington, has furnished us with four eggs, which weigh 13 ounces. They are the product of a breed of hens of only moderate size, dark brown color, with golden spots: not knowing the name, he says we may call them the Douglas breed.

Perhaps we shall not have a better opportunity to say that all eggs should be sold by weight; for surely a dozen such eggs as these are worth much more than eggs which only weigh a pound or 20 ounces per dozen.

☞ The hay crop in Massachusetts is said to be better than for several years. So says the Atlas of Tuesday.

In New Hampshire there have been some complaints and fears; but there is, at this moment, indication of a hay crop slightly less in quantity than last year, but of excellent quality. Corn looks much better now, than last year at this period; and an abundant crop of corn fodder is a valuable addition to hay.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A young girl was burnt to death in the street yesterday afternoon, in consequence of her clothes taking fire from a lighted cigar which had been thrown upon her in joke.

The inquest into the murder of Mrs. Schumaker resulted in charging the murder upon Henry Hoffman, a German, recently in the employ of Schumaker. When arrested, Hoffman had Schumaker's watch in his pocket.

The Great Eastern yesterday had nearly 3500 visitors.

The New York Sentinel, a new Douglas paper, appeared last evening.

LEAVENWORTH, July 9th.—Fourteen frame buildings on Delaware street, including the Times newspaper office, were burnt this morning. Loss $15,000. The fire was incendiary, and several arrests have been made.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—F. P. Blair, Jr., was to-day nominated by acclamation as the Republican candidate for Congress from this district.

NEW ORLEANS, July 9.—Twenty-one houses in the Fourth District were burnt yestercay.

GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,

Adapted to every variety of

FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for one year, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

RELIEF IN TEN MINUTES!!

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

The most certain and speedy remedy ever discovered for all Diseases of the CHEST AND LUNGS, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, Sore Throat, &c., &c.

These Wafers give the most instantaneous and perfect relief, and when persevered with according to directions, never fail to effect a rapid and lasting cure. Thousands have been restored to perfect health who have tried other means in vain. To all classes and all constitutions they are a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.

TO VOCALISTS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS, these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will in ONE DAY remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

CHARACTER VERSUS REPUTATION.—A New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier relates the following incident:

I saw a little incident on Broadway last week which changed my opinion of a man's character. The person in question is a very rich merchant, but he has the reputation of being very close and parsimonious. Stories of his meanness and parsimony are even yet told and repeated with gusto.—Well, I was standing talking to a friend when the aforesaid gentleman came along. There was a crippled beggar standing on the sidewalk. He was evidently not seen by the rich merchant.

"There," announced my companion, "did you see Mr. —— pass along and glance at the beggar?" "Yes," said I; "but he never gives anything to the poor." "You will see him," persisted my companion, "cross over on the other side of Broadway, come back by the beggar, and almost secretly give him something." We waited for a minute or two, when the supposed mean merchant did as my friend said he would.—He had often seen him do the same thing before. "That man," said I, then, "cannot be mean. He may not publish his charity to the world, but he has a heart to feel for the miseries of others, for which I never gave him credit. My opinion of him is hereafter changed. It is good to think better of our common race."

HOW TO GET REPOSE IN OLD AGE.—I strongly recommend you to follow the analogy of the body in seeking the refreshment of the mind. Everybody knows that both horse and man are very much relieved and rested, if, instead of lying down and falling asleep, or endeavoring to fall asleep, he changes the muscles he puts in operation; if, instead of level ground, he goes up and down hill, it is a rest both to the man walking and the horse which he rides—a different set of muscles is called into action. So, I say, call into action a different class of faculties, apply your minds to other objects of wholesome food to yourselves, as well as of good to others, and depend upon it, that is the true method of getting repose in old age. Do not overwork yourselves; do everything in moderation.—Lord Brougham.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—The Pennsylvania members of the National Douglas Committee have addressed a letter to the State Electors, demanding their position. It is intended by the friends of Douglas to call a State Convention to fill the vacancies on the electoral ticket.

☞ Daniel C. Bennett, a farmer, residing in Plainfield, Ct., was beaten to death by rowdies in Providence on the 4th.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of Law and Mechanical Works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very moderate charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.
Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—the astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION; No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that when you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for them. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD", $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.
This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.
As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.
It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.
Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!
Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.
Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.
Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy; remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.
During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.
All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,
Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it does what it is afforded to do, relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, GRIPES, SOUR STOMACH, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for softening the Gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or after Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.
Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S
PILLS & IRON.
An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, the only preparation of the United States and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innumerable ill maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION; SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a foreign land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous and nervous critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which no physician has yet found a name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old exciting, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is the latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent heetic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has alleyed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy, as a restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.
In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well repeated, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole of history of medicine, which exerts more prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

APHORISMS.

The end of life is the sun of truth dawning upon the real purpose of existence.

No man lives who has not his place to fill in the fabric of God's government, in earth and heaven.

The life of every individual is the desire of God, that He may rule in his own wisdom, looking with the eye of omniscience to the end to be attained.

Our thoughts of God's government are not with the telescopic vision of the great Author of all things, who knows the end from the beginning.

The interpretations of the secrets of nature lift the curtain only to reveal the beneficence of God in his arrangement of the law of progress.

The sense of right and wrong is the light and darkness of the soul in its intrinsic connection with God and heaven.

The true doctrines of life live in the heart and mind, but are not made the true purposes for the life to come. E. J. L.

PROTESTANTISM IN FLORENCE.—Theodore Trollope, in his letter to the London Atheneum dated Florence, June 4, says:

Various sects of Protestants are busily at work disseminating their doctrines, and exhorting the lower classes, lately so hoodwinked by priestly intolerance, to search the Scriptures, which are now freely distributed throughout the country, for themselves, to see "if these things be so, or no." Among these expounders of the gospel in Florence, is Alessandre Gavazzi, of European celebrity. The room in the Palazzo Quaratesi, in which he preaches to and prays with the people several times in the week, is always crowded with hearers, chiefly of the lower orders, on whom the powerful and simple eloquence of the preacher, rich in familiar illustrations, and skilfully pointed with the shrewd proverbs which the Tuscan so dearly loves, produces an immense impressions. A great number of the artisans, who, with their families, are constant attendants at these meetings, bring their Diodata Testaments in their pockets, for reference during the discourse; and I own to a strange feeling of wonder and unreality, when, issuing last week from one of such assemblies, I followed an earnestly-conversing group of fellow-hearers on their way down Via Larga, and caught scraps of their eager discussion respecting "free grace," and "justification by faith."

The Waldenses and the Italian Evangelical Churches have likewise their regular places of worship and week-day lectures, and I hear that the sect of Irvingites has opened a chapel here, and is making converts in no small numbers. In short, the present aspect of Italy, intellectual and moral, may be characterized by the statement that on every hand, and in every class, is springing up the lavish manifestation of an intense life, proportioned to the numbness and sterility of the centuries of death which went before."

"I beg you to allow me," says a correspondent of the London Times, "to ventilate in your columns a grievance under which I am half smothered every Sunday, and from which I see at present no prospect of relief. Ladies will persist in attending divine worship in crinoline. Pews hired out to accommodate four persons will, therefore, now barely contain two. I myself rent a couple of seats in our parish church, which I regularly attend with my little daughter. The other two are rented by some neighbors of mine—handsome, well-dressed, good-natured women, against whom I have nothing to say, save that they attire their persons from the waist downwards, in a sort of steel-ribbed apparatus, like a carriage umbrella inverted, over which acres of silks and muslins and ribbons are festooned. If they arrive before us they quite fill the pew, and my girl and myself are obliged to creep humbly in under their petticoats; it being quite as much as we can do to keep our heads above crinoline during the service. If we happen to come before them to church, they sit down upon us in the most remorseless way, swaggering and hoisting about their gig umbrellas in a manner which is most alarmingly disclosive of their legs, on which they take good care to put very decorative stockings, not, I presume, in order that they should not be looked at. I wish, sir, that you would urge the London clergy to insist that on Sundays, at least, all crinolines should be dowsed; or that ladies wearing them should henceforth be charged for their church accommodation by the cubic foot instead of by the sitting."

The annexation of Savoy and Nice to France has disconcerted many projects for pleasure campaigns. Nice is likely to lose its swarm of French fashionables by the very fact of its becoming a French city.—To a Parisian, it is not travelling at all to travel only in France. "I am going to Italy," "I have just returned from Italy." sounds very pleasant to the ear. "Doctor, where shall I spend the Summer?" asks an elegantly languid patient. "At Nice, madame; the climate has always proved beneficial to you." "But, doctor, you have always recommended an Italian sky, and Nice is now just the same as Toulon. I shall not go to Nice. I must have an Italian clime." It is all over with Nice as a place of Summer resort. No passports! no custom houses! One might as well stay at home.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my buggy against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald over since the tender youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color, since the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

LETTER FROM ILLINOIS.

Messrs. Editors:—I am daily more and more thankful for Seward's defeat. Since we have seen that letter (so fatal to him) that Greeley wrote him, we wish out here that it might have been the indignant editor that was the ruin of the ungrateful politician, but we think it was not. It was the work of the Republicans that came from the Albany Legislature, that conferred that blessing on the party and on the nation.—There gathered at Chicago two sets of men; one wanted the best man they could elect; the other wanted Seward. The former were not Seward's enemies; the latter included all that was corrupt in the Convention. Had they succeeded, immense sums would have corrupted editors, degraded the party, and in case of success would, we fear, have been replaced from the Treasury.

I do not think we rejoice particularly over Lincoln because he is from our State. We would have been glad of Chase, Wade, Bates, or Cassius Clay, but we think of all men possible, none could have been found against whom Douglas would not have run rather than Lincoln. And we do not think a man could be found who would make a more reliable President than Honest Abe. We do not count flat-boating and rail-mauling any credit to a man, but we feel sure that a man who has raised himself from these callings to the position that Lincoln now occupies, and has done it honestly, is no sham.

We do not feel as if we are to have much of a campaign. The Democrats, if they do not know whom to lie for, have known for a good while whom to lie against. They are slow; they do not do a tenth part of what they did four years ago. But Lincoln is a harder man to lie about than Fremont, because his life has been mostly spent right where the Democracy would hurt themselves by lying. Our opinion is that Douglas will not get one electoral vote, least of all be one of the highest three, should the election go to the House.

I would close here, did I not feel called by certain transactions in New Hampshire, to bear my most solemn protestations against the doctrine of rotation in office. No worse principle has ever pervaded the so-called Democratic party. It implies first that offices are to be allotted for the benefit of the appointees. This is wrong. The man should be selected for the office. And while the contrary course prevails, the nation must be badly served at home and abroad. In the second place, good men do not throw up business for offices of uncertain tenure, unless its remunerations are exorbitant, — seeing merit will not keep a man in nor misconduct greatly hasten his removal. Thirdly, men of tried honesty must soon give place to unknown successors. And lastly, important posts must be filled by inexperienced men.

Every where this is felt; no where more monstrously than in our foreign relations. No other legation, not even that of the smallest German principality stands lower, in general, than ours. And as at court ministers take rank according to the length of their residence, we generally keep ours where they naturally belong, near the bottom of the list.

But let me refer you to observations made abroad which express my opinions better than I now have time to. Will you please copy from Holton's New Granada the pages 165–167, reminding your readers at the time that the Mr. James S. Green there mentioned is now figuring in the U. S. Senate as file-leader of the Democracy.

I hope, in conclusion, that wherever Republicanism prevails, the faithful servants of the people will only be rotated from one office to another more responsible, even tho' the camp followers of the party, who serve only their own selfish ends, should desert in a body. Yours, LAWRENCE.

ONE OF THE VERDICTS.—A Charlottesville, Va., paper gives the following account of the murder of a slave by one Wash, an Overseer of Mr. Eugene Garth, near Gordonsville:—

The negro, after being severely whipped, was tied, hand foot, by the brutal Wash, and plunged, head downwards, into a hog-head of water, where he was held three-quarters of a minute. Upon being taken out, he died within three minutes.

An inquest was held, and the verdict of the jury was, "died of congestion of the brain."

The same paper adds:—

We read recently of another case, where a negro was punished in a neighboring county, and died within a minute or two afterwards. The verdict in the latter case was, "died of a combination of circumstances."

THE SLAVE TRADE FLOURISHING.—The anticipations of that ardent Douglasite, Mr. Gaulden of Georgia, for the speedy revival of the African slave-trade, are being realized. By a dispatch it appears that a cargo of fresh imported slaves has been landed at Mobile, Ala, and taken up the river for sale.

THE OLDEST PREACHER IN NEW ENGLAND.—In the town of Berlin, Vt., adjoining Montpelier, writes a correspondent of the Traveller, "lives the Rev. James Hobart, who is probably the most remarkable preacher in New England. He is now about entering the ninety-fifth year of his age, and the seventieth of his ministry; and still he is vigorous and active, preaching every Sunday when and wherever he can engage himself. Thirty years ago his people, over whom he had been the settled congregational minister since the settlement of the town, in about the year 1790, dismissed him, supposing he would not hold out much longer. Since then he has been preaching in New Hampshire and Vermont, on yearly, monthly and daily engagements. He is a great pedestrian, making nothing of walking a half dozen miles to preach and home again the same day. Two or three winters ago, he had received invitations to preach on a given Sunday in three different towns in a line from home; and of course the places of worship were many miles apart. But this did not discourage him.—He set out on foot early in the morning of the appointed Sunday, walked seven miles, preached a forenoon sermon, walked five miles more on to the next town, preached an afternoon sermon, and then walked on still five miles more to the third town, and preached his third sermon. A few weeks ago he had engaged to preach in Montpelier, but early in the morning his son came to town to tell us his father could not preach that day, as the afternoon before he had fallen twelve feet from the top of an apple tree, which he had mounted to remove some dead limbs. He, however, is now about again, and we are to have our promised sermon in a week or two."

Mr. Hobart is well known in this vicinity, having preached some time at Newcastle, Nottingham, and many other places in Rockingham County.

SELF-PROPELLING STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—The self-propelling steam fire engine "Niagara," built at the Novelty Iron Works, New York, was exhibited in Lowell Monday afternoon. The machine is very large, weighing, when filled with water and loaded with fuel, between five and six tons. She was tried with all sized nozzles, from one inch to an open butt of two and a half inches, and her playing gave complete satisfaction. The latter stream was forced upwards 150 feet. After the playing a carriage was attached, and the city government and others, to the number of nearly fifty, were treated to a ride around town.—The steamer was unable to take the load up a steep grade in Andover street, and subsequently broke her connecting rods and cylinder in attempting to go up a steep grade from Warren to George street. She has been known to travel at the rate of 22 miles an hour.

INDEPENDENCE SALUTE FROM A COOLIE SHIP.—The anniversary of the independence of the United States, on the 4th of July, was celebrated at Havana by a salute from the American ship Kitty Simpson, and by numerous dinners, which were all satisfactorily attended by the resident Americans.

[The Kitty Simpson is an American Coolie ship just arrived from Macao. Several of the Coolies were shot down on the passage while attempting to regain their liberty.]—Traveller.

Every reader will see the incongruity of salutes for freedom and shootings down for attempts to be free. It is the irrepressible conflict.

DISTRESSING CASE OF SUICIDE.—The wife of Samuel Scripture of Milford, N. H., drowned herself Tuesday morning in the river at that place. Her husband had been detected early in the day in the act of robbing the ticket master's drawer at the railroad depot; and on learning the fact, together with a confession from him that he had been stealing in this way for a year or more, she committed the fatal act. Her body was recovered. During the excitement, Scripture made off, but officers are on his track, and he will doubtless be found.

LAGER BEER.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Express recommends lager beer as a splendid article for promoting the growth of flowers. He poured a bottle of bear upon a fuschia, and thus describes the effect:

On the morning after, the tuschia was in full bloom, and attributing the extraordinary rapidity of this efflorescence to the vital force of the beer, he imparted the secret to all of his acquaintances. There has since been a great demand for lager "to pour upon flowers."

A LADY IN A BALLOON.—Not hoops—we don't mean them, which all the dear creatures blow about in—but one day last week, Mr. King (who made the successful ascension at the Dover, N. H. State Fair, two years ago, (went up in the balloon Queen of the Air, from Boston, and took his sister with him. They went up about two miles, (more than twice the height of Mt. Washington,) and landed safely at Lexington, Mass.

☞ The attempt of the authorities in New York to stop the Germans from drinking lager beer on Sunday, is not successful. Mynheer still imbibes his favorite compound.

FOWLER, THE DEFAULTER.

There are some curious proceedings of the United States government in relation to the defalcation of Mr. Fowler, the New York postmaster. There are some strong grounds for the belief that Mr. Fowler was a defaulter when his bond was executed, and the default known to the department, but concealed for party purposes. The bondsmen, therefore, resist the order given by the government to attach their property, and ask that an injunction may be granted restraining the United States Marshal from levying on their property. Judge Betts, of the United States Court, after a hearing, has granted the request, thus showing that, in his opinion, there are reasonable grounds of belief that the bond is not valid. We gather the following from the N. Y. Times in relation to this matter:

It appears that when Fowler was first appointed, he furnished an official bond in the sum of $50,000, signed by himself, with George Law, Gustavus A. Conover, and Oliver Charlick, as sureties. On his reappointment, it became necessary for him to file a new bond, which he did, in the sum of $75,000. This bond had four seals affixed to it, but was signed only by Fowler, Law and Conover, Charlick's name nowhere appearing in it. On his defalcation being brought to light, the Government took steps to collect the amount of the bond from the sureties, who thereupon applied to the Court for an injunction to stop such proceedings, informing the Court that they only gave the bond to Fowler upon the express agreement that Charlick also should sign it, and claiming that, as he did not, they were not liable for anything. And Judge Betts holds it as well established law that, if they can establish before a jury that they never consented to the delivery of the bond to the United States in its present shape, but only gave it to Fowler to get Charlick's signature, they are not liable to the bond, and he grants an injunction to stay the Government's proceedings until that question is determined.

There is, however, another point where some useful information at least may be arrived at by means of this case. Law and Conover say that at the time they executed the bond, in September, 1858, Fowler was already a defaulter to an amount exceeding the bond,—that this was known to the Post Office Department, which concealed it from them, and thus worked a fraud upon them, which vitiates the bond. Judge Betts has ordered them to try this question also before a jury, and if counsel are astute and preservering, the public may learn by the examination of witnesses who is responsible for the long concealment of that defalcation, which they did not learn from the report of the Postmaster General.

HOMESTEAD BILL.—A writer in the Exeter News Letter says:—

As if one more desperate act was necessary to sink to a lower depth, Mr. Buchanan's popularity, and kill all hopes of either Douglas or Breckinridge, and so ensure the election of Lincoln and Hamlin, the President has vetoed the Senate's Homestead bill,—and that of the house; the House only accepting this bill as better than nothing, and which passed the Senate with but two dissenting votes. The doubtful States, so long considered, are doubtful no longer.—Democracy in any shape will no longer be tolerated. Mr. Buchanan says Congress has no right to give away the public lands! yet millions of acres have been almost every year given to new Territories, for railroads, and to soldiers; but by this very bill a small compensation is required, with a few years residence, and improvements. The speculators who have bought up soldiers' warrants, can afford to pass to him a vote of thanks.

AFFECTING MEMENTO.—We learn by a gentleman of this city who has recently returned from Nova Scotia, that among the articles brought up from the wreck of the Hungarian by the submarine operator, was a card of a young lady, one of the passengers, who perished on the fatal night of the wreck, on the back of which was written in pencil in a firm hand—"Lizzie dies to-night!"—Bangor (Me.) Times.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—Chicago, July 10.—On Thursday last, Rev. Mr. Nichols, wife and child, Mr. Cleveland, wife and two daughters, and a brother-in-law, of Minneapolis, while bathing in Calhoun lake, got beyond their depth, and all but Mr. Nichols and an infant daughter of Mrs. Cleavland were drowned.

AN UNLUCKY CANNON.—Cincinnati, July 10.—Two men were severely injured in Georgetown on the Fourth by the premature discharge of a cannon which they were firing. At the Douglas meeting on the 7th, the same cannon, being prematurely discharged, killed W. J. Onsley and wounded A. J. Bailey.

NEW YORK, July 10.—It is now expected that Mrs. Shoemaker will live, but never regain her reason.

The number of visitors to the Great Eastern is increasing. There were 6000 visitors to-day.

SUDDEN DEATH.—In Byfield, Monday night, Ivory Foss died suddenly, aged 25.—He retired in his usual health, but about half past his room mate was awakened by hearing him breathe unnaturally, and by the time a light was obtained he had expired.—Newburyport Herald.

The old "Wallace Saw Mill" at Henniker, belonging to Mr. George Courser, was burned July 4th. J. E. Livingston, of the same town, a deaf mute, lost a finger on that day, by the accidental discharge of a pistol.

An Indian and a white man were passing along Broadway, when the former espied a window full of wigs, and pointing to the owner who was standing in the door-way, said:—"Ugh! him great man—big brave—take many scalps!"

An English paper advertises, for sale, "a perfect lady's horse." We don't care about the horse, but the perfect lady would be worth having.—Traveller.

☞ The legislative committee of Massachusetts on the cattle disease were somewhat piqued with Dr. Bigelow, because he would not give a positive opinion in regard to the disease. The Doctor replied to their persistent catechizing as follows: "It is well known that there is as much error in medical science as there is in theological or political science; a great deal of it is matter of opinion, and not of positive, demonstrable fact."

☞ The Boston correspondent of the Springfield Republican says:—

"The South Malden cow, of which there is a good deal said in the evidence taken before the legislative committee, has been killed, and was found to have the horn-ail. She was purchased of Chenery last July, and did not begin to be sick until seven months afterwards, and this was considered an important fact, as showing that the period of "incubation" of the disease was very long, and therefore that there was 'no knowing' but it might break out in a thousand places two or three months hence. I am informed that the price paid for this cow is $75. It is believed that at this rate the horn-ail pneumonia will prevail quite extensively. Its contagiousness is supposed to be in proportion to the price; a singular scientific fact."

A letter directed to the Bangor Post Office from Monhegan, says the cows are all dying at the latter place. As Monhegan is an island, probably there have been no importations of cattle to it, and if it is a fact that the cattle disease prevails there, it proves that it is not only contagious, but epidemic.—Evening Courier.

Do not be alarmed, Doctor, the disease cannot spread very extensively on Monhegan, for we learn from our Eastern exchanges that there is but one old cow on the Island.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ Several students are under arrest at Loudon, N. H., charged with breaking into the Baptist Church at that place on the 4th inst., and riotously acting therein.

THE ANNIVERSARIES.

New York city is filled with our "country cousins," who have come hither to spend "Anniversary Week"—"Women's Rights" and every "ism" of the day, is represented. Speeches are delivered, reports read, money collected, and sometimes, in debate, sharp language indulged in. Many come merely for the fun of the thing; others because they are in earnest; and this heterogeneous mass of combustible material affords great amusement to the outsiders, or lookers on. Some of our rustic friends, however, know how to make their expenses and return home richer than when they came. They simply enclose $2.50, $5.00 or $10.00, to Messrs. Wood, Eddy & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, or St. Louis, Missouri, for a chance in one of their splendid legalized lotteries, and draw a prize. You can do the same.

OXYGENATED BITTERS,

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer from a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief; and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing remedy for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON and for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 8wdkw

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Humor, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 26, 1835.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

LINCOLN AND HAMLIN!

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Republicans, and all others who wish for a change in our National Government, are requested to meet at the Court House THIS (Thursday) EVENING, July 12th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing for the Presidential election.

For order of the Republican Committee.

☞ The luck of fishermen this season, thus far, has been but moderate; and one vessel from this district, we are sorry to say, seems to be missing, though all hopes are not yet given up.

The schooner Nile, Capt. Samuel Batson, of New Castle, sailed about the middle of April to the Banks of Newfoundland. She was in company of two other schooners, and parted from them in a storm. She has not been seen or heard of since, and fears are entertained that she went down with all on board. Her crew was composed of nine persons, eight of whom, including the captain, reside in New Castle. The other is Mr. Thomas Powell, of Portsmouth, who is married. The captain and one other New Castle man are married. The remainder are young men.

WANTED, at the Chronicle Office, a couple of copies of the Daily Chronicle of Monday, June 18th, to complete our regular office files. Any person having them to spare, would confer a great favor on us, and shall receive any other reasonable compensation they may desire, on leaving them at our counting-room immediately.

☞ The United States sloop-of-war Macedonian, Commander U. P. Levy, arrived in this harbor on Wednesday afternoon, from the Mediterranean Squadron, and anchored below. She was built, as a frigate, in 1836, and at a later period cut down to a sloop-of-war.

A DURABLE METALLIC PEN.—We write this item with a very smooth and pleasant pen, called De Wolf's Copper and Errodeum Pen, which promises to be very durable—as it is said not to corrode like the steel pen. It can be bent back into place, if accidentally injured, so as to be fit for use. For sale in Exeter by Mr. J. W. Moulton. See advertisement.

☞ We learn, from the Exeter News Letter, that the dwelling house, barn, and wood house, with a part of the furniture, belonging to Simon E. Dow, in Seabrook, were destroyed by fire early on the morning of the 5th inst. Origin of the fire unknown. Insured for $875.

The manufacturing establishments of New England for the past six months have been doing a profitable business. In many of them the profits foot up from 10 to 20 per cent., but as a general thing only from 3 to 5 per cent., is divided among the stockholders, the balance being held to make good previous loses, or to swell their working capital. The New York Economist says "that in the leading fabrics produced in this country the trade is rapidly passing exclusively into the hands of our own manufacturers; and the dry goods jobbers are showing a preference for home fabrics, as shown in the fact they are buying more freely of domestic woolens than of imported.'" American cotton goods are increasing in demand in the foreign markets, and the exports from Boston and New York last week, were about 5000 bales, valued at about half a million of dollars. The decrease in the imports at New York since the 1st of January has been $3,300,000, as compared with the same period in 1859. The exports of produce and general merchandise from the same port show an increase of $9,400,000 over the corresponding period of last year. The exports of cotton last week were $344,265, against $158,264 in 1859. The exports of specie and bullion show a decline of $13,750,000 as compared with the corresponding period in 1859.

JEROME BONAPARTE.—The Press has extensively noticed the death of Jerome Bonaparte, the last of Napoleon's brothers, who deceased in June. They omit very generally to state that from boyhood he was remarkable for nothing but fast and voluptuous living. In private and public life, in the navy and in the army—as a subject and a king, he came as near to being nothing as any body could and live.—He will be remembered for no virtue of which the public have knowledge, and the only reason we have to believe that he possessed any virtue of which the public had no knowledge, is the affectionate regard of his wife, (his second wife) who clung to him in misfortune, and refused to listen to all appeals from her royal father to abandon him when the Bonapartes were in disgrace. As weak as he was, however, he was selected as the line through which power was to descend, in failure of issue to Louis Napoleon, though he was the youngest of the family.—Newburyport Herald.

LUSUS NATURÆ.—Mr. David Worthen, of Salisbury Point, exhibited to his neighbors a few days ago, a little kitten, which is now dead, having six perfectly developed legs and two tails. Four of the legs were hind legs, one pair of which were directly in front of the other, but without connection. The tails were side by side, of equal length and size, though distinct. What seemed strangest of all was, that the kitten had a single, and perfectly formed body. Could the life of this kit have been preserved, the fortune of some Barnum would have been secured, perhaps.—Villager.

☞ The sweetness of affection, like any other sweet, may become sour. Sad indeed is it for a family, when its urn of love is transformed into a mere vinegar cruse.

☞ The Breckinridge men in Newburyport, have a numerously signed petition to Gen. Cushing, Dr. Loring, and Enoch S. Williams, Esq., to address them in that city. Gen. Cushing reached home on Saturday, and the meeting will probably come off at an early day.

☞ At a meeting of New Jersey Douglas Democrats, in Newark, all plans of union with the Breckinridge party were voted down by a strong majority.

There are 5930 children attending the Sabbath Schools in connection with Congregational societies in Hillsborough county—a slight decrease from last year.

"Don't give me any more emetics," said Pat to his physician; "they do me no good; I have taken two already, and neither of them would stay upon me stomach."

Visitors to Rye Beach, who desire a pleasant, quiet stopping place, can find it at

THE WASHINGTON HOUSE.

It is not our business to make a show, and tax a great price for it; but to have a nice, quiet place, where our friends can stop a few hours or a few weeks, and enjoy the Sea Shore and the many other good things of life, at a very moderate expense;—and not be annoyed by the thousand evils that exist in consequence of the liquor trade. We solicit the encouragement of our friends, and trust they will be interested in sustaining ONE TEMPERANCE HOUSE on the sea coast. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Invalids who wish to come to the Beach for their health, will find it a very good place, being quiet and near the sea.

Price of board: From $4 to $7 per week.

Visitors to the Beach can take Coaches at Exeter, North Hampton, or Greenland Depots, or a private Carriage will be sent on request. Good opportunities for pleasure riding, sailing and fishing. C. LEAVITT & N. L. THOMPSON, Rye Beach, June 11, 1860. Proprietors.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE
ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

COOKING GREEN PEAS.—"Sosie" of Michigan furnishes a receipe for cooking green peas. It is as follows:—

Take the peas when full in the pod, nice and green. When shelled wash the pods thoroughly; put them in the dinner pot; cover, or nearly so, with water, then cover tight, and boil until tender; skim them out,put your peas into the broth, and boil from twenty to thirty minutes; then season with sweet cream, salt and pepper, to the taste.

The Douglas Democrats of Hartford held a ratification meeting on Tuesday night in the National Hall. By common count, there were not 300 Democrats, out of the 3000 in Hartford, present, John C. Palmer, Esq., presided. The meeting was addressed by Col. Richardson of Illinois, who was mortified at the paucity of numbers present—and took the earliest train South, after the meeting was over. General Pratt, who was announced to speak at the meeting, did not appear; but a Mr. West, a young lawyer from out in Tolland county, made a sophomorical "flyer," and undertook to castigate the Hartford Times, when he was informed by the audience that he must confine his abuse to Black Republicanism—and wisely took the hint.—New Haven Register.

☞ A clergyman, whose wife was a blonde, thus consoled the prospective widow:—

My fair one, my fair one, alas! it appears
That the doctor my speedy departure announces;
And you ask yourself wildly, with eyes full of tears,
If your first mourning dress shall be plain, or with flounces.

For evils like these let your dark women care,
'Tis for them on the terrors of mourning to dwell;
It makes them look dingy. But you who are fair
Will soon be consoled, black becomes you so well.

BLOOD.

the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its astonishing effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a uniform saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a one of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

It combines all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in cleaning the system from disease, extracted and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that no one is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IN THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full acquaintance with patent laws of the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, re here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, or more capable of judging of their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
DAVID BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is not pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to secure their rights, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and cures are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the different states of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inclining to CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD.", $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure arthrum.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirits three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual system, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts. $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those who about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

Having Proof so Strong and Direct

Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions and disease on the skin and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surfaces of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription tried.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully
T. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, in which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew on quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.
The large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1860.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

JUNCTION CITY, Kansas, July 2.

Messrs. Editors:—It is very easy for a Western man to imagine his own "city" the true centre and mart of the whole country for a few hundred miles around; though the stern facts may force him to admit that this marvellous importance is only prospective. The inevitable consequence is that with all the high-sounding titles and pretensions of Don Quixote himself, our embryo cities are struggling out to greatness. It must be confessed, however, that many of them might adopt very fitly the same name by which Don Quixote proposed that himself should be known—"the knight of the sorrowful figure."

Nothing can be more forlorn than the aspect of a thriftless Western town, sans paint, sans whitewash, sans everything, save some weather-browned shanties strung along, with a fringe of idle men listlessly waiting to get rich by selling town lots to new comers, who are equally eager to get rich.

I was much edified one day, while passing through from Leavenworth to Topeka, by the hopeful, exulting language of a little urchin at one of the stopping-places of the stage line. By the most careful scrutiny, your correspondent was able to discover only a log-building, which had been devoted to the "grocery" business, and the shed in which the stage horses were accustomed to repose after the fatigues of the day. This might be supposed to be a scene calculated to exert a dampening influence over the expectations of our little urchin. Not so.—With a dilated eye and an ardor beyond his years, he very gratuitously informed me that "everybody was coming here," with much relating to the town and a spring of water, which, as thirst impelled, I found by a long and devious path. There is no doubt but that spring, in his eyes, had long before assumed the form of a lake, and the little rill that trickled away from it had swollen to a river, and the rustling of the bushes around sounded like the rattle of mills, and the croaking of the frogs seemed the bold cry of news-boys, and the glitter of fire-flies at night the glare of street lamps, till our little fellow had at last persuaded himself that he was in the midst of a great manufacturing city, and might one day become its mayor. What bliss there is in dreams!

Now conceive of a city in every particular unlike the one described, and you have "Junction City," the future inland metropolis of Kansas, and destined to share largely in the trade of New Mexico and Pike's Peak. No town in Kansas, except Atchison, is so alive with improvements, and those of a substantial character, too. Situated at the junction of the Republican and Smoky Hill rivers, and only three miles from Fort Riley, a post of considerable importance, its prosperity is a fixed fact.

The limestone bluffs that extend about the elevated plain on which the town is situated, are full of the best building stone.—This has been extensively used. The land offices are built of it. The same material is being used in the erection of St. John's (Episcopal) Church, which is going up on a pleasant elevation near the public square. This parish is the earliest religious organization in this place, and is the westernmost station of the Episcopal Church in Kansas, if we except Pike's Peak. The Episcopal Church now occupies every important town from this junction of the Republican and Smoky Hill rivers, eastward through the valley of the Kaw, to where that stream unites with the Missouri.

The recent vote of the people has decided in favor of Junction City for the county seat of Davis county. This brings business and prestige, which is half the battle in the case of Western towns.

But this calls up a horrible murder which was committed on the night succeeding the election. Two men who had been actively interested for this place, but were citizens of Riley City, (a sort of sink-like appendage to the Fort,) were found dreadfully disfigured amid the ruins of the house where they lived. It is certain that the men were murdered and the house fired. One of them was a Justice of the Peace. His body was found twenty feet from the bed. His pocket-book, with about $40, was found not far off; and an axe, which was outside the evening previous, was found in the ashes. The examination has brought out no circumstances to fasten the guilt upon anybody; and no earthly courts can compel the charred and mangled visages of the murdered men to give the faintest hint of the manner in which they were changed from rosy life to the ghastliest form of death.

Yours, WESTWARD.

☞ Mr. Sumner spoke in New York Wednesday evening. An immense gathering, including a numerous attendance of ladies, assembled at the Cooper Institute to hear him. The Hon. Abijah Mann presided. Mr. Sumner was received with deafening applause, and spoke for about two hours.

☞ Many democratic papers have given publicity to the following paragraph:

"The Springfield Republican, which has probably more influence in the party than any other paper in New England, says: 'Republicanism is so dead that as a party, we really lack the stimulus to a healthy excitement.'"

What the Republican did say is contained in the following paragraph:—"The Democratic party is so dead here, and everything but Republicanism is so dead, that as a party, we really lack the stimulus to a healthy excitment."

What paper first started this trick is not known,—but the smallness of it shows the scarcity of ammunition in that camp.

☞ In New York July 11, Ex-Councilman Kerrigan, now Clerk of Police Court, encountered Alderman Genet in the Park, and drew a pistol upon him, but other parties drew Kerrigan away, enabling Genet to escape. Kerrigan had previously given notice of his intention to shoot Genet, who, with a Councilman, is said to have induced a sister of Kerrigan's and another lady to take a sail in a yacht on the East River, and attempted violence upon them. The loud screams of the ladies attracting attention, they landed them and sailed rapidly away.

Other officials are also rumored to have attempted intercession, the friends of the parties concerned in the attempted outrage, pleading as an excuse intoxication at the time. A bloody sequel to the affair is anticipated.

An article having the title of "Valuable Relic" is going the rounds of the public papers, describing a snuff-box, given by Charles Second to Sir. William Pepperell, after the capture of Louisburg. Unfortunately for the story, Charles Second died before Sir William Pepperell was born, and at least sixty years before the capture of Louisburg.—Atlas.

The story, however, is true, so far as the snuff box is concerned. The only error in it is, that it should have been said, George the Second, and not Charles. The article was from the Portsmouth Journal, and the error was corrected in the Chronicle, by the writer of it.

VOTE OF NEW YORK.—The Tribune calls attention to the fact that in 1848, when the democracy split on Cass, the democratic vote was nearly equally divided between Cass and Van Buren, Cass having 114,378 votes, and Van Buren 120,510, the latter including several thousand abolition votes. Five years afterwards, in 1853, when the party again split, the Hard Shells whose vote corresponded to that for Cass, threw 95,529 votes, while the Soft vote, corresponding to that of Van Buren, was 96,698. The Tribune thinks that now again, when the party has divided on Douglas and Breckinridge, the dividing line will a third time run right through the middle of the party.

☞ The Douglasites have raised a large and handsome "Douglas & Johnson" flag over Daniel street in this city, near Market Square—so that the most prominent objects which greet the eye of visitors to the city now, are the Republican and Democratic banners. These are the two chief standards under which the people (the politicians) are to rally in this Presidential campaign; although it is reported that there are others named in some sections—for instance, for one Bell, which is said to lack the true ring; and a Lane, which will hardly be found long enough to "have a turn in it," and a Break'n-the-bridge, on which none can safely lean.

The new Douglas flag is hung rather low—and the Republicans say it will trail lower yet before they are done with it, while the Democrats say they will raise it so high that it will eclipse the Republican and all other "sectional" banners. We shall see what we shall see.

☞ A singular mortality seems to prevail among the three cargoes of negroes at Key West. Not only do those reduced and attenuated by disease drop off, but it is hinted that the healthy and robust are disappearing in rather a suspicious proportion. One hundred and ninety-nine are said to have been buried, and it is said that that number of coffins have been deposited in the earth; but the question arises whether each one of them contained a defunct negro.

☞ During the recent fighting in Catania, Sicily, one of the nuns shot from her window numbers of the royal troops. She fired with the precision of an Alpine huntsman, never missing. The colonel ordered his men to fire in platoons, repeatedly against the windows, but in vain. The heroine remained unscathed, and still kept firing away, killing her man with every shot.

☞ The Supreme Judicial Court, at an adjourned session, for the trial of the action, Bassett vs. the Amesbury Manufacturing Company, the famous flowage case, and the Will of Dr. Dearborn, commenced its session on Tuesday last, Justice Doe presiding. The trial of the first action will probably consume a fortnight, as it has in several trials before.

NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.—The most careful readers of the Scriptures have sometimes remarked that no matter how carefully or how frequently they have studied the Bible, they are sure to find something new—that is, new to them, of course, because the thought was there from the beginning, and their minds only became gradually prepared to discover it.—The lesson is constantly enforced, in this way, that man is very much the same as formerly, and that the same things happen to the race now as in former times. But we were scarcely preprared to find so close a description of the claims of the Republican candidate to distinction as we see in Paslm, 74 v. 6:—"A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees."—Courier.

This will do very well for the Courier, but we have something worth two of it.—Gen. 17, 5: "Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be Abraham, for a father of many Nations [States] have I made thee."—Boston Jour.

ORDINATION.—South Braintree, July 11. The ordination of Edward C. Town, pastor elect of the Braintree Free Church, took place to day. This is a new, liberal and independent church, its members coming from the Unitarian, Universalist Orthodox and Baptist societies. It starts with fine prospects. Dr. Hedge preached the sermon, Rev. A. B. Fuller made the ordination prayer, Rev. C. O. Shackford gave the charge to the pastor elect,—the Rev. J. F. Clark the right hand of fellowship, and Dr. Bartol the address to the people.

These ministers, who took parts, are all Unitarians, and some of them also Universalists in opinion.

OCTOROONS IN A VIRGINIA COURT.—At a recent session of the Alexandria County Court, two men of mixed blood appeared before the Court, and having proved themselves to be Octoroons, or possessing but one-eighth negro blood, asked the Court to certify that they were not negroes.

The Court having heard the evidence, granted the certificate asked for. The object of this process is to release the parties applying from the obligation and penalties attached to free negroes by the laws of that Commonwealth.

CALIFORNIA.—New York, July 12.—Steamship North Star, with one day's later advices from California, and $1,500,000 in treasure, has arrived.

Additional advices from Oregon indicate the election of the Democratic candidate for Congress by 75 majority. The Legislature is still conceded to the coalition.

Brewster & Co. have confessed judgment for $100,000. Raymond & Co. have also failed; liabilities $25,000.

Business is dull, and money abundant at unchanged rates.

UNSOPHISTICATED.—A few evenings ago, a blooming damsel from the country, accompanied by her swain, entered one of the principal dry good stores in Ottaway, Canada, for the purpose of buying some marriage fittings, and amongst the various articles of finery selected, was a set of "hoops," which she very coolly proceeded to put on, amidst the tittering of the clerks and about a dozen lady customers, who of course hid their faces and blushed not a little, while the fair damsel herself made several fruitless attempts to get them "hitched" on, finally had to give it up in despair, and departed with them under her arm, evidently with the intention of finding some more appropriate place for adjusting crinoline.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Senate Printer, on Monday, delivered to the binder ten thousand of the three hundred thousand copies of the Agricultural part of the Patent Office report ordered by the House. Twenty thousand more will ready in a few days. There is no truth in the report that the Printer of the House had suspend operations, as the Attorney General has not yet rendered an opinion on the proper construction of the law reducing the prices.—Thirty thousand copies of the report of the Covode Committee will be ready in a few days.

A gentleman who left New York for Europe just before the meeting of the Baltimore Convention, gave one of our most eminent portrait painters a commission to paint a portrait of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, let him be whom he might; but the puzzled artist is now in a quandary, as he does not know which of the two candidates to paint, whether Douglas or Breckinridge.

☞ A difficulty has arisen among the stockholders of the Kentucky Statesman, the democratic organ at Lexington, Ky.—The majority of them are for Mr. Douglas, while the editor supports Mr. Breckinridge.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The U. S. Agricultural Society will be held at Cincinnati, commencing Sept. 12, and continuing to the 10th. The premium list amounts to $20,000. No cattle will be received on account of the pleuro-pneumonia, but large premiums will be offered for horses, machinery, steam fire engines, &c.

A DOUBLE MURDER.—Brownsville, Min., July 10.—A man named James Riley, while intoxicated, killed his mother-in-law, sister-in-law, and attempted to kill his father-in-law with a bowie knife. He was pursued by the people, but escaped.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The Breckinridge State Convention to-day passed a resolution recommending each county and senatorial district to present a full ticket for the ensuing election.

An Alabama editor tries to be very severe upon an old volume of the Louisville Journal that he had found. "Cease, viper, you bite a file." Prentice, of course.

Jeannette Palisier walked out of a chamber window in New York, and was instantly killed. Supposed somnambulism.

☞ Washington Market, New York, was burnt on Wednesday night.

GREENLAND.—One of the finest towns in New England, is that so appropriately named Green-land, N. H., beautifully situated next west of Portsmouth, and bordering in large part on Great Bay and its tributary streams. The soil is generally of good quality, and is divided into fine farms; the diversity of surface into hill and valley, affording eligible sites for tasty "gentlemen's residences" or substantial farm-houses; while the numerous orchards, gardens, groves and large shade trees, presents one of the most agreeable landscapes, whether viewed from a neighboring eminence, or enjoyed when riding over its excellent roads. The aggregate wealth of the inhabitants reaches a large amount—and consists of the domains of well-to-do tillers of the soil, or gentlemen retired from business, who have the good sense to appreciate the luxury of a rural life.

Among the many fine farms and residences most to be noticed as you pass along, are those of the Messrs. March, Col. J. W. Peirce, Capt. Parrott, Mr. Penhallow, Moses Mann, Esq., Albert Blaisdell, Esq., Capt. Geo. T. Ball, and others. Col. Peirce, as is well known, has one of the largest and best farms in New Hampshire, and the location and surroundings of his fine large mansion are rarely surpassed for beauty.

The March estate is also very large, and the grounds near the house delightfully attractive. Great improvements have been made here within the past year; including the building of an elegant granite wall along the road, at a cost, it must be, of many thousands of dollars, and the erection of a fine green-house and grapery. Riding by, a few days ago, we paused a moment to return the polite salutation of our old communicative friend Bunning, the flori-culturist,—under whose charge the grounds were literally beginning to blossom as the rose,—to enter; and spent a half hour most agreeably in rambling about with our intelligent host, who in the absence of the hospitable proprietors of the premises, does the honors most graciously. This fine estate is an old heirloom in the March family; and a tomb recently rebuilt of cut granite, bears the inscription, "Built by Clement March 1758, rebuilt by Clement and Charles W. March 1853."

The residence of Capt. Parrott, near the C. & P. Railroad Station, is after the French chateau order, and with its fine lawn and large shade trees, is one of the most beautiful and inviting-looking places to be seen anywhere. Capt. P. also owns the premises on the corner nearly opposite, and is building a very handsome and substantial granite wall. We don't remember any place which can excel Greenland in stone fences.

The beautiful residences of Messrs. Penhallow and Mann, adjoining each other, on the Parade, in front of the hotel, are the admiration of all passers. That of Mr. Blaisdell, probably the finest house in all this region, is situated on the road to Breakfast Hill — and many of the numerous friends of the hospitable occupants in this city, can testify to the open-handed welcome always extended to visitors there.—The farm of Capt. Ball, near Stratham, presents as you pass, an extremely neat and flourishing appearance, which is more than justified on a stroll through the fine premises—where complete and judicious husbandry is bespoken in every arrangement.

We took our pen mostly to thank Mr. Bunning for a beautiful bunch of flowers; and have unwittingly run out rather at length in our expressions of admiration for Greenland's attractions. There are many other fine farms here, some perhaps equally worthy of mention with those named; but we have no further time or room to continue the subject now—and besides we have spoken of those with which we are best acquainted.

We advise every body who can, to take a ride or a walk in that vicinity now. The fields are as beautiful as in June, and the new mown hay adds its fragrance and beauty to the scene. The Bay Road, which you can take on the way home from Dimans, is picturesque and delightful in the extreme.

☞ At Mr. Rogers' Nurseries in Kittery, we saw, a few days since, a splendid display of Roses—and a gentleman visiting the grounds, who had recently been at the principal gardens of Philadelphia and New York, said he had nowhere seen so rich an assortment. The roses have now no doubt passed their prime; but Mr. Rogers' show of other flowers is unusually large and fine. Quite a numerous party of ladies and gentlemen, from Portsmouth, walked over, a few days since, and came back laden with sweets like the bee, both in tangible form and also imbued with the breath of fragrant flowers. All who enjoy the beautiful in nature, ought to make this trip at least once.

The Vice President has concluded to defer his visit to California for the present.

So we should think. His jig seems to be up, in Oregon and California.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Chesley's Hall in Rye, on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

☞ Charles H. Bell, Esq., of Exeter, the universally popular Speaker of the New Hampshire House of Representatives at their late session, was presented by the members with an elegant gold-headed cane. He is worthy to bear a golden wand; but long may it be ere he needs the aid of this staff, save as an ornament.

☞ The schooner H. E. Bishop, Capt. Amazeen, took a large party to the Shoals on Thursday. The excursion was gotten up by members of the Brodhead M. E. Society, and was accompanied by the Portsmouth Cornet Band. They had a good breeze, and enjoyed themselves of course—though some of them were a little sea-sick.

☞ In our item concerning fast yachts, a few days ago, we should have said the Live Yankee took the first prize in the Boston regatta, and the Viking was awarded the third but claimed the second. The Yankee was drafted and modelled by Mr. Wm. Fernald of Newburyport, who is now building a bark at the Raynes yard.

☞ We have been shown a monstrous hen's egg—an egg almost big enough for a hungry man's dinner; and it was laid by one of the quietest and most unobtrusive "biddies" in the city. There are hundreds of "biddies" that can cackle louder, but few that do half so much to cackle about. This is the way with some persons in our city at the present time. REP.

☞ We are indebted to one of our South End subscribers, Mr. Nathan P. Martin, for a tempting bunch of the largest and finest strawberries we ever saw—from his garden. Their actual fragrance is equal to the odor of the courtesy and kindness which remembers us thus.

A Highlander, who sold brooms, went into a barber's shop in Glasgow to get shaved. The barber bought one of his brooms, and after having shaved him asked the price of it.

"Tippance," said the highlander.

"No, no," said the shaver; "I'll give you a penny, and if that does not satisfy you, take your broom again."

The highlander took it and asked what he had to pay.

"A penny," says Strap.

"I'll gie ye a baubee," says Duncan, "and if that dinna satisfy ye, put on my beard again."

☞ James Lougherty, a barkeeper, was stabbed in New York by Barney McAtee, and seriously wounded, for refusing to trust him for a glass of liquor.

☞ An unknown man was found floating in Harlem river Wednesday morning. It is supposed that he was robbed and then murdered.

☞ A great Douglas meeting was held in Albany, N. Y. Wednesday evening;—and a great Republican meeting at the same time in Bath, Me.

☞ Over five thousand persons visited the Great Eastern Wednesday. Excursion trains commence.

"What was the use of the eclipse?" asked a young lady. "Oh, it gave the sun time for reflection," replied a wag.

☞ Mr. & Mrs. Douglas are to visit Cambridge at Commencement.

☞ Mrs. Schoonmaker died in New York Tuesday evening from her wounds.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1885.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER,

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—The two-mile trot between Patchen and Flora Temple, this afternoon, was decided in favor of Flora. The first heat was won by Patchen in 4:51 1-2. The second heat commenced with a false start, but the horses continued around the track amidst the shouts of the excited multitude. It was won by Flora in 5 1-2. Patchen broke several times, but on coming up the home stretch nearly lapped Flora, when ruffians rushed upon the track and threw clubs and hats at the driver of Patchen, who was then withdrawn, amid great excitement. There were 3000 persons present.

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE

DR. TOWNSEND'S

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

IS THE GREAT RENOVATOR OF THE BLOOD.

This compound is the superior remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a unfirm alimentary diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will rouse the torpid, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the ingredients are judiciously compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

RENOVATING & PURIFYING THE BLOOD

It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in clearing the system from disease, assisting, and combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, what we know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the sufficiency of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and vigor to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the novelty and utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished for Ten One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, save the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 5, 1853.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, but one of which has been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend to inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—a wonderful one, more comforting and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration than any Patent Office.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will immediately revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquor, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIALIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and our word for it you will convince you what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known to the public for SUMMER DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and HOARSENESS, also, for Softening the Gums, reducing inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which have so often resulted from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

DR MOTT'S
PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are at hand of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and those generally familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for without being exciting and over-heating, and gently regulating aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, its effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, deadening cough, and persistent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

IN SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

IN RHEUMATISM, both in chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviative and a permanent remedy for swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

IN INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily prove a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite and complete vigor, without stimulation of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,

FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]
Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]
My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]
My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.
Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.
ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.
If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.
Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest comendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toneand energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve
GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,
and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will acompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being grey, and keep it from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months afthr the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use no by substance, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jefferonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1860.

GEOLOGY & GEOLOGICAL WORKS.

LAWRENCE, Ill., July 3, 1860.

Friend Miller:—I have been silent a long time. My excuse will seem trivial to you if you do not use Prince's Protean Pen. I am now writing with one that I bought in 1856, of T. G. Stearns, General Agent, No. 267 Broadway, for $4.50; and which has been almost a necessary of life to me ever since. One pen-full of ink generally lasts me a week, and aside from the advantage of dispensing with the inkstand, and avoiding all the accidents to carpets and table-spreads therefrom, the way this particular pen moves over the paper excels anything I have ever known. Now some time since the point hopped off. This little bit of Iridosmine, as mineralogists call it, is soldered to the gold, and perhaps must sooner or later be loosened by the action of galvanism on the comparatively positive metal used as solder. I let my pen lie a great while, and finally sent it back. It came to me again last Saturday, so improved that I scarce should have known it; with a stopcock attached to it, a new and superior pen, and a bill for $2. It is worth twice what it was, and could I not get another, I would not take $20 for it. But I did not mean more than a few lines of this, but this pen will run on so.

What is Geology? Geology teaches that this world, of which Moses wrote, was made out of an old one. More than one or two before ours must have been seated on this globe. Before them all it was an immense globe of melted lava, with all the ocean hovering over it in the shape of steam. The mercury in a barometer would have stood at some 1500 feet instead of thirty inches; and the temperature at which water would boil would be incalculably high. This heated mass was swinging in a void the temperature of which now is not higher than 50° below zero.

The globe cools. A crust is formed. It is broken up again and again. Huge splinters of red hot granite stick up twenty miles above the surface. Water condenses against their tops, and runs hissing down to a depth where it again boils away. Lower and lower descends the boiling flood from age to age, tearing down with it masses of rock to fill the chasms beneath. A thunder storm of millions of years assails the peaks, while igneous convulsions below break up the crust into new peaks. Frost seizes on the summits and breaks them up. The flood below dissolves minerals insoluble at all temperatures of water that the chemist can command.

Beds of broken rock are formed, miles in thickness, beneath the scalding ocean.—These beds consolidate and form aqueous rocks: the other, torn to pieces for material for them, were igneous rocks.

The ball rolls on. Creative power peoples it with plants and animals. Aqueous rocks are formed, filled with the bones and shells of these animals and the stems of these plants. These new rocks are called fossiliferous, and the remains of the plants or animals are fossils or organic remains.—The science that investigates them is Paleontology.

Again the abyss of fire breaks up. It is even now skimmed over only with a crust thinner in proportion than the rind of an orange, and on that crust we live. The melted mass beneath sweeps all living things from the surface, and even roasts the rocks till beds of shells in them become one mass of crystallized mass of marble, and no trace of fossils is left in it. Such rock is called metamorphic; while aqueous rocks, formed before living things existed to be buried in them, are called azoic. The exuded mass of molten matter different from granite, and is called trap. Still in our day the central mass gushes out through volcanoes, and when cooled it is called lava.

Let us see, then, how many kinds of rock there are in the two classes.

I. IGNEOUS—1, Granite; 2, Trap; 3, Lava.

II. AQUEOUS.—1, Azoic; 2, Metamorphic; 3, Fossiliferous.

Paleontology deals with fossiliferous rocks only. It makes innumerable subdivisions of them, and gives each subdivision innumerable names. As if this was not enough, it applies the same name to different rocks. First, when the subject was but little understood, they had but Primary, Secondary and Tertiary, and applied even the first of these to granite. Then they called granite Primitive, applied primary to the older part of the secondary, and even interposed another term, Transition, between the primary and the secondary; and finished out with a Quaternary. Then confusion came thicker and faster. To H. D. Rogers we owe the terms Primal, Auroral, Matinal, Levant, Surgent, Scalent, Pre-Meridian, Meridian, Post-Meridian, Cadent, Vergent, Ponent, Vespertine, Umbral, and Seral;—all these subdivisions of the older rocks above.

What is the least number of terms that can designate the Fossiliferous rocks? I think the following is a sufficiently minute subdivision:—A. PROTOZOIC; 1, Silurian; 2, Devonian; 3, Carboniferous; 4, Permian:—B. DEUTOZOIC; 5, Triassic:—C. TRITOZOIC; 6, Liassic; 7, Oolitic:—D. TETRAZOIC; 8, Wealden; 9, Cretaceous:—E. PENTAZOIC; 10, Eocene; 11, Meiocene; 12, Pluiocene:—F. HEXAZOIC; 13, Drift; 14, Alluvium. I. F. H.

Concluded to-morrow.

☞ David Kinnison, who long survived his confederates of the Boston Tea Party, was living in 1851, in Chicago, at the extraordinary age of one hundred and fifteen years. He has since passed away. Ralph Farnham, the last of the Bunker Hill heroes still lives at Acton, Me., although he has nearly attained a span and a half of the space allotted to man. His one hundred and fourth birthday was celebrated at Milton Mills, N. H., on the 7th. The features of the occasion were an address, and one hundred and four greetings from a twelve pounder, and a dinner, enlivened with toasts and speeches.

Mr. Farnham was not in the midst of the battle. Having been enrolled only on the day previous, it was his lot to be detailed among a guard to take charge of artillery and baggage, at some distance from the redoubt.

☞ South Boston is in commotion caused by alleged body stealing from graveyards. A month or two since, a family in that Ward lost a child. The body was deposited in a tomb under one of the churches. It was shrouded in an expensive and peculiar dress, made by a friend of the family.—Shortly after the funeral—about two weeks—the lady who made the dress visited a wash-woman in the vicinity, in whose yard she saw a dress which, on examination, proved to be the identical garment! In answer to questions upon the matter, the woman said that it was given her at the house of a certain Doctor, where she had been washing. These facts led to an examination of the coffin in the tomb, when it was found empty! The body had been stolen.

The burial was made by Jeremiah Tinkham, Broadway, South Boston. The affair produced much excitement, and on examining other coffins they were also found bodyless. It is conjectured that the bodies have been stolen for purposes of dissection. The city government have taken the matter in hand, and instituted an investigation.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE AND EX-POSTMASTER FOWLER.—The Baltimore American states that Mr. Fowler arrived at Havana under the assumed name of Post. He stated that he had but $2800, the sum which was handed him by his friends, but that he had received a letter from ex-President Pierce authortzing him to draw on him for $500, and asking to know his wants in the future. Mr. Fowler thinks that the whole $175,000 which he owes the department will be raised by his friends and paid over.

☞ Sherman M. Booth, the abolitionist, is still confined in the custom house at Milwaukee, by the U. S. authorities, who make his prison as severe as any Austrian prison house. A friend sent him a box of strawberries the other day, but the Marshal refused to take them in. On the 4th a party of about 500 assembled around the court house and compared the liberties of '76 with the liberties of '60, making Booth's case an example in point. Booth threw out of his window to them a letter, which was read, burning with words of opposition to slavery.

☞ The Alta California says:—"A paper has been left with us signed by 160 cabin and steerage passengers on board the steamer North Star on her recent trip to Aspinwall, stating that two laborers died from the effect of the shocking treatment they received; that the vessel carried more passengers than the law allowed; that she was poorly provided with boats, and that the meat on board was unfit for human beings."

POPULATION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Keene Sentinel says the population of that town will probably reach 4500, a gain of 600 since 1850. In Walpole there is a decrease of 200 or more. In Marlow an increase of 100, and in Stoddard 100 loss. The probability is that the whole county (Cheshire,) will not show an increase in population since 1850.

☞ The Austrian artillery, throw from rifled cannon, a six pound ball three miles, with six pounds of gun-cotton. No smoke is emitted, and the fire is maintained for some time before the enemy can discover the direction from whence it comes.

☞ The Free church at South Braintree, Mass., is newly formed during the present year. Mr. Town, its new pastor, is a graduate of Yale College and the New Haven Theological School, but has recently embraced Unitarian sentiments.

TEXAS contains two religious, one temperance, and one educational paper.—What new State does more?

SCHOOL HOURS AND EXERCISE.—Mr. Edwin Chadwick, whose name is identified with so many important social reforms, has of late been prosecuting an educational inquiry of great interest. He was, as our readers may remember, appointed by the British government a commissioner to inquire into the excessive labor of young persons in cotton factories. The results he obtained led him to propose measures, which were in part executed, for reducing the working time of children under thirteen years of age to six hours a day, and for ensuring their attendance at school the residue of the time, say three hours. The children under this provision are called "half-timers;" and it turns out, according to Mr. Chadwick's investigations, that in well-conducted schools their attainments are quite equal to those of the "full-timers," who attend school six hours daily, while in aptitude for the application of their knowledge they are said to be far superior. As they gain in bodily condition by the reduction of their physical labor, so they do in mental condition by the reduction of time devoted to mental labor.

Mr. Chadwick made also a close examination of the best of the long-time schools for young children, and found, upon the testimony of the most intelligent teachers, that they could not keep up voluntary attention to study beyond two hours in the morning and one hour in the afternoon.—By force, even, they cannot get more than an additional half hour of real attention, and that half-hour proves in the end a mental mischief as well as a bodily injury. From these facts it would seem to follow, as he contends, that our school systems are a violation, in this respect, of the laws of physiology.

Boys are enabled to repair the injury of undue mental work, to a certain extent, by their athletic games. Not so with girls. In boarding schools they are fastened to their sedentary occupations often eight hours a day, with but slight intervening relaxation or exercise. Mr. Chadwick finds that the daughters of mothers who have worked, but whose fathers have got on in the world and have sent these daughters to day or boarding schools, and kept them from work, are shorter and generally of inferior strength to the working mothers; that the proportion of mothers of the well-to-do classes who can suckle their own children is diminishing; that among women who have one servant there are ailments which are unknown among women who have no servant; and that these ailments are worse with women who have two servants, and get very bad indeed, and with new complications of hypochondria, among women who have three servants.

The remedies recommended by this gentleman are the reduction of the ordinary school hours by one half, and the devotion of them either to manual labor or gymnastics. But no form of exercise, he thinks, is equal to the naval and military drill.—New York Evening Post.

☞ At the late Trinity House Banquet, the Prince Consort thus spoke of his three eldest children:—

The Princess Royal has already become the founder of a new family, destined to mount the throne of Prusia. Nearly at the same time, a few weeks hence, though at the opposite poles, the Prince of Wales will inaugurate in the Queen's name that stupendous work, the great bridge over the St. Lawrence, Canada; while Prince Alfred will lay the foundation stone of the breakwater for the harbor of Cape Town.

☞ There are only four Douglas papers in Connecticut. There are three in Alabama, and two in Georgia. "As yet," says the Savannah News of the 7th, "there is not one in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Florida."

Japanned Wear—The patience and purses of the New Yorkers—both worn out.

☞ The Troy (N. Y.) Budget has lowered the Douglas flag in exchange for that of Breckinridge and Lane. Thirteen New York papers, beside the above, support Breckinridge and Lane.

GREAT FIRE.—Newark, N. J., July 12. The shawl and table cover factory of John Duncan, at Franklin, near this city, was burnt this morning, together with a large quantity of material, stock, &c. Loss $100,000—partially insured. Nothing saved.—About two hundred hands are thrown out of employment, in consequence.

☞ A terrible rain and flood, (something like that in Noah's day,) took place in February, in Australia. Many people were carried off, large numbers drowned, and a great amount of property destroyed.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The subscriber hereby gives public notice that on the twenty-third day of May, A. OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

W. M. A. RUST, M. D.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON and for sale by Wm. B. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan F. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 6w&w

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck; and it is now over two years since the cure."

BETSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1855.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Her much admired Grecian Painting, which, for beauty and durability, equals the Canvas Painting, may be executed by all, possessing artistic skill or otherwise. Every attention will be paid to the first elements of Drawing.

Mrs. M. continues to give instruction in WRITING; also, Silk and Worsted EMBROIDERY and other Ornamental Branches.

Classes will meet each day between the hours of 9 and 12 A. M., and 2 and 6 P. M. For further particulars, inquire at No. 17 COURT STREET, where specimens may be seen.

☞ Mr. J. C. Carr of this city has purchased the exclusive right to sell Lyman's celebrated patent Metallic Soles in Rockingham County—and is ready to dispose of the same in lots to suit "the trade," or to insert in the best manner for customers.—The insertion consists of a very thin and pliable copper-looking sheet of metal not thicker than this paper,—which is inserted between the soles of a shoo or boot, rendering it as warm and dry as a rubber sole, and being far neater and lighter. We shall publish the advertisement on Monday.

☞ See advertisement of a new Sewing Machine. Every woman who is worthy and capable of being raised a degree above a mere "machine" herself, ought to have one of these household divinities, of some pattern or other.

☞ The High Schools' vacation of six weeks commenced on Friday. Now's your time to recuperate, boys and girls, and teachers too; but what consummate, fatal folly, to overburden scholars and teachers or anybody else, so that they need relaxation at all.

INDICATIONS.—The Newburyport Herald says:—

All the indications from the South are of a Democratic union on Breckinridge. Fitzpatrick, Clingman, Toombs, Stephens and other non-interventionists are now reported against Douglas, and against themselves as expressed on the Kansas Nebraska act.—There will be enough Douglas men, however, in the South, to defeat Breckidridge in more than half the slave states. Mr. Johnson, candidate for the Vice Presidency with Douglas, attempted to address the people at Macon, Ga., on the 30th ult., but he was not well received, and even failed to deliver the speech he had prepared. The South care nothing for conventions or regular candidates, or any thing else, where they stand in their way; but in refusing to accept Douglas they have evidently chosen defeat and destruction. When Douglas and his friends sink they mean to have their arms fast round the democratic standard and bear that to the bottom with them.—They will give all the North to Lincoln, and a good part of the South to Bell.

If we were to give the Senate as it will be after next March, we should put it:—Democrats 35; Republicans 32, and Stephen A. Douglas. It is quite probable that the Southern and Democratic majority will be lost by the election of Union men in the South; if it is not, another year will bring in Nebraska to cancel it, and in 1863 there will be vacancies in California, Indiana, Minnesota and New Jersey to do the work. It is as clear as the light of day, therefore, that the slave power is to be broken and forever lost, even in the Senate, within two years at the longest.

☞ The New York State Bell-Everett Party's Convention, at Utica, had big speeches against the Republicans; and recommended a union ticket for electors.—Washington Hunt said:—

The Union party being in a minority in this State, by uniting with others in the Presidential election, could secure the election by the people of a Union man. The minority are prepared to vote the Union ticket, no matter if Douglas or any other person is on it.

He urged a union with the conservatives of the South against the Republican party.

A judicial committee of four from each district was appointed to form an electoral ticket, authorizing them so to form it as best to unite the National Union men of every name and designation and to promote the election of their candidate.

A 'SPIRIT' SUDDENLY PUT TO FLIGHT. While the spirit of "Red Jacket" was entertaining a company of spiritualists at a private house in Milford, the other evening, by playing on a guitar and other musical instruments, the room dark, an unbelieving Pharisee suddenly lighted a fluid lamp, when lo and behold! the medium, one of the "test" sort, who had been performing marvelous feats in town, was discovered nimbly fingering the guitar! The illumination acted like a thunderbolt. The medium exclaimed, "O! that light!" threw the instrument wildly over her head, and fell into the arms of her neighbor. During a discussion which ensued she quietly left the apartment.—Boston Jour.

☞ Ten million dollars have been contributed by the citizens of Boston towards objects of a public nature of a moral, religious or literary character, during the last half century, of which there are authentic accounts.

☞ The bronze doors designed for the Capitol at Washington, which were cast at Munich, Bavaria, have arrived at New York. They cost $40,000.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.—Will every reader please ponder the sensible article in another column, on "School Hours and Exercise."

☞ A storekeeper on Union Bar, Fraser river, was fined by Judge Bigbie £100, or in default of payment to suffer six months' imprisonment for selling liquor to Indians.

TRENTON, N.J., July 13.—Titus & Scudder's store in this city was robbed last night of $23,000 worth of silks.

A dentist in Brunswick occupies rooms directly over Mr. Toothaker's store.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator: (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

MUNICIPAL.—In Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, Josiah F. Adams was appointed pound keeper and field driver.

The subject of opening State street as laid out by the County Commissioners, was referred to the committee on streets.

The committee to whom had been referred the application of M. Fisher & Co., for an exchange of land at the creek, made a report that they had obtained the opinion of counsel, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, * * * that the Mayor be authorized to relinquish to M. Fisher & Co., in consideration of their widening the road opposite their premises, as per plan, all the right and title they have to the open space on the west side of Creek road, as laid down in said plan.

Resolved, That the Mayor and Aldermen be authorized and instructed to lay out a street across the pond adjoining the Concord Railroad, and connecting Creek road and Cate street, and that they be authorized to advertise for proposals for the building of said road by contract as soon as practicable.

The resolutions were adopted and sent down to the Common Council for concurrence.

GALVESTON CUSTOM HOUSE.—The Secretary of the Treasury has awarded the contract for the Galveston (Texas) Custom House to Messrs. Blaisdell & Emerson, for $24,000. Mr. Blaisdell has been the builder of the Portsmouth Custom House and Post Office in Portsmouth, and has given a fine specimen of his artistic skill and scientific knowledge, in this handsome edifice, which is the ornament of our city.

The Journal learns that all the work for the Texas Custom House which can be done off the ground, will be performed in Portsmouth, and shipped hence for use—thus giving employment to our mechanics and our shipping.

THE "IMPENDING CRISIS."—A reply to Helper's book has recently been put forth, written by Louis Schade, of Iowa. It is entitled "Appeal to the Common Sense and Patriotism of the people of the U. S." It gives the causes of the insurrection in St. Domingo; a history of the West India Emancipation; a sketch of the Coolie trade; a review of the Helper book and its statistics, &c. Published at the office of the "National Democratic Review," Washington city, D. C.

STATE PRISON.—We have received from the Warden of the N. H. State Prison a copy of his Annual report, which informs us that there are 110 convicts in the prison; 35 have been committed during the year, 18 discharged, 10 pardoned, one removed to the Asylum, and one has died. The receipts of the institution from July 1, 1859, to June 1, 1860, eleven months, were $10,847.18, and the expenditures $7,582,28; leaving a net income of $3261,90.

☞ Capt. Moses Paul, agent of the Cocheco Manufacturing Company, died at Dover on Monday morning last. He was a Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New Hampshire, and was buried on Wednesday with appropriate Masonic honors. A numerous delegation of the fraternity in this city attended his funeral.

On board the Macedonian are two seamen named Herbert Peters and Frederick Law, who were sent to the United States by the American Consul at Genoa, for trial for "crimes and misdemeanors committed on the high seas, on board the bark Sea Breeze."

LINCOLN & HAMLIN CLUB.

On Thursday evening last, a preliminary meeting was held by the Republicans of Portsmouth, at the Court House, to organize for the approaching Presidential Election.

Marcellus Bufford was called to the chair, and Albert Laighton appointed Secretary.

The committee reported the following board of officers. The report was accepted and the officers elected:

For President—William H. Rollins.
Vice Presidents—John S. Harvey, Ward 1.
John S. Rand, Ward 2.
Michael J. Vaughan, Ward 3.
Recording Sec.—Charles L. Tidd.
Cor. Sec.—Joseph P. Morse.
Treasurer—John Knowlton, 2d.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. J. P. Morse, W. H. Y. Hackett, of Portsmouth, and Mr. Vandame of Lee. A good spirit was manifested, and indications given that the Club will be an efficient aid in the approaching political contest.

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.—This event, which is of so much value to science that some men have journeyed more than a thousand miles to obtain the best place for an observation, will come off on Wednesday morning next, July 18th. At Portsmouth, it begins at 26 minutes past 7 in the morning, and ends at 33 minutes past 9. The greatest obscuration will be at half past 8 o'clock. Here the Sun will be about half obscured. It will be totally eclipsed in Oregon, and in a line extending to the north-eastern point of Labrador, where observations are to be made.

The Douglas Flag, which was flying on Daniel street on Wednesday, was taken down by its owners as in the way of the people. They could not get it a peg high enough for the public to pass comfortably under it. The truth is, like his platform, it is too wide and too long.

BOWDOIN COLLEGE.—Number 5 of the Bugle blows a noble blast, and proclaims the institution in a flourishing state. It is edited by Wm. L. Haskell, S. Jordon and C. O. Hunt, and neatly printed at the Brunswick press. Whole number of students 269.—Among them from Portsmouth is J. H. Thompson in the Senior class, J. B. Upham, Jr. in the Junior, and George G. Kimball in the Sophomore.

Do you know that Allen & Paine are about leaving the city, and that they are almost giving away their Goods?

ROTATION OF MINISTERS.

Our Illinois correspondent refers to Holton's New Granada, for some opinions against some foolish rotation in the office of foreign ministers, which we reprint with the remark that the Mr. James S. Green alluded to, is now a democratic leader in the U. S. Senate.

It is but just, on entering a foreign city, to salute first the representatives of our national authority. An American can scarcely be said to have come in contact with his own national government till he meets its representatives abroad; and here, so much of his comfort and respectability depend upon their character, that the traveler can not but feel acutely alive to the manner in which their trusts are discharged; and while it is the second duty of the writer to be grateful, his first is to be impartial.

Fortunately, I have nothing to do with any of the cases in which it has been said that blackguards and bullies have been sent abroad; for with, perhaps, the exception of President Pierce's commercial agent at St. Thomas, I have never met one that did not seem anxious to do all his duty, and as faithfully as possible. But it may be necessary, before testifying to what I have seen, to make a few remarks on the American system of appointment of ministers.

Unless we can reform our system of removing and appointing officers, it is highly desirable that we abolish all embassies to the courts of civilized nations, and leave them to deal with us as they do with Morocco, Muscat, Burmah, and other barbarians, at our own capital. Under the present system we always have the poorest minister at every court. We must pay him for leaving his business at home, if he has any, with the probability that he will have to return home in four years or less, and generally with the intention of coming home much sooner. You cannot expect him to understand the language of the country where he is, and still less the spirit of the government and the character of the men with whom he has to do. With other nations diplomacy is a profession, and no man expects to be minister who has not served a due apprenticeship as attache.

The English and French ministers at Bogota were both married to South American ladies. Both are said to have used their posts for base purposes—one as a smuggler, and the other as the holder of a share in an enormous usurious claim that he urged to an unjust settlement. The English government had committed the farther and inexcusable error of appointing a Catholic to represent them at a Catholic court. This ought never to be, for in half the cases where the traveler should need protection, the minister might deem it a sin to act. I know of no valid objection to a Catholic embassador to Sweden or Prussia, or a Mahommedan sent to Rome or Naples, but to send a Mohammedan to Constantinople, or a Catholic to Spain, would be worse than to leave the post vacant.

It is a little curious that all our ministers to Bogota have been natives of the Southern States. To this there can be no objection, as New Granada has abolished slavery, and an abolitionist would never need protection on account of his opinions. Mr. Yelverton P. King was a fine specimen of the Georgia gentleman, having with him his wife, and a son as secretary of legation. His hospitable board was spread for every respectable countryman, and the weary traveller would forget for a time that he was a stranger in a strange land; and to the Christian, who felt that he had none elsewhere to sympathize with him, the family of Mr. King was a treat not soon to be forgotten. As a minister, however, Mr. King was of necessity incompetent, from inexperience, ignorance of the Spanish language and of Granadan character, and he was too far advanced in life to begin.

His successor was an entirely different man. Mr. King came to enjoy the novelty of an Andine life, Mr. James S. Green to indemnify himself for the losses that his practice had suffered from his devotion to politics. His plans were laid for this.—Leaving his family in Missouri, he came and took board in Bogota. Hospitality was no part of his plan, and, indeed, it would defeat it, and accordingly not even the 22d of February was allowed to make an exception. But as a minister, Mr. Green was at once able and faithful, and had he continued a few years at his post, there would be every prospect that he would become eminent in his profession; but he did not stay long enough to speak the language even moderately, and before he could begin to act independently of the advice of his countrymen he returned.

But how do our affairs get on here amid all these changes? The answer is clear. The consulate of Bogota does not pay its charges. No partisan could be rewarded with it; it is neither a loaf nor a fish; so it is left in the hands of Mr. John A. Bennett, who came here as a photographer, and by virtue of Yankee versatility, has become a merchant of established character and of much influence with the Bogotanos. I risk little in saying that no step has been taken by our ministers lately without his concurrence, and, as he is a safe adviser, and interested in the continuance of a good understanding between the two countries, all is likely to go well enough whether the legation is vacant or filled.

But is there no remedy for this state of things? I see none so long as our foreign missions are or can be used as rewards for the friends of the President. I know of but one branch of national service that seems at all well managed, and that is the army. Would it not be well to detach lieutenants of engineers and artillery for secretaries of legation, and appoint to the more important embassies the best officers of the army? We need not fear a worse system than we now have, and, until some better system is adopted, nothing save a wholesome fear of our cannon can keep our embassadors from being the laughing-stock of veterans that have spent their days in this branch of their country's service.

☞ We have received a pamphlet copy of Charles Sumner's speech on the Barbarism of Slavery. The preface is by Thadeus Hyatt, dated very appropriately from Washington jail.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the specification of any patent by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. Business the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of law and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the ablest and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy to secure their interests in getting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
THOS. EWBANK,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him when their patents are to be sought, in sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, use No. 5. Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pain, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, or subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disgreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from pleasuring too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong and healthy, and will remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, or six for $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it does do what it is offered for, give relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, FLATULENCY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and makes sleep, health and rest—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As a Stomach Medicine it has no equal—during an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As a Stomach Medicine it has no equal—during the time of teething and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotic and other nostrum remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON (Iron of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in daily practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of a gravest nature, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxide, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pain, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has relieved many of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy as a tonic and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.
ALLEN & FAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will so much consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.
CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.
Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and will sell this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives toned energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC.

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints:—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, nay from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally driven to every prescription advertised.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGEHNOR.
Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but a few applications of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

MONDAY, JULY 16, 1860.

GEOLOGY & GEOLOGICAL WORKS.

Concluded.

A good Geological text book should convey a definite idea of the six kinds of rocks, and of the divisions and fourteen subdivisions of the last kind, their relations to each other, and their most remarkable fossils; it should consign all the classifications and terms to the glossary; it should take up all the rocks in a historical order, beginning with the oldest, and, when it has finished the newest, stop; it should avoid all unnecessary particulars, and be as brief as possible. How far have these indications been fulfilled?

When I began the study of Geology, there was no American work in existence of any note. There had been one or two publications in New York, but whoever would study the sciences must use imported books. Now my table is handsomely set out with works from the American press; and all, except three, of American authors. I will see in how few words I can sketch their character.

1 and 2, Lyell's Principles and Lyell's Elements.—These are two very handsome octavos from the Appletons. They contain in full what all the American text books are but abridgments of. Their beautiful and abundant illustrations are copied by all from Hitchcock's to Webster's Pictorial Dictionary. Whoever has but these two needs but one American work. Their cost, their bulk, and the foreign volume of the details, are all the objection to them, but one which applies to the next two.

3, Hitchcock's Elements.—The first and hardest of American Geological text books. Drawn from Lyell, it partakes of the great fault yet to be named, besides others remedied in the following. It takes you over and over the same ground, describing in one place the shells of all the rocks, in another the reptiles, in another the fishes.—While I revere the author and esteem the publishers, Ivison & Phinney, I could not be hired to use the work.

4, Adams' and Gray's Elements.—Alonzo Gray, the junior author, and the author of Gray's Chemistry, lately deceased, is not to be confounded with Asa Gray, the author of the best botanical series we are likely to see in our day, and author of no works except on botany. The Elements in question are free from the confusion of Hitchcock's book, from which they are chiefly drawn. But here comes the great fault.—All these books read history backwards, from now to the beginning. It is a fault for which no excellency will compensate.

5, St. John's Elements.—Plates poorly executed, free from the objection above named, but surpassed in beauty and equaled in utility by 6, Loomis' Elements, a much smaller book. The description of the 14 subdivisions of fossiliferous rocks, which ought to be more than half the book, is condensed to 36 pages. It has no glossary, nor any clue to many names in comparatively common use. But for this defect it would form a most useful text book.

7, Mrs. Hillside's Compend, is the smallest, and for this and other reasons the one I would prefer. It has but 150 pages, including a good index and a very good glossry; but I think the price is not correspondingly low—75 cents. But even here is too much matter to be learned. From p. 59 I extract—

Q. 2—What is the name of the first or lowest group in the Secondary series?

A.—The lowest group of the Secondary series is called on the Continent Trios, in England Upper New Red Sandstone, Saliferous and Poikilitic. (Three questions omitted.)

Q. 5—How is it divided in England?

A.—In England it has but two parts:—first, the Lower [Upper] New Red Sandstone, containing Sandstone and Magnesian Limestone; and second, Sandstone and Quartzose Conglomerate, with the Saliferous Marls.

Q. 6—What are the three German divisions?

A.—First, Variegated Sandstone; second, Keuper, and Muschelkalk; third, Variegated Marls.

We protest against pupils committing to memory such stuff as this. If half the text of the 108 pages of question and answer had been given up to additional pictures, (particularly restorations,) it would have been as much better as easier, and more attractive. It would have been well, too, to extend the 26 pages of glossary (the best I have seen except in Lyell) up to 50 or more.

Now I think this is the easiest and best text-book we have on Geology. I know of no other that is likely to prove better; to one, of which a friend had a duplicate, I refused to give shelf room. But another has been a long time in the course of preparation by Prof. Dana of New Haven.—Of this I have the highest hopes that it will be to Geology what Asa Gray's works are to Botany. More I cannot say.

Two interesting books I have not yet mentioned. They are not Elements, but treat of departments of Geology.

9, Geology of the Globe, by Prof. Hitchcock.—I am so insatiable as to be not half satisfied with this thin octavo from the late firm of Phillips, Sampson & Co. But we can find no more of it in reach. It contains more geographical Geology than all my books together. But it has two maps only, and those not so colored as to exhibit all the details desirable. What particularly pleases me is that this work does not repel by its details. The map of the globe contains but six colors. I would not like to spare this book, for I could find no substitute for it short of a fund of a cart-load of quartos filled with the Geology of different States and nations.

10.—There remains a remarkable book, on which thousands have thrown away their money, and which is still worth more than most of its possessors suppose. It is Hugh Miller's Testimony of the Rocks; 502 pp., 8vo., by Gould & Lincoln. It has been of immense service to me in relation to the Creation and the Deluge. Its arguments in Natural Theology equal all others I have ever read. But it is not amusing. Those who will not study it, cannot read it. It is no use to take it up without a particle of Geological knowledge to begin with; or to rely on a knowledge of the Geology of twenty years since.

Let those who cannot read it, give it to their pastor; let him buy Hillside or some other text book; for to read this work will richly pay for mastering the elements of Geology, as truly as St. Peter's would pay for a journey from Florence to Rome.—Better still, let the publishers melt up 74 stereotype plates of the last pages, which are absolutely useless, and in place of them give a compend and glossary, which will make the book its own interpreter. And let that book be a text book in every theological seminary and have its place in every minister's library.

Pardon the length to which I have gone. The above is the result of many weeks' careful examination, and entirely unbiased by favor. I doubt whether any one man has so patiently and carefully gone over this series of text-books, though many, by doing so, might perhaps give an opinion of more weight. Yours, I. F. H.

ANOMALOUS.—The Va. Religious Herald says that a short time since "some deacons, white and black, were ordained in the C. Baptist church, at Thomasville, Ga. Of the ministers composing the ordaining presbytery, two were white and one black—the latter preaching the sermon. The deacons who knelt side by side to receive words of advice, were a wealthy slave owner and three slaves." How this can be reconciled with the Dred Scott decision, says the Christian Era, it is not easy to see. The scriptural qualifications of both pastors and deacons are something more than bone and muscle, which may be bought and sold, and their possessor must have "rights which the white man is bound to respect."

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—An intoxicated fellow, driving a horse and vehicle, got upon the Metropolitan track, in Washington street, Boston, and refused to let the cars or any kind of vehicle pass him. After having blocked up the street for ten or fifteen minutes, a gentleman took hold of the obstinate man's horse, and was struck a severe blow with the horse whip, which the intoxicated individual flourished. The gentleman seized the whip, wrenched it from the bully's hands, and then applied most lustily to the fellow's head and shoulders, until he was content to beg for mercy and leave, a sorer if not a wiser man.

☞ At Liverpool two expert London thieves picked the pocket of a cotton broker of £11,000, (or $55,000,) in large notes, just as he was entering the bank.—An hour later a London detective who chanced to be in town recognized one of them at the post office, where he was found to have registered a letter to a lady in London. Following the man up they arrested both: following the letter they recovered the entire amount of money; and in almost as little time as it takes to say it, the pickpockets were transported for ten and seven years, respectively.

THE FAST HORSES.—Ethan Allen distanced Princess, at New York, the other day, in 2:29, 2:25 1-2. Princess is not in good trim this season. Patchen was sold for $25,000, last week, just before being cheated and bullied out of the two-mile race with Flora Temple, which it would appear he was bound to win. An English blood colt, ten days old, was sold in Alabama, a few days ago, for $12,000.

THE SALMON FISHERY.—The St. John Morning News says in that harbor the fishing was never better than at the present time. Salmon are being taken in immense quantities. One boat took fifty-one at a single tide. On Thurday more gasperaux were taken in the weirs than were taken any preceding day during the year. This is somewhat remarkable, so late in the season.

SUICIDE.—A young woman by the name of Washburn, employed in the Shaker Mills, at Enfield, N. H., committed suicide on Tuesday last, by taking strychnine.

HICKS, THE MURDERER AND PIRATE, was hung at New York, Friday, July 13.—The sloop E. A. Johnson, on which the murders of Capt. Burr and his sons were perpetrated by Hicks, was anchored but a short distance from the gallows upon which the murderer was hung, and in full view of the culprit. It had a large flag with her name upon it, and a sailor at the masthead waved his hat and cheered as Hicks ascended the gallows.

Hundreds of the Battery ruffians were in boats, swearing and shouting "hang the thief!" "string him up!" &c. The Red Jacket, which carried over Hicks and his attendants to Bedloe's Island, presented a singular spectacle. Rum was sold openly on deck, while the priests were praying with the murderer below. Excursion steamers were crowded with spectators of the scene, and the Battery was crammed with people anxious to see Hicks hung. It is estimated that there were fully 10,000 people in the Bay and on the Battery, comprising nearly all the worst classes of society. Hicks died easy.

Hicks had been engaged, at times, for some weeks past, in making a "confession" of his many crimes. He makes a full and minute statement of the murders for which he has now been hung, and confesses many others.

His confession shows clearly that he believes in an omnipresent and almost omnipotent Devil, and is afraid of some terrible retribution in the "world to come"—but that his ideas of God's justice and mercy are vague and indefinite. He says:

I have long felt as though I were the Devil's own, and that though he had served me so many years, I must at last be his; yet I imagined he would not claim me yet, but allow me to do his work for a time longer. He has stood by me all my life, on ship and on shore, amid the howling storms of the ocean, where every moment the waves threatened to ingulf me, he has snatched me from their deadly embrace; on the battle-field, in many a hand-to-hand fight, he has seemed to stand by my side, protecting me from danger; and when I have been in the hands of my enemies, and escape has appeared impossible, he has, until now, invariably opened the way for my release. But at last he has deserted me; in vain I call upon him, he will not answer me; and I dare not call on God, for what pity should he show a guilty wretch like me.

The past is one great horror! The future one dread fear. A heavy, insupportable weight is on my heart, and I feel as if, did I not reveal its fearful secrets, I should go mad.

On that fatal night when I awoke from a deep sleep to find the officers of the law standing by my bed, for the first time fear overcame me, and then I realized that at last the master whom I had served so long had really deserted me and abandoned me to my fate.

But to all outward appearance I choked these feelings down, and none who saw me dreamed of what was passing within.

My task is done. I have related all the awful details of my life with as much minuteness as I can, and now nothing is left me but to prepare to die.

I ask no sympathy, and expect none. I shall go to the gallows cursed by all who know the causes which will bring me there, and my only hope is that God will, in his infinite mercy, grant me that spirit of true repentance which may lead to pardon and forgiveness in the world to come.

☞ In the year 1642, Boston did not have a single lawyer. One Thomas Lechford came over in that year with the intention of practising law, but failed. The time for tolerating lawyers, says Drake, had not yet arrived. The Governor and magistrates thought themselves competent to decide all matters of difference between man and man.

☞ At Essex, Mass, Sunday, Mr. Henry Burnham, in his seventy-eighth year, took a sail on a pond, and the boat capsized, throwing him overboard, where he remained for about an hour, clinging to the boat and calling for assistance. His cries were heard and he was rescued from a watery grave—unable to stand or speak, and it was some time before he could be restored to consciousness.

☞ The Coos Republican says seventeen ladies and gentlemen left Lancaster, last Monday morning, for an excursion to Dixville Notch and Umbagog Lake. They go amply provided with camp stores and equipage, and will eschew hotels during their absence. The Republican believes the ladies of the party to be the first who have voluntarily tried camp life in Coos.

MUSIC IN GREAT FALLS.—The Advertiser of Saturday announces that Mr. H. S. Thompson and Mrs. Newell, with Mr. Bemis and others, have been giving grand concerts in Somersworth; Prof. Williams is to teach music there this summer; and "Prof. H. P. Crane was to preside at the organ of the F. B. Society on Sunday." There is more music stirring up that way than with us,—to judge from the Advertiser's reports.

HOIST YOUR FLAGS.—The New York Chamber of Commerce, observing the neglect of many persons in charge of vessels in port, to observe the custom of showing their colors on Sundays and holidays, have passed a resolution recommending that the flags should be hoisted on those days, "as a mark of respect to the day and to the nation."

POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY.

The following views of what Popular Sovereignty is and what it is not, are extracts from an editorial of the Atlas:

The doctrine that the majority of the people of a Territory can vote the minority into slavery if they please, is a specimen of modern Democracy. It is an imposition, a sham, a humbug, a fraud. Who says the people "shall not govern themselves?" Not the Republicans. They say expressly that they may govern themselve, but they shall not govern their neighbors, without their consent. They stand upon the doctrine of the Declaration of Independence, that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.

It is easy enough to get the consent of the strong men to oppress and enslave the weak.

It is gravely announced by Douglas and his squad of followers, that it is the last and wisest result of all political study, that the white men may enslave the black men, if they can only agree by a majority vote to do so. Nay more; that the majority of white men may enslave the minority of white men, for we do not understand that this right of the people to "vote slavery up or down," is limited in any degree by color. Fill up a Territory with black men, and they may vote to enslave the modern Democrats who are caught amongst them. If such an event should happen, we reckon their views of Popular Sovereignty would be modified forthwith.

The truth is, the whole doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty, the right of the first settlers of a Territory to decide whether they will hold men in slavery or not, is a point blank denial of the first principles of democracy. Its result, if the people are corrupt enough, is an aristocracy, the government of a privileged class, and not a democracy, the government of the people.

Why are not State street and Long wharf, and Milk street permitted to arrange the tariff laws to suit themselves? Why are not the people of Boston allowed to vote on the question of the location of the Post Office? This governmental and Congressional interference is constant, and though often burdensome, is a necessary part of our system. Shall it be abandoned, solely for the benefit of slavery? Shall we allow the government to meddle with the every day affairs of life, and when the question comes of the personal liberty of the people, shall we deny its power?

These squatter sovereignty men go for Congressional intervention when intervention is an impertinence and a nuisance; they deny the right of self government to the people of the Territories in the commonest things.—Kansas is now controlled by a Governor and a judiciary appointed by the President, under the authority of Congress,—but when a demand is made that the right of every man to life, liberty and property shall be secured, they deny the right to interfere.

Strip Squatter Sovereignty of its disguises and it is a contemptible sham, and only not dangerous because it is contemptible.—There never has been a statesman of any reputation, and never will be, in the country, who will stake his reputation on its defence, without making an ignoble failure sooner or later. And the secret of Douglas' weakness is not in the quarrels he has on his hands, but in the conviction, shared by North and South alike, that his doctrines amount to a disgraceful skulking of responsibility, and that the country never can be governed under them.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN.—"A Lady Reader" of the New York World suggests that the undiscovered source of the Nile may be the original Garden of Eden, finding slight conviction of her theory in Genesis ii: 10—"a garden went out of Eden." She then patriotically ejaculates—"May Americans have the glory of discovery, if it be so."

Wouldn't it be a glorious discovery to find it in Africa, as the lady thinks,—and to find a painting of our grand-parents, Adam and Eve, with black skins and wooly heads, in the full dress which they wore in the garden before they eat the fruit.

SCANDAL CASE IN NEW YORK.—The Herald says that the difficuly between ex-Counciliman Kerrigan, Alderman Genet and Mr. Ketchum has been finally settled, and both parties can walk the streets without fear; but while Kerrigan consents to permit the matter to drop, he refuses to have anything to do with the Alderman.

☞ The only thing remarkable about Gen. Lane's acceptance letter, is the way in which he takes a Douglas phrase and gives a it Breckenridge meaning as follows:

"Non-intervention on the subject of slavery I may emphatically say, is the cardinal maxim of the Democracy—non-intervention by Congress, and non-intervention by Territorial legislatures, as is fully stated in the first resolution of the adopted platform."

LOWELL, July 14.—Nicholas Norcross, Esq., well known by his extensive lumber operations, died in this city this morning, aged 54.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness pene trates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

NOTICE.

The subscriber, having been appointed Keeper of the Pound and Field Driver, gives notice that all Cows and other Neat Stock going at large, without a driver, in this city, will be impounded or proceeded against as the law directs.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The subscriber hereby gives public notice that on the twenty-third day of May, A. D. 1860, he peaceably entered upon and took possession of a certain lot of land, situated in Portsmouth, in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, with a dwelling house thereon, and bounded westerly on Dover Street twenty-five feet; northerly by the Reservoir of the Ports. Aqueduct Co., and there measuring fifty feet; easterly by land of H. M. Grant twenty-five feet; southerly by land formerly owned by Nicholas Mason, now owned by James Shaw, fifty feet—said southerly line being formed by dwelling on said lot and the dwelling of said Shaw—now one of the chambers of said Shaw's house extends over into the house on said lot described, and is to remain so as long as the two houses shall remain on said lot—said premises being the same which Stephen A. Rice conveyed to N. B. Sides, and which said Sides conveyed in mortgage to William Laighton, by deed dated 16th January, 1855, recorded in Rockingham Registry of Deeds, lib. 863, fol. 81, (and which deed of mortgage was subsequently assigned to me, to-wit: on the 21st day of May, A. D. 1860;) for conditions broken and for the purpose of foreclosing the right in equity of said Nathaniel B Sides to redeem the same; and at the same time publicly declared the purpose and object of said entry and possession.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Albion, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

Prepared by S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston. And for sale by Wm. R. Preston, David Kimball, Nathan P. Thacher, J. H. Thacher, and S. Huteh-ings, Portsmouth; J. P. Packer, Greenland; and dealers everywhere. spnot 8wd&w

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure." HERSEY SANBORN.

Kensington, Sept. 25, 1858.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and other of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Sam'l Blatchford, a minor, for assault on Henry Ham, a minor, was fined $3; costs $4.80. Went to jail.

Another minor, under the age of 17 years, was sent to the House of Reformation, to serve out his minority.

ROCKINGHAM FAIR.—The seventh annual Exhibition and Cattle Show of the Rockingham County Agricultural Society, is to be held in Portsmouth in September. A paper for subscriptions will be circulated soon, perhaps during the present week, to raise funds for a portion of the necessarily large expenses, and to increase the number of members in Portsmouth and vicinity.—The Trustees are to hold a meeting early in August, to appoint the committees and other officers for the Fair; and it is highly desirable that this city should be as largely represent in the list of enrolled members as possible. The payment of $5 (or more) constitutes life membership, with no liability to assessment for five years, and not exceeding $1 per year thereafter.

☞ All our readers who have any conception of "the eternal fitness of things," and don't wish to "pasture their cows in the wood,"—will rejoice to see a promise in another column, that horned cattle are not in future to have free range of our streets.—We hope that promise will be performed, and the Cattle Ordinance enforced in the strictest manner; for if "horses, hounds and"—the other animals which complete the poet's line—are allowed full swing, in "our good city," we don't see that loose cows need also be added to the nuisances.

☞ Since it has been decided that no steamboat is to ply the Piscataqua the present season, the beautiful yacht Sibyl has been put on the route to the Shoals, under command of Capt. Preble. Persons wishing a pleasant sail to this favorite resort, which is said to possess attractions which no other watering place can attain, and not desiring themselves to take charge of a boat, will find it a most agreeable trip during the warm weather to visit the Shoals under the guidance of Capt. P. REP..

MR. B. FRANK NORTON, whose death was mentioned in the Chronicle of Saturday, was an officer in the famous 7th Regiment of New York; and about a year since the corps were on parade, and encountered a severe rain-storm, and were obliged to remain on duty in their wet uniforms for some hours afterwards. Mr. Norton took a severe cold on that occasion, which was followed by consumption, and has resulted in his decease. He was a young man of many noble qualities, and leaves many friends to mourn his early death.

A FRIEND.

☞ Some anonymous scribbler requests us to "correct the mistake" he says we made respecting the draftsman of the yacht Live Yankee. But he himself never made a greater "mistake" than to suppose any newspaper editor would Chronicle "corrections" or contradictions made by, nobody-knows-who. The press, like the bank, wants some name as endorser, whether it add any security or strength to the matter or not. Our statement was made on the personal authority of the gentleman named in our item—and we shan't alter or amend without better cause than a note written by a man who is afraid or ashamed to give his name.

LIBEL SUIT FOR TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.—It is stated a process has been served on the Boston Courier for libel, the damages being laid at $10,000. The suit is brought by Senator John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, and is for publishing an article which appeared originally in the N. Y. Times. Those who appear to where-of they speak, declare that the Senator will follow up the suit with vigor.—Boston Herald.

FIRE was cried early Saturday evening, caused, we are told, by a slight burning of hay in the barn of Reuben Randall in Jefferson street.

☞ The Geneseo, Michigan Republic says Mr. Leithorne and his wife, of Geneseo, were instantly killed by lightning Sabbath night, 7th inst. There were five children and the aged mother of Mr. Leithorne in the room, but in bed, none of whom were hurt. The storm was terrific.

☞ A late number of the Star Gazette (Texas) announces the death of Rev. Theodore Parker to its readers in the following way:—"Theodore Parker has gone glimmering to his satanic majesty."

☞ A letter from Palermo mentions that the writer has just seen a review of one thousand peasants, armed with all kinds of weapons, the standard-bearer being a priest and the colonel a Benedictine monk, armed to the teeth.

☞ The Philadelphia Press speaks of Hon. Caleb Cushing as "the Aaron Burr of American politics." In turn we hear some who speak of the publisher of the Press as "the traitor Forney."

☞ James Gott, proprietor of the large steam bakery, on Duncan street, Gloucester, committed suicide Thursday night. He leaves a family and was an estimable man.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT
Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE
ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freshness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance some deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for description it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS; take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have injured and impaired their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the disressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and prevent miscarriage from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in the proper way, and in but one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WORMS, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it can safely be used in cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate the necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Numerous equally signal instances of this kind are attested of females suffering, emaciated, victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous irritability, aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorous yet mild, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gentle purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, dry hollow cough, and remittent fever, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicinal iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviative and as a gradual and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, lasting, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS

—of the—

Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Bible Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in one the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Reglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAIRE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says.—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine;—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of a dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives to mind and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the safest and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper

Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of crying disease, and for the body and brain; but all woo have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, stop from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my saiky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally induced to try your Hair Restorative.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, that I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself is not small, to sell it.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
A. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jefferssonian Office, Phillipsi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of by arrival in the United States it was to paidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 17, 1860.

VALUABLE NEWS.—Some Champaign correspondent of the New York Herald, writes from Boston as follows:—

In New Hampshire the aggregate circulation of Douglas papers is rising of 18,000, and of Breckinridge 1800. Deduct the Manchester Democrat, which will probably be reduced two-thirds if it continues against Douglas, and the whole Breckinridge circulation will soon not amount to 1000.—Burke's paper, the Concord Standard, has only three or four hundred subscribers, and has been supported by the black republicans for the last seven years. The split in the Democratic party in the State of New Hampshire is not worth mentioning. Douglas will receive from ten to fifteen per cent. more votes than Buchanan did, and if the Lincoln and Breckinridge officeholders here in Boston continue their combination against him, he will carry four of the New England States, all but Massachusetts and Vermont; and as things are are going, it would not be astonishing to see one or both of the latter go for him. "Ole Abe" bids fair to be swallowed up entirely by the people, and Douglas will have all the North and Northwest but four States—perhaps all but two.

To all this, and more of the same sort, the Boston Herald responds in these words:—

The above is a very intelligent view of the case. We believe, however, that there is but one Democratic paper in New Hampshire supporting the bolter's ticket—the New Hampshire Gazette, which has but a small circulation. The Union Democrat, at Manchester, one of the ablest papers in the State, supports Douglas instead of Breckinridge.

Now, says Uncle Toby, every intelligent democrat in New Hampshire, in his sober senses, knows that Mr. Douglas is about as likely to get the vote of New Hampshire, as Mr. Lincoln is to get the vote of Georgia.—If he knows any thing about the Union Democrat, he perceives its support of Douglas is of the wet blanket order;—and the same thing is true to some extent, of two other papers that put up his name.

They all know that whether the split in the party is or is not worth mentioning, they mention it very often, and look into it very sadly.

They no doubt wish their candidate success, and will give him all the votes they can, but they look for no majority here, nor any great increase of votes.

The nonsense about Massachusetts and Vermont, is simply ridiculous.

We understand that a man at Passadumkeag, Me., lost his temper and his horse one day last week in a manner emphatically disgraceful. The horse was somewhat restive and refused to draw, when in a fit of anger, the brute tied him to a tree and stuck a pitchfork into his body just back of the foreleg, killing him instantly. The horse was worth $125, and was the nobler animal of the two.—Boston Herald.

It is rather bad for a man to "lose his temper"—much more of a loss, we think, than the death of a contrary horse. But a balky brute is not fit to live, nor worth the having—and we don't see that a speedy death like this is more cruel than "knocking in the head," which is the mode generally practiced in such cases on horseflesh which has "passed its usefulness."

THE KEY WEST NEGROES.—The one hundred and twenty-four negroes taken up the Alabama river, the other day, as stated by telegraph, were undoubtedly a part of the captives at Key West. The following paragraph from the Montgomery (Ala.) Mail, furnishes ground for this supposition, and reveals with sufficient distinctness, a plot to steal all the able-bodied men in the lot:—

Yesterday afternoon, a friend of ours returned from a hurried trip to Key West and Havana. He was one of a party of five (B. H. E., P. M. and three others) who visited the Barracoons, via Cedar Keys, for the purpose of liberating some of the healthy Africans there in charge of the United States Marshal. They found another party there from Charleston, and arrangements were satisfactorily made for removing the negroes; but owing to some accident to the steamer chartered on the coast of Florida (it is feared she is lost) the whole scheme failed. The entire population of Key West is said to be opposed to the sending of the negroes back to Africa, and the negroes wish to stay themselves.

The party say that the negroes could be taken very readily by a few determined men. The act would be quite as moral as the government's robbery of the first purchasers.

THE JOHN BROWN SUBSCRIPTION IN HAYTI.—Le Progress, a Port au Prince newspaper, explains the facts relating to the subscription for the family of John Brown, about which there has been some misapprehension in the United States. The subscriptions amounted, on the 23d of June, to $27,031.37 in Hatien, and $684.06 in Spanish currency, which in the currency of the United States amounts to $2486.15. The subscriptions were still coming in, altho' in small sums, ranging from twenty-five cents to ten dollars American currency.

The slaves in some parts of Texas having become very sullen, it is suggested that strangers there should be compelled to give an account of themselves, lest they be abolition emissaries. The cause of this sullenness is the expulsion of the Methodist ministers, the slaves being denied the consolations of religion.—Traveller.

☞ The editor of the Utica, N. Y., Herald, has been on a visit to Mr. Lincoln, by invitation, at his home in Illinois. He gives a pleasant account of his conversation with Lincoln, from which we make the following extract:—

He related many pleasing incidents connected with his contests with Douglas. He told me that he spoke in all sixty-four times—nine or ten times face to face with his antagonist. His estimate of the "Little Giant" is generous. He concedes to him great hardihood, pertinacity and magnetic power. Of all men he has seen, says Mr. L., he has the most audacity in maintaining an untenable position. Thus, in endeavoring to reconcile Popular Sovereignty and the Dred Scott decision, his argument, stripped of all sophistry, is: "It is logal to expel slavery from a territory where it legally exists!" And yet he has bamboozled thousands into believing him.

STRANGE SUICIDE.—In Chelsea, Mass., Saturday evening, Mrs. Isabella Boyce, 96 years old, mother of Robert Boyce, confectioner, committed suicide by hanging herself with a clothes-line. Mr. Boyce left the house early in the morning, and returning at about nine o'clock, found his breakfast, as usual, ready on the table, which had been prepared by the old lady, whom he supposed had retired to her chamber. After partaking of his meal, Mr. Boyce had occasion to go into the cellar, where he saw his mother hanging. The old lady was greatly in fear of fire, and she was up all night on Friday on account of the burning of a stable. The deed was no doubt committed in a fit of temporary insanity, which was hastened on by the fire above named. She was much respected by a large circle of acquaintances in Chelsea.

A MISSING SALEM MAN FOUND DEAD. Mr. Henry Thompson, who was well known as a dealer in gravel, sand, etc., has been missing from his residence in Salem since Wednesday last, but from his well known habits no search was made for him until the following Friday. On the night of that his dead body was found in a tool-house owned by him and situated about three miles from the city. It was found lying upon the floor, partially covered with bedclothes. Mortification had set in, and the skin was almost entirely black. A coroner's inquest was held and a verdict returned of death caused by intemperance, The deceased leaves a wife and children, and was said to be worth from $15,000 to $20,000.

MURDERER DISCOVERED NINE YEARS AFTER THE CRIME.—The Chicago Democrat states that nine years ago Edward Murphy brutally murdered the engineer of the steamer Globe, at Mackinaw. He was arrested and taken to Detroit, but a few months after escaped from prison, and was not again heard of till the 10th inst, when he was recognized in the person of a convict in the Chicago Jail, by a police officer who was severely wounded at the time in an attempt to secure the desperado. Murphy denied the alleged murder, but the officer was positive in his identification, and the murderer now awaits a requisition from the Governor of Michigan. He is a desperate looking fellow. His term of imprisonment would have expired in four days.

TRIBUTES TO THEODORE PARKER.—The Fraternity, (i. e. the Society of the late Theodore Parker,) have just published a neat pamphlet of 60 pages, entitled "Tributes to Theodore Parker, comprising the exercises at the Music Hall, on Sunday, June 17, 1860, with the proceedings of the New England Anti-Slavery Convention, at the Melodeon, May 31, and the resolutions of the Fraternity and the Twenty-Eighth Congregational Society." The pamphlet is for sale by A. Williams & Co., Boston, and J. F. Shores, Jr., Portsmouth.

AFRAID OF THE COOLIES.—Dates from Demarara to the 19th ult. state that the Governor had requested proprietors of plantations to beware of allowing Coolies arms, fearing bad consequences. There had been large arrivals of Coolies from Canton, during the month, in English ships, in two of which nearly 300 had died.

☞ A noble army of martyrs to their prejudices, who reside in the town of Matthews, in the State of Virginia, assembled recently on the village green, and burned a small edition of Spurgeon's Sermons. They then went home, and still the world moved on!

☞ There are estimated to be running upon the railways of the United States, not less than 6,000 passenger cars, and 80,000 freight cars; under the whole of which about 688,000 wheels are running.

☞ A halibut weighing 245 pounds was taken last week by a Gloucester fisherman. This is said to be the largest halibut known to have been taken.

☞ The Japanese left $20,000 to be divided among the police of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.—The latter force will get nearly $14,000.

☞ The old Jackson Democratic Association, at Washington, being disruptured, the Douglas and Breckinridge wings are about to establish separate campaign clubs.

TWO DEATHS IN A WELL.—We learn from the Rutland (Vt.) Courier that while Michael T. Hassett and Thomas Droin were blasting rocks in a well connected with the new Catholic Church, in West Rutland, on Tuesday last, after the well had got to the depth of twenty-eight feet, a blast was put into the rock in the bottom to the depth of seventeen feet, which was fired off. Droin was lowered down to see the effect of the blast, when the sulphurous smoke strangled him, and he fell out of the tub to the bottom dead. Hassett was then lowered to see after his comrade, when he met a similar fate. Dr. Hall of West Rutland was then lowered, (after pumping out much of the smoke and gas,) and when taken up, was with difficulty restored to a consciousness of his impending danger.

☞ The Mountaineer, published at Great Salt Lake City, comments on the census taker of that region, and thinks he is meddlesome and insolent when he undertakes to ascertain how many wives there are in each family. Brigham is very indignant, and winds up his editorial with a warning to the aforesaid official that some "strong-minded" ladies are preparing a shower-bath for him, and advises him to provide himself with India rubber over-alls.

☞ Mr. Buchanan addressed the Washington Breckinridgers on Tuesday night, and admitted that Mr. Douglas is as much the regular Democratic candidate as is Mr. Breckinridge, saying that there is no regular candidate, and that good Democrats could support either the Illinoisian or the Kentuckian. Why, then, does he turn Douglas's friends out of office? Perhaps he meant to hint that, as there was no regular candidate in the field, there existed an eligible opportunity for placing one there, in the person of James Buchanan.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS ARE FOR.—Some are for reviving the foreign slave trade; some for a Congressional slave code for the Territories; some for forbidding the Territories to prohibit slavery within their limits; some for maintaining slavery in the Territories through the Judiciary; some for the "gur-reat pur-rinciple" (laughter)—that "if one man would enslave another, no third man should object," fantastically called popular sovereignty," (renewed laughter and applause)—but never a man among them in favor of Federal prohibition of slavery in Federal Territories, according to the practice of our fathers who framed the government under which we live.—Abraham Lincoln.

LIFE INSURANCE.—The life of the late C. J. F. Stone, Esq., who committed suicide at Plymouth, last Spring, was insured in the international Assurance Society, of London, to the amount of $5000. By the policy, suicide forfeits it to the insured, but if it is assigned to a third person, he can recover the amount of his assignable interest. Stone's policy was assigned to his wife, but by the terms of the assignment, not as collateral security, and therefore technically the policy was forfeited and could not be legally recovered. The company taking an equitable view of the matter, decided to consider this policy as if it had been assigned as collateral. Mrs. Stone's assignable interest in the policy amounted to $4000, which the Society paid last week. Under no legal obligation to pay a cent, the action of this company is entitled to notice and commendation.—Laconia Gazette.

NOVA SCOTIA GOLD.—The excitement about the gold diggings at Tangier river still continues, and increases from day to day. During the week numerous specimens have been brought into town, sufficient to establish the fact that gold does exist there, and in considerable quantities.—Several hundreds of persons are off to the diggings, prospecting, but with what prospect of being remunerated for their toil, does not appear. It is said that there has been some quarreling among these amateur diggers. A stage coach from the city to the diggings is talked of.—Halifax Chronicle, June 30th.

Those heroes, the cattle-commissioners,—and very poor cattle they are,—have killed some more cows innocent of illness. If they don't mind what they are about, they'll become more famous than Guy of Warwick, the greatest of all cow-killers, for he only killed the Dun Cow, while our champions would do for all the cows, if they could have their way. They would leave the world as destitute of milk as they are themselves destitute of human kindness. "The milky mothers of the herd" should send a bull against them.—Traveller.

The poorest are not unfrequently the happiest. A Sultan who as a cure for low spirits, was directed by his physicians to wear the shirt of the happiest man in his domains, selected a gay and reckless fellow, but on stripping him for his shirt, found he didn't wear one.

A NEW KIND OF LEATHER.—One of our western exchanges says that a Frenchman has obtained a patent for making leather of whale skins. The skin is so thick that, after removing the inner portion, which is spongy, the remainder is split to make it of the usual shoe thickness. It is remarkably tough, but as soft as buckskin and it repels water well.

☞ It is stated that the emancipation of several million serfs in Russia will, without doubt, take place some time during the latter part of the present year.

Clem Clay ought to be sent to France, to instruct the imperial government in political economy, as that government has resolved to continue the cod-fishery bounties to 1871.—Traveller.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Vanderbilt, from Havre via Southampton 4th inst., passed the point at Sandy Hook July 14th, at 11 P. M., for New York.

Numerous failures among the leather merchants had occurred in England, the liabilities amounting to over a million and a half sterling. The American houses in Liverpool in the hide trade were not compromised.

The Neapolitan Minister at Paris had resigned since the Baden Conference.

There had been fresh disturbances at Naples. The police stations had been sacked and pillaged, and many persons killed in the skirmish. The King had arrived there, and immediately ordered the formation of a National Guard.

Prince Napoleon will succeed Jerome as President of the Privy Council. He will occupy the Palace Royal, as Marshal of France, and receive Jerome's donations.

The Federal Council of Switzerland will submit the following question for the coming European Conference of the great powers: "Is it in the interest of Europe to leave the Simplon pass perfectly accessible to France, without demanding that an understanding be brought about between the Kings of Sardinia and Naples, relative to the common interests of their crowns in Italy?"

An ambassador from Naples was soon to arrive at Turin, with a proposition from the King of the former for an alliance with Sardinia.

The ministry lately appointed by Garibaldi was unpopular in Sicily, and fresh massacres had occurred.

The Portuguese ministry had been dissolved.

Heenan, the champion prize fighter of the world, is passenger on board of the Vanderbilt, with Jack Macdonald, his second in the late encounter with Sayers.

Among the passengers on the Vanderbilt are J. L. White, late Consul at Lyons, and Col. Cipriani. The latter comes to make arrangements for the reception of Prince Napoleon, who is about to visit this country in a steam yacht.

A dispatch from Naples, dated the 1st inst., says that the concessions of the Neapolitan Government have determined Garibaldi to precipitate annexation.

It is stated that a skirmish took place on the 30th ult., near Messina, between some detachments of Garibaldi's and a portion of the Royal troops.

Morocco has paid the first instalment of the indemnity to Spain.

☞ News from England to July 5.—Failures in the leather trade for 1,600,000 pounds sterling are announced.

It is said that one leather firm will not pay more than one shilling on a pound.—The Times says the break-up is owing to the undue credit granted firm.

English hides 30 and 40 per cent. under forced sales.

The trade of London is very dull. Three firms connected with the Manchester trade have failed.

Garibaldi remains quiet. It is said that concessions by the King of Naples had determined him to precipitate annexation to Sardinia. He has applied to friends in London for two steamers armed with Armstrong's guns.

It is reported that the King of Sardinia declines alliance with Naples, but Napoleon urges due consideration of Neapolitan overtures.

England and Russia have assented to the proposed European conference.

SLEEPING UNDER THE CLOTHES.—There is reason to believe (says Miss Florence Nightingale) that not a few of the apparently unaccountable cases of scrofula among children proceed from the habit of sleeping with the head under the bed clothes, and so inhaling air already breathed, which is further contaminated by exhalation from the skin. Patients are sometimes given to similar habits; and it often happens that the bed clothes are so disposed that the patient must necessarily breathe air more or less contaminated by exhalations from the skin. A good nurse will be careful to attend to this. It is an important part, so to speak, of ventilation. It may be worth while to remark, that when there is any danger of bed-sores, a blanket should never be placed under the patient. Never use anything but light Whitney blankets as bed coverings for the sick. The heavy, impervious cotton counterpane, is especially bad for the very reason that it keeps, in the emanations from the sick person, while the blankets allow them to pass through. Weak patients are invariably distressed by a great weight of bed clothes, which often prevent their getting any sleep whatever.—Scientific American.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness pene, trates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

The subscriber hereby gives public notice that on the twenty-third day of May, A. D. 1860, he peaceably entered upon and took possession of a certain lot of land, situated in Portsmouth, in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, with a dwelling house thereon, and bounded westerly on Dover Street twenty-five feet; northerly by the Reservoir of the Ports. Aqueduct Co., and there measuring fifty feet; easterly by land of H. M. Grant twenty-five feet; southerly by land formerly owned by Nicholas Mason, now owned by James Shaw, fifty feet—said southerly line being formed by dwelling on said lot and the dwelling of said Shaw—now one of the chambers of said shaw's house extend over into the house on said lot described, and is to remain so as long as the two houses shall remain on said lot—said premises being the same which Stephen A. Rice conveyed to N. B. D. 1859;) for conditions broken and for the purpose of foreclosing the right in equity of said Nathaniel B Sides to redeem the same; and at the same time publicly declared the purpose and object of said entry and possession.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the most confident faith in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with the same satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.,—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.

Marriage, Visiting or Business Cards Printed or ENGRAVED in the best manner.

THE DIFFERENCE IN PEOPLE.—We know of one trader in this city, who posts his books up square and balances his cash account every night. We know another with whom we have been trying for more than three years to get a settlement—but are unable to get him to "make out our bill" as yet!

We know two men in this city, both employed in the same business, on salaries;—and while one told us he had always kept his rule to save one-half of every dollar he earned, the other "owes everybody," and this word is as good (no better) than his bond."

We also know two other men in this city, both engaged in the same business, and with families nearly similar; and the one who has always had the smaller pay told us he had never spent $6 per week for his entire expenses, while the other said he could but make things rub and go for three or four times that amount.

These cases may not any of them be particularly wonderful; but the moral is worthy consideration. "Circumstances alter cases," vastly, to be sure; but as to the good and bad luck in the world, most of it can be traced to "the difference in people."

☞ It has been our pleasure of late to visit for the first time the new church recently erected by the Brodhead Methodist Society in State street.

The interior of the church is fitted up with neatness and simplicity, in obedience to the divine injunction "to worship God in the beauty of holiness." The Society who worship in it have shown a commendable perseverance in their endeavors to build up their church, and we rejoice that their efforts are being crowned with success. Rev. Mr. Hall, who has endeared himself to his Society, is one of the most energetic and pleasing speakers in the city—and a most vigorous, judicious and indefatigable worker for the prosperity of the church. REP.

EAST BOSTON, July 13.

Mr. Chronicle:—Another new and splendid Smoking Car will pass through Portsmouth next (this) week. It is of the same pattern as the one you noticed in your paper some time since; and was designed and built under the direction of your old townsman, Capt. John P. Somerby, who is a mechanic and a gentleman in every sense of the term, and has had charge of the repairs of the passenger cars of the Eastern Railroad for the past fourteen years. All those new Gothic cars that have been put on the road for the past three years, were constructed under his direction—smoking cars the same. The painting is done under the direction of Geo. Bunting, a young artist of great promise. He is the one who does the ornamental work on the locomotives of the road.

Business in East Boston is pretty good now, and I am in hopes that the city will become what it was before the crisis of '57,—the workshop of New England. The ferry-toll question now is the great topic, outstripping Lincoln on Douglas; and as soon as we get that decided, I think we shall settle down and prepare for the great fight in November. We are all Douglas—don't know of a Lincoln man here, but suppose there are some. DRACO.

☞ The elegant schooner yacht "Zinga," owned by W. H. Thomas, Esq., of New York, arrived at this port Monday morning, having made the shortest trip by a sailing vessel yet Chronicled—thirty-six hours from Sand's Point to Portsmouth. The Zinga brought the following gentlemen: W. H. Thomas, Robert H. Thomas, S. W. Thomas, Henry A. Thomas, Gilbert L. Haight, A. H. Arnold, and T. B. Aldrich.

THE "LIVE YANKEE."—The Portsmouth Chronicle of Wednesday, in speaking of this yacht, states that she took the second prize in the regatta at Boston. This is a mistake; she was awarded the first prize. It farther states that there has been considerable discussion as to which is the quickest sailing yacht, the Viking of Portsmouth or the Live Yankee. This question can readily be decided, as we are authorized to state that the owners of the Live Yankee will match their boat against the Viking for from $100 to $500, to sail from the outer buoy in Newburyport harbor, around the Isles of Shoals and back.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Mr. William Sawyer, of Haverhill, Mass., has become landlord of the Market Street House, in this city, recently occupied by the late Mr. Charles W. Walker.

☞ Allen & Paine are offering their stock of dry goods, &c., at purchasers' prices, for one week only—as they close their store in Portsmouth in a few days. Don't fail to call.

☞ How much will you give toward having a series of out-door Concerts by the Portsmouth Cornet Band—say part on Market Square, and part in other different situations in the city?

☞ We have in New Hampshire a mountain called Moose Hillock. But some literary quack has lately spelt the name Moosilauke. Let us have no more of this nonsense.

THE LIBEL SUIT AGAINST THE BOSTON COURIER.—We understand that J. A. Andrew, Esq., and A. G. Browne are the counsel for Hon. John P. Hale in his suit for libel against the Boston Courier. It is averred that the Courier not only copied an article from the New York Times in regard to the New Hampshire Senator's course upon the Edwards claim, but placed a heading of its own to the strictures of the paper from which it copied, as follows:—"Is John P. Hale an honest man?" Allusion was also made in another part of the Courier to the comments of the Times. An opportunity was afforded the Courier to retract its statements, if so disposed, but as no retraction appeared the writ was served, claiming damages for $10,000, and attaching the property of that paper as security for the amount claimed.—Transcript.

☞ Mr. Rogers, an employee at Col. Fremont's mills, having been accidentally drowned, his employees made up a purse of $500 or $600 for his bereaved wife, who had been but one week in the country, and the people of Bear Valley gave a handsome sum more, to which Col. Fremont added $500.

☞ The Bath Times is a plucky paper, for it asserts that Mr. Douglas will not only "sweep the South like a tornado," but that "his triumph in the North will prove second only to that of Gen. Pierce in '52,"—and adds, "Mark the prediction. We'll mark it twice, for it is a re-mark-able prediction. Exchange.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT
Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

The Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE
ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is bountiful. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cheerfulness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and if SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, with the accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure patents, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."—CORNELIUS MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uniformly successful success in obtaining patents on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having their claims faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is based upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection of whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVERUSE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full or two glasses as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in the proper dose. It is magic, and experience will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an entire stranger to all the evils with which opiates in all cases of Convulsions or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infants and Children are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Instances of rapid recoveries of the third grade attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous debility and exhaustion to be met with in cases for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorous yet mild, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gentle purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most inveterate cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, anxiety of cough, and irritant heetic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicinal iron has had more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such speedily happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

From the very flattering manner in which our Machines have been received by the public, resulting in the sale of

GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.

THIRTY DIFFERENT PATTERNS,
Adapted to every variety of
FAMILY SEWING.

A FEW CERTIFICATES OF THE GREAT SUCCESS
—of the—
Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines.

[From the wife of the Hon. Jefferson Davis.]

Mrs. Jefferson Davis presents her compliments to Messrs. Grover & Baker, and takes pleasure in saying that she has used one of their box Sewing Machines for two years, and finds it still in good order—makes a beautiful stitch, and does easily any kind of work.

[From J. G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee.]

My wife has had one of Grover & Baker's Family Sewing Machines for some time, and I am satisfied it is one of the best labor-saving machines that has been invented. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public.

[From the Rev. Jonathan Cross, Agent American Tract Society.]

My wife has been using one of your Sewing Machines for the last three months, and pronounces it faultless. She can sew more on it in one day, than in ten in the old way, and without fatigue. The work is beautiful and durable.—She says she would not exchange it for any other one. It is certainly one of the grandest inventions ever made for the relief of woman-kind, and I would recommend every family to get one as soon as possible.

Baltimore, July 14, 1859.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Caper and Ragland, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.
ALLEN & PAINE.

PORTSMOUTH, July 16, 1859.

If you wish to purchase a machine that will do work handsomely and strongly, and will not be liable to get out of repair, call on Mr. Whittemore in Daniel street, see the operation of Grover & Baker's machine, and then place one in your family. They will never consent to part with it, after they understand its operation.

CHARLES W. BREWSTER.

"Zion's Herald," Nov. 10th, 1859, says,—"We would recommend to families and to those about to organize a homestead, to be sure and have a Family Bible, and also one of Grover & Baker's SEWING MACHINES.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine,—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter, "what we do know," after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 3 Cedar st. New York.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but let those who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and extermi nated surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a proud man in my world, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.

Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. TRAUBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes: viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1860.

☞ The Boston Post publishes a letter from ex-President Pierce to Hon. B. F. Hallett, dated June 29. Mr. Pierce says that Mr. Hallett's rejection as a delegate at Baltimore was, in his judgment, "a clear violation of right;" but that the wrong was not more palpable than Mr. Hallett's vindication of sound principles and of his claims to a seat was conclusive and triumphant.—He thinks that the majority report of the Committee on Credentials was calculated to sunder the Convention, and says:

There has been, in fact, no nomination made in conformity with the established usages of that organization, and hence sound and faithful men will find nothing in the proceedings, so far as the nominees are concerned, to bind their fealty.

Under these circumstances, it would gratify him very much if the Democracy everywhere would unite in the support of Mr. Breckinridge and Gen. Lane. But as this is too much to hope for, Gen. Pierce proceeds to inquire whether the division shall be made permanent. He thinks that this is a serious question, which every Democrat should consider at the present time. He is "not without hope that the sterling Democracy of the Keystone State will be able unitedly to support the electoral ticket already nominated by them, without regard to the preference of the individual nominees, but with a satisfactory understanding as to the manner in which the vote of the State shall, in certain contingencies, be cast; and that their example may be followed by other States, and thus something like unanimity be yet secured." The ex-President praises the position assumed by the Post.

Illinois promises to sustain her truly democratic son by 20,000 majority. Lincoln is no favorite in that State.—Bath Times.

This would be a very important statement, if true, says Uncle Toby; and it is a very remarkable statement, though it is untrue.

That Douglas is a favorite of his own party in Illinois, is true: and equally true it is that Lincoln is a favorite of his. The only question is, which is the biggest?—There is no 20,000 majority there for anybody, if we may judge by any late elections,—and a claim of that sort in Maine, just before the State election, is to be received with many grains of allowance.

CURIOUS FACTS.—It was stated in the recent debates in the French Corps Legislatif that out of the 36,000,000 souls in France, 20,000,000 never saw woollen goods of any sort. It has also been recently asserted that 25,000,000 of people there never eat meat oftener than once a week. Paris annually consumes 268,000,000 lbs. of vegetables; the market gardens near Paris cover more than 2760 acres, use 2,160,000 glass "bells," 360,000 panes of glass, (over hot beds), occupy 9000 people, 1700 horses, consume $368,000 worth of manures, and return $2,700,000 by sales of vegetables.

THE COST OF THE WHISTLE.—The New Yorkers are grumbling sorely over immense expense incurred in entertaining the Japanese Embassy, but they will have to face the music and pay the bills. The amount originally appropriated for the purpose was $30,000, but it is found that the cost is four times that sum. The aggregate bills, as presented, footed up $125,000, of which over $90,000 was the hotel bill. By sharp figuring, these bills, it was found, could be cut down to $100,000, and that sum the city will be called upon to disburse.

☞ The publisher of the Greenfield Democrat, who has recently been removed from the Custom House at Boston, relates the story of his wrongs. He shows that he dodged all the quarrels in his party as carefully as a man well could, who had an office and a subscription list at stake, and yet it did not satisfy Gen. Whitney, who pounced upon him first as follows: "You will have to go home, if you don't change the tone of your paper, and that ——— quick too."—This was before the final break up at Baltimore. After that, Gen. Whitney told him he must go with him, or go home—and he went home.

☞ Serious fears are entertained that the Great Eastern will be grounded in the mud bed in New York into which she was with difficulty got, but from which she will find much more difficulty in getting out.—The New Yorkers are in the condition of Mr. Pickwick, who was horrified by the idea that he should be compelled forever to lead the horse he couldn't manage. What a place for the mammoth steamship to suffer shipwreck—at her wharf!

☞ The Bell and Everett party of Connecticut will hold a State Convention on the 1st of August, the anniversary of the emancipation of the slaves in the British West Indies. Isn't this a sectional arrangement?

A JUST SENTENCE.—Some months since, John C. Cann, keeper of a sailor boarding house in Boston, was arrested for robbing John McLaughlin, an old sailor, of $600, by force and violence. The case was of an aggravated character. McLaughlin was discharged from the United States ship Vincennes, and was induced to go to Cann's house to board. He received between $600 and $700 when the ship was paid off, and of $600 Cann succeeded in robbing him.—A part of this amount the wretch secured by shutting the poor old man in a room and threatening him with death unless he gave it up. After considerable delay the case came up for trial in the Superior Court, last term, and though the evidence against Cann was of the strongest character, one juryman was for his acquittal, while the remaining eleven were for conviction. On Monday the case was again up, and the prisoner plead guilty. He was sentenced to five years' imprisonment with hard labor in the State Prison.—That one juror ought to go in with him.

☞ The Northampton Courier records the death, at Goshen, of Rev. Samuel Whitman, at the age of 78, and adds:

He has been insane for many years, and maintained at the expense of the town.—When quite a young man he fitted for college, and was considered a scholar of more than ordinary talent. Intense study probably disordered his intellect. His bodily health has usually been good, and he has during his insanity, which was of a harmless type, in some years earned some thirty dollars for the town above paying his expenses. So that for a time, as the town had no other pauper, their pauper list was a source of income.

☞ About three years ago a man named Charles Hoy of Wooster, Wayne county, Ohio, who had been extensively engaged in wool growing, was detected in forgeries amounting to nearly $70,000. He fled and escaped detection until a few days since, when he was arrested at Mendota, Ill., when it was found that he lived in Nebraska Territory, and had for a long time been engaged in horse-stealing.

☞ One day last week, a woman left her few-days'-old child under the bushes beside the river in Springfield, and then disappeared. No less than twenty applications have already been made for that little babe. The mother has been traced to Worcester, and a certain hack-driver, says the Transcript of that city, is supposed to know who and where she is.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.—The foreign demand for American butter and cheese is rapidly increasing. During the first six months of 1858 there were exported from New York 685,116 pounds of butter, and 2,950,534 pounds of cheese; for the same period of 1860 the export of these articles was—of butter, 366,838 pounds; of cheese, 7,087,256 pounds.

GODEY'S BOOK, for August, is received. The steel engraving is a charming picture styled "Blowing Bubbles." The fashion plate is of the usual elegant style; and the illustrations and patterns are numerous, interesting, and some of them unique. The account of modern coaches is a very curious presentation, and the variety of designs, entertaining and instructive papers, and useful information is certainly remarkable. Godey makes his Magazine more and more popular.

☞ The Norwich, Connecticut, Bulletin says that it is definitely settled that the Douglas and Bell parties of this State are to unite, each side furnishing three of the six electors. The same paper says that the three Bell electors are to be Dennis Kimberly, John A. Rockwell and Austin Baldwin. The three Douglas men have not yet been picked out.

☞ Since the commencement of the present year, nineteen boiler explosions have been reported in a single London journal, causing the death of twenty-six persons. Of these, seven occurred within two weeks. The number of boilers in factories and locomotives, however, is large, estimated as high as one hundred thousand.

☞ N. Holland and his wife, who keep a liquor selling tavern in West Brattleboro', Vt., are under arrest for firing the dwelling house of Clark Jacobs in that village, on the night of the 4th. Jacobs and others had caused Holland to be prosecuted for liquor selling; hence the motive for the incendiarism.

☞ The people of Ogden, near Rochester, N. Y., think they have black snakes there that kill cattle by winding around their necks. Three heifers in one field are supposed to have lost their lives from this cause.

THE CIVIL WAR IN SYRIA still continues between the Druses and the Christians, the Turks favoring and aiding the former. The great Christian powers of Europe might crush the disturbance at once, were they not jealous of each other,—but their jealousy makes them too forbearing towards the Turks. A letter in the Boston Traveller from Beirut, June 17th, says:—

The plot thickens—and I fear that the doom of this people is sealed. About one hundred of the Hesbeyans arrived here yesterday with blood stained garments and with a bloody history of their sufferings and the fate of their companions. Concealed under the dead bodies of more than twelve hundred of their friends and relatives, they spent a long and terrible night—and, after the fiends who had accomplished this awful tragedy left the spot, supposing that none had escaped to tell the tale, these fugitives reached the coast near Tyre, and came to Beirut in boats.

It was a sad story they told; and as they counted over to our devoted missionaries the names of the Protestants whom they saw butchered in cold blood, the hearts of these pious men sank within them. But two of the entire Protestant community were living when the refugees left Hasbeiya, and these were dreadfully wounded perhaps fatally. The American church, and all the mission property, was consumed, and those benighted natives who had been brought to a knowledge of the truth by the American missionaries, and so instructed by them as to be able to sustain their own pulpits and schools with native preachers and teachers, were all cut down, and the Protestant mission blotted out! How mysterious are the ways of Providence!

Hasbeiya contained about six thousand inhabitants, and was governed by a family of Moslem Princes of the Great Shehaab family. Seventy Princes of this name were also murdered, together with the Moslem Judge, his son, and about thirty other Moslems, who had incurred the hatred of the Druses.

The Christians of the Greek Church fare no better than the Protestants. The surviving Greek Christians of Rasheya, in a letter to their Patriarch, state that their friends were massacred after they had surrendered. They say:—

Then they gave us peace and proclaimed the same, but alas, that peace did not continue for more than a quarter of an hour, when they began to burn the town and fire upon us in the beginning of the night.

It was a dreadful hour; they killed the men, cut the children in pieces, throwing them into the fire, violated the women and plundered the property. If any men reach you, these are all that remain.—They took the arms of the murdered; we who are still alive are at the seraglio without food, having no homes, as the town has been burned into ashes, and the Druses come every day to the soldiers, and demand the remainder of the women and children to butcher them.

TOUGH SEA-SERPENT STORY.

The London Illustrated News publishes the following extract from the log-book of one Capt. Taylor—a mariner described as of unimpeachable veracity, and who furnishes the News a picture representing the scene described in his log:

On the 25th of April, in lat. 12 deg. 7 min. 8 sec., and lon. 93 deg. 52 min. E. with the sun over the main yard, felt a strong sensation, as if the ship was trembling. Sent the second mate aloft to see what was up. The latter called out to me to go up the fore rigging and look over the bows. I did so, and saw an enormous serpent shaking the bowsprit with his mouth. There was about thirty feet of the serpent out of water, and I could see his tail in the water abaft of our stern. It must have been at least 300 feet long; was about the circumference of a very wide crinoline petticoat, with black back, shaggy mane, horn on the forehead, large glaring eyes placed rather near the nose, and jaws of about eight feet long. He did not observe me, and continued shaking the bowsprit, and throwing the sea alongside into a foam, until the former came clear away of the ship. The serpent was powerful enough, although the ship was carrying all sail, and was going at about ten knots at the time he attacked us, to stop her way completely.—When the bowsprit, with the jibboom, sail and rigging, went by the board, the monster swallowed the foretopmast staysail, jib and flying-jib, with the greatest apparent ease. He also snapped the thickest of the rigging asunder like thread. He shoved off a little after this, and returned apparently to scratch himself against the sides of the ship, making a most extraordinary noise resembling that on board a steamer when the boilers are blowing off. A whale breached within a mile of the ship at this time, and the serpent darted off after it like a flash of lightning, striking the vessel with its tail, and staving in all the starboard quarter gallery. Saw no more of it.

CIVILIZATION vs. CHRISTIANIZATION. The accomplished editor of Wilkes's Spirit, in writing of his midnight visit to the dens of misery and crime in London, thus graphically describes and moralizes on the horrors he witnessed.

Our policemen brushed the crowd from a narrow passage, the gap of which seemed like the entrance to a pig-sty, and was but wide enough for us to advance in single file. The board flooring, sluiced and undermined by continual streams of filth, plashed under our feet, and our noses were assailed with vapors that seemed almost tangible to the touch. However, we groped on, sustained by a common example, though the loss of my handkerchief almost made me a deserter. Far up in this foul alley we came to a side-door, which let us into an apartment about sixteen feet square, and ten feet high.

All was dark when we entered, but our lantern lit up a sight such as I had never seen before, and such a one as I pray God I may never see again. In that contracted lair lay thirty human beings, men, women and children; yes, thirty white Christians, of a Christian land, packed head and feet in layers, like the black cargo of a slave ship under chase, and most of them, adults as well as infants, as naked as they were born. Some were families, some were man and wife, some were single lodgers at a penny a head. Some wore a few scanty patches, others were partially covered by a sheet, but many were threadless and indifferent to exposure.

In the centre of the room stood a large tub or reservoir, which the comity of the apartment permitted to be used by two or three at once; and in the muck and gloom, and stench and vermin of the place, these larvæ of a stifled and rotten civilization, crawled and grovelled and profaned the rites of nature; and what seems most strange of all, bred souls for immortality. I deal with a repulsive subject, but surgery cannot be fastidious, and I dwell upon the features of this den, because it exists almost within a stone's throw from palaces of nobles, and under the noses, it may be said, of the snuffling hypocrites of Exeter Hall, whose mock philanthropy denies Sunday sunshine to the wearied artisan, and who plunder well-meaning poverty to provide blankets and bibles for the happier heathen.

BILLIARDS.—Somebody wrote to the editor of the Bucyrus Journal a letter of inquiry as to billiards, to whom the editor replied as follows: "Yes, sir, we can tell you about billiards. It is a game consisting of two men in their shirt sleeves, punching balls about on a table, and presenting the keeper of the room with eighteen cents—or as is most commonly the case in this country, telling him just to mark it down. The last mentioned custom has given them the title of billiard markers. If you have a decided genius for the game, you will make a superior player at the expense of about $1000. Blacksmiths and carpenters play it for exercise. It was invented by a shrewd saloon keeper, who was not satisfied with the profit on whisky, and was too much opposed to temperance to water it."

LEAD WATER-PIPES.—In a letter of Dr. Hassal to the London Lancet, he states that poisoning with lead is more common than most persons suspect. He says:—"The whole subject of lead poisoning is one of the greatest importance, and it behooves the public to be thoroughly on its guard against this source of danger to health. For the employment of leaden vessels and pipes, in nine cases out of ten, no absolute necessity whatever exists, and in certain cases they ought, for the better protection of the public health, to be entirely prohibited. From the number of samples of water which I have received, containing lead, I am induced to believe that the metal is more frequently introduced into the system in this way than is expected.—Scientific Amer.

FRUGALITY AND TEMPERANCE.—A gentleman who was discussing the benefits of a regular and temperate life, mentioned as an illustration the venerable Dr. Joshua Jewett of Rowley, upon whom he had recently called late in the day, and whom he found just returning from the haying field, where he had been laboring as is his custom, not from any necessity, but for the pleasure and health of employing himself. The veteran haymaker, who is in his 93d or 94th year, has always lived a regular and temperate life, and pleasantly remarked, in answer to the salutation of his friend,—"Well, neighbor, I really do feel a little tired,"—and effect which would hardly be surprising in haymakers younger than centennarians.—Salem Register.

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so this as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional debilitation. I have since repeatedly had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

"This may certify, that for a number of years I have been afflicted with the Scrofulous Humor, which caused a swelling of my neck and several ulcers, which were very painful, and that by the use of several bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea, they have been entirely removed, and the swelling has all gone from my neck, and it is now over two years since the cure."

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.

Marriage, Visiting or Business Cards Printed or ENGRAVED in the best manner.

☞ Circumstances having rendered it absolutely necessary that the roof of the Chronicle Office should be thoroughly repaired, (to prevent the descending rains from dropping on the heads of our workmen,) and new and larger gutters be affixed, (to stop the droppings of the eaves from falling on the heads of passers on the sidewalk in winter) we have also improved the occasion to insert new sky-lights in our composing room. And after enduring the tearing, splitting, crashing, sawing, hammering, nailing, rattling, banging, thundering noise of a gang of carpenters over our heads for nearly a week, and the inevitable sifting of lime, grit, dust and dirt, from the roof, and plastering on and into ourselves and our types, all this time—at last, when the saws of the joiners (or rather, in this case, the dis-joiners) begin to show through the ceiling, the shower of lime, sand and wood comes too thick, and we cover up our types and machinery, and leave the premises to the invaders, for an armistice of one day only.

In other words, for the reasons above stated, we are unable to work to-day, and consequently can issue no Daily Chronicle on Thursday morning.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band are to make an Excursion to the Shoals on Thursday, in the staunch schooner H. E. Bishop; and this is a good opportunity at once to enjoy a cheap and agreeable sail, and for the public to encourage the Band, (which must necessarily ever be, in a small place like this, much more of a public convenience, pleasure and credit to the people at large, than a source of profit to the organization itself,) by giving it a bumper of a benefit party, and filling the vessel. They eminently merit this, no doubt they will be successful in this as in all their undertakings.

☞ The advantages accruing to our traders and citizens generally, from having the County Fair in Portsmouth, must be apparent to every one. The people called together by such exhibitions, are mostly from neighboring towns; and the continuance of the show for two days affords favorable opportunity for the purchase and sale of many goods needed or desired. No efforts will be spared by the officers of the Society, to render the Fair successful; and our citizens generally seem disposed to render all the aid in their power, by subscriptions and otherwise.

☞ The population of New Hampshire by the census of 1850 was about 318,000. It was thought by many that the census of 1860 would show an increase to 375,000 or so; but a late estimate or guess, sets it at about 330,000.

The work of the census-takers, in this section and throughout the State, we learn, is nearly completed; and the result shows that Marshal Dearborn was very successful in his appointment of deputies for this peculiarly arduous and important work. The State was divided into sixty-six districts, and for these situations there were upwards of five hundred applications.

☞ Posters issued by the Douglas Democratic Committee in this city, call a public meeting at Jefferson Hall, on Thursday evening, to organize a Democratic Club. "Every upholder of State Rights, every believer in the equality of white men," &c. is invited to attend; and the mottoes of the call are, "Hurrah for Douglas & Johnson! down with the rail-splitters! overboard with the stump tails!"

☞ Among the candidates for public favor, in the shape of hotels at Rye Beach, is a new house at Foss' Beach, called the Prospect House. It is a finely-located, and well arranged hotel; and the landlords, Messrs. H. D. & D. M. Foss, as well as Mr. J. D. Dandley, the Superintendent, will be found promptly attentive and accommodating to visitors. The Prospect House is reached by taking the first road to the left after passing that to Wallis's Sands.

EXETER MANUFACTURING COMPANY. This corporation held its annual meeting on Tuesday of last week. The directors made a report, which showed the prosperous condition of the company. Samuel Bachelder, Ebenezer Dale, Ebenezer Sutton, Joseph L. Cilley and Charles Conner were chosen Directors—all members of the old Board. After the adjournment, the stockholders present took dinner at the Squamscot House.—News Letter.

☞ The Hartford Press says that a wealthy gentleman of that city, riding out the other morning, was aroused to wrath at seeing some cattle trespasing on his meadows, and with emphatic curses sent his man to drive them to the pound. He was not at all pleased to learn, as he did soon after, that the cattle were his own!

☞ The metropolis is suffering from an epidemic, commonly known as murder.—Twenty persons have been killed there in ten days.

NEW YORK, July 17.—A dispatch to the Tribune says McLane's return from Mexico looks to his withdrawal from the mission, as there is no prospect of such a change in Mexican affairs as may demand his presence there.

The World's Washington correspondent says Senator Clingman of N. C. has written a letter supporting Douglas.

6000 persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. The Chicago Zouaves will visit her on Wednesday, by invitation, and perform drill movements on her deck.

The Postmaster General gives notice that all the avenues, streets, etc., in New York, are post roads. All private letter carriers are ordered to be suppressed after Aug. 1.

John Morrissey publishes a challenge to Heenan to fight him within four months, for from $10 to $10,000 a side.

FIRE IN NEW YORK.—New York, July 16.—Thirty-four dwellings, stables and stores, on Pig Alley, Washington, Perry and Charles streets, were burned this noon. The fire originated in the wire manufactory of Wm. Van Tassell, in Pig Alley. Among the buildings destroyed were the stables of the New York Ice Company. The rest of the buildings were occupied as tenements, groceries, &c. One hundred and fifty families were rendered houseless. Several firemen were more or less injured. All of the buildings in Pig Alley were destroyed.—Loss $100,000.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Congress having made no provision for an increase of the revenue, the loan bill being designed for the redemption of the outstanding Treasury notes, the Government is left entirely upon the ordinary receipts of the Treasury. But as the customs revenue indicate a heavy commercial business, the Treasury department has no intention of inviting proposals under it at this time.

☞ As Mr. J. Porter Gould was standing on the top of a load of hay in his field at Topesfield, Mass., the horses suddenly started, and threw him backwards to the ground, fracturing his spine in two places so that he cannot survive.

OLD MAIDS.—Many of the satirical aspersions cast upon old maids tell more to their credit than is generally imagined. Is a woman remarkably neat in her person, "she will certainly die an old maid." Is she frugal in her expenses and exact in her domestic concerns, "she is cut out for an old maid." And if she is kind and humane to the animals about her, nothing can save her from the appellation of "old maid." In short, we have always found that neatness, modesty, economy and humanity are the never-failing characteristic of an "old maid."

☞ Colonel Gaulden, whose slave trade speech induced Gen. Butler to leave the Douglas convention, has, it is now reported, changed front and come out for Breckinridge and Lane.

☞ Dr. Thomas Butts, of Southampton, Va., who died last week, has directed in his will that all his servants, 105 in number, shall be freed.

☞ During a fight in a tenement house in Williamsburg on Saturday night, Thos. Lachy was kicked and beaten so severely with an axe, that he died.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.

One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to

WINSHIP'S PATENT

Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators

It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.

The Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE

ICE-CREAM FREEZER.

Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is supplied from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious, invigorating breezes, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the cleanliness of its walks—its freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE
DR. TOWNSEND'S
COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

IS THE GREAT RENOVATOR OF THE BLOOD.

the sovereign remedy for Eruptions of the Skin, Ulcerated Sores, and all forms of Cutaneous Diseases.

These complaints can be speedily and effectually cured by the use of this

WORLD RENOWNED

SARSAPARILLA!

Thousands have experienced its salutary effects, and tens of thousands have witnessed it, until it has ceased to be a question among the intelligent portion of the community.

When the BLOOD becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from the effects of Spring weather, change of climate, want of exercise, the use of a uniform saline diet, or any other cause; this Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the Stomach, REGULATE THE BOWELS, and impart a one of vigor to the whole body.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The public are hereby notified that the preparation extensively known as DR. S. P. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, is now manufactured under my direction and supervision, from the original recipe obtained from S. P. Townsend, of New York; and I certify that it is composed of ingredients PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY; and also that the preparation is not adulterated or compounded, so as to obtain from them their greatest medicinal effect.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., CHEMIST.

Dr. S. P. Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, has a reputation among all civilized nations as the best preparation for which science has ever offered to man. In this resides its peculiar excellence, and to this is due its world-wide renown.

RENOVATING & PURIFYING THE BLOOD

It contains all the vegetable principles which experience has proved useful in clearing the system from disease, and when combined with the highest skill which the refinements of modern chemistry enable us to employ.

Whatever may be said by mortified competitors or splenetic physicians, the fact that this medicine is EVERYWHERE USED, and that its use creates an increased demand, shows conclusively that it possesses medicinal merits of the first order.

CAUTION!

To avoid imposition it will be necessary to see that DR. JAMES R. CHILTON'S CERTIFICATE, as well as the SIGNATURE of Dr. S. P. Townsend, is on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Examines made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal counsel advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AN ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patent practice for the last twenty years, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby are saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications. SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BLOOD FOOD.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—CONSTANT WONDERFUL CURES the Patent Office PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases, the directions must be strictly followed. Price of the "BLOOD FOOD," $1 per bottle.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will invigorate, revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous system shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatuleuce, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to relove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and correctly also will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is not with unfailing success in all cases of convulsions or other fits. Save you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to follow from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE IRON PILLS

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Autorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Immunous in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the general diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, cortical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic symptoms so alert and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, so far from being familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-stimulating; and gently, equably aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also seems to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate incipient CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, speedy restoration of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

A NOVEL POLITICAL DISCUSSION.—A very amusing political discussion was overheard one morning between two colored men coming up Court street, Boston. One carried an apparatus for whitewashing, and the other was laden with a market basket. He with the basket was quite ardent for Lincoln, Banks, and the whole Republican party, while the other denounced any such union with enemies, as he termed the Republicans.

"Well, jes look at us," said the bearer of the market basket; "what you gwine to do? Here's de Beckinridge men—dey all b'leve niggers brutes, wid no rights more'n hogs. Spose'n dey 'lect, what'l niggers do den? Why, dey'll have to run for Canada. Well, spose'n Douglas men 'lect? Will dey 'spect rights o' niggers? Aint Douglas men slaveholders, good many of 'em? Well, den, here's 'Publican party. Dey b'lieve slavery shouldn't go any furder. So fur so good. Well, we might jes well vote fur Bell and Everett, as to vote fur abolitionist. Abolitionist wouldn't git votes enuff to be wuff countin'. If we get 'Publican President we shan't be no wuss, an' if we git anybody else we shall grow wusser an' wusser. I goes for 'proving condition."

"Well," broke out the other, "what's de use 'o voting 'Publican ticket? We don't make nuffin by it. Has Gubornor Banks 'pinted any niggers to offis? Course not.—He neber will neither."

"O, you's ater offis, I see," said the first speaker, "I see's where de shoe pinches.—You won't git any under Gubornor Banks, dat's sure," and the Rebublican darkey roared and gesticulated, as if he thought a colored office holder the most ludicrous thing imaginable. This discussion was very amusing to a couple of gentlemen in front of the partizans—Traveller.

☞ A rude surprise is chronicled by the Pacific Sentinel of Santa Cruz:—

"A few days ago, a party who were at work in the redwoods retired to rest in their cabin at the usual hour, and soon fell asleep. In the neighborhood of morning they awoke, and found themselves in the bushes, some yards distant, the cabin blown down and on fire, their clothes partially burned from them, and their persons considerably mutilated. There were two kegs of powder in the cabin, to which the fire by some means communicated, producing the catastrophe."

☞ The Jackson Mississippian calls Mr. Everett a "slick and oily candidate for the Vice Presidency," and charges him with being an abolitionist of the "most virulent and undisguised form."

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething.

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is
SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine.—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest comendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak, in this matter, what we do know, after ten years experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the MOST EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England and has been used with never-failing success, in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC,

and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest REMEDY IN THE WORLD in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints: Do not let your own prejudices, or the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 8 Cedar st. New York.

Price only 25 cents per bottle.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proof so Strong and Direct
as to
Expel the Doubts of All.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.—Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was entirely destroyed. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your celebrated "Hair Restorative," which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully,
M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Jeffersonian Office, Phillipi, Va., Dec. 12, 1859.
Professor O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give this to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three size viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1860.

☞ Mr. Underhill, an officer of the English Baptist Missionary Board, says, in reviewing Missions in India:

Many of the Hindoos had become Theists, or worshippers of one God, and great numbers were becoming Rhummists, a sect established long ago, but revived with vigor within the last fifteen years. Most of these were men of intellect and education; some of them were becoming electric in religion and philosophy, readers of Theodore Parker and others of his class, and a large proportion of them were favorable to the truths of Christianity.

He calls Theists exactly the same people whom Mr. Gangooly calls Deists.

HON. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS was honored with a grand reception on Tuesday, in Boston, where he met with immense crowds of friends and supporters, great enthusiasm, an eloquent welcome, and a serenade by the Boston Brigade Band.

In return Mr. Douglas made a political speech, on non-intervention, popular sovereignty, and so forth.

Mrs. Douglas is with him, and her fine appearance is much spoken of in the papers. A relative of the lady is a graduate at Cambridge; and their visit is partly on his account.

THE GREAT ECLIPSE, which took place Wednesday morning, engaged the attention of thousands of persons, who watched the appearance of the "King of Day" with great interest and admiration. The morning was remarkably pleasant—there was not a cloud visible, the air was uncommonly clear, and the sky of the deepest blue. The greatest obscuration was at 8.25, at which time the sky assumed a deep blue color, and everything had an unnatural and rather gloomy appearance. The darkness was not unlike that which precedes a sudden shower at noon, and the whole aspect of nature was remarkable.

THE NOVA SCOTIA GOLD MINES.—On the announcement of the discovery of auriferous deposits near Tangier, Nova Scotia, the Lieutenant Governor dispatched one of the professors and chemists of King's College to ascertain their true value and importance. The professor made a half day's examination, and pronounced the whole story a delusion and a snare. He says although a few grains of gold have been found, he would not give a doubloon for all that can be obtained there. Hundreds were digging and crushing rocks, but those who had been there a week had not enough to make a sovereign.

SUPPRESSION OF A REPUBLICAN PAPER IN MISSOURI.—Mr. S. Harbaugh, who has for three years published a "neutral" paper at Lexington, Mo., called the Citizens' Public Advertiser, has been driven from the town, and his printing office destroyed, for hoisting the names of the Republican candidates for President and Vice President.

Query, by Uncle Toby,—Is this an act of national democracy or of popular sovereignty?

GREAT RAIN AND HAIL STORM.—A letter from Sanford, Me., to the Saco Democrat says that town was visited on Friday afternoon last by the severest rain and hail storm ever known in that section. The storm was the most violent about a half a mile from the village. Upon the farm of David Goodwin, Esq., where the surrounding slopes had concentrated it in a small valley, the hail lay to the depth of at least two feet. The farm of N. Chadbourne, Jr.' was visited with equal severity. One field of corn was apparently completely ruined, the leaves riddled and split into ribbons, the stalks bent and broken, while the hail was literally lying in cart loads, and in many places so thick as to bury all signs of vegetation.

On many farms in the vicinity the corn and grain crops have been almost if not completely spoiled. Gen. Bodwell had a large crop of corn and potatoes growing upon a hill side, which were almost entirely washed up by the roots and carried to the foot of the hill.

☞ A telegraph operator writes as follows, in a late number of the New York Ledger.

Fifteen years experience has taught me the fact, that no telegraph line two thousand miles in length, without the aid of way batteries will work either in the air or under the sea.

We might make the same attempt on land. Place a large battery at each end of a two thousand miles line, well insulated and in good working condition, and we cond not get a dot through it. We might possibly get enough fluid through the wire to tell that it was whole, but not a working current.

☞ Soulouque, the banished Emperor of Hayti, having been assured by an old fortune-telling woman that he would succeed in an attempt to reduce the Haytians to subjection, is fitting out a small fleet at Kingston, Jamaica, for that purpose. The Haytians say he will be stoned to death by the women and children if he lands there.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE.—Washington, July 18.—General Bickley publishes an address to the Knights of the Golden Circle. They are ordered to repair to their encampment in Texas by the 15th of September. He says that the citizens of Texas have raised $498,000, and appeals to the Southern States for contributions. The object is declared to be the Americanizing and Southernizing Mexico, and looking to the establishment of a southern confederacy.

Such a course will be taken as not to violate the neutrality laws. The Knights going into Mexico as emigrants, and becoming bonified citizens there.

The movement is said to be under the Mexican sanction. The Knights are represented to number already 50,000.

By a nice typographic blunder, we have the significant word bonified. No doubt these fillibusters will be bonified, for thousands of them will lay their bones there shortly.

THE DOG LAW IN NEEDHAM, MASS.—Patrick Flannigan was brought before Trial Justice George K. Daniel, of Needham, for unlawfully keeping a dog. His Honor punished Patrick for the dire offence, to the tune of ten dollars and costs, amounting in all to seventeen dollars and twenty-five cents. Patrick could not pay up, and was consequently committed to the House of Correction in Dedham, where he will remain forty days unless the fine and costs are paid before the expiration of that time.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE OF PRISONERS.—Sing Sing, N. Y., July 18.—Six convicts made a desperate attempt to escape from the prison to-day, but were prevented from so doing by the officers and guards of the prison. One of them named, John Rhane, was killed; and a ring leader named Christian Bernstein, who is serving out his seventh term for burglary, was knocked insensible before he would submit.

DOLLIE DUTTON.—The profits of this little lady's levees the past year are said to have been upward of $50,000. She arrived at the home of her parents in Middlesex county yesterday, where she will remain for six weeks, and then she will give levees again.

HONOR AND HONESTY.—The difference there is betwixt honor and honesty, seems to be chiefly the motive; the mere honest man does that from duty, which the man of honor does for the sake of character.—Shenstone.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Miss Eliza Hall, a young lady of Nashua, dropped down dead last Monday evening, when bidding adieu to an acquaintance at the door. Disease of the heart is supposed to have been the cause.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—The race between Flora Temple and Patchen will not take place on Thursday, the owner of the latter being unwilling that the horse should run unless he receives a thousand dollars, win or lose.

☞ The arrival of the ship Levi Woodbury at this port, Tuesday evening, was regarded as quite an event—so rarely do the fine ships built here ever return to visit their native place.

DISAPPEARANCE OF A NEGRO BOY.—Newark, N. J., July 17.—A negro boy belonging to Luther Roll, of Augusta, Ga., disappeared to-day, probably by the underground railroad, while the family were at dinner, causing some excitement.

THEODORE PARKER'S LIBRARY.—The executors of the will have notified the city of Boston that the books of Mr. Parker will be ready for delivery, according to the will, by December. There are between 16,000 and 17,000 volumes and have been apprised at $20,000

SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.—Lacrosse, Wis., July 17.—Jacob Rider, who murdered his sister-in-law and mother-in-law at Brownsville, Minnesota, on the 10th inst., committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday. He had been secreted since the murder.

☞ Hugh Rutledge broke both bones of his right arm, Wednesday morning, at 7 o'clock, while running a hand-car from one part of the room to the other, by making some wrong movement.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Hoffman was committed to jail to-day in default of bail in $10,000, on a charge of having issued spurious stock of the Pacific Mail Company.

Three cases of sun stroke occurred yesterday in this city.

A lady named Burling was run over and killed on Hudson street to-day.

☞ Richard H. Pendergrast, of New Orleans, offers a very handsome horse and buggy for sale, price $750, payable when Douglas is elected President of the United States.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN TEXAS.—New Orleans, July 17.—The Hatch buildings, comprising a large part of the business portion of Dallas, Texas, were burned on the 7th inst. Loss $300,000.

THE ROCKINGHAM ASSOCIATION of Universalists will hold their Annual Meeting at Dover, on Wednesday and Thursday, August 15 and 16.

SURETIES MULCTED.—New York, July 17.—Judgment was rendered, to-day, against Com. Vanderbilt and George Briggs, for $20,000 as sureties for Mr. Boker, the defaulting Naval officer.

Love is our best gift to our fellow beings, and that which makes any gift valuable in the sight of Heaven.

TIGHTENING THE SCREWS OF DESPOTISM.—The Milwaukie Democrat states that the keepers of Sherman M. Booth, imprisoned for violation of the Fugitive Slave Law, have taken away his paper, ink, pen, pencil and table, and stripped his room completely, and it is reported that they have been building a cell in the basement of the prison, where they design to imprison him. Some of the guard declare that Mr. Booth could not live a week in that damp, gloomy dungeon.

If these proceedings took place in Sicily, what an outcry the Democratic press would raise against them!

☞ On Wednesday, the 4th inst., as a wedding was about to take place, and the wedding guests were assembled in Greenfield, the bridegrooom was called to the door, and immediately disappeared. To the great grief of the bride, and the astonishment of all their friends, he did not return, and the minister finally left. It turned out that the bridegroom had heard that a debtor of his was just leaving in the cars, and regarding his bride as more certain than his money, concluded to secure the latter first, and in the attempt the cars started and carried him to Northampton.—He returned, however, triumphant, and the knot was tied before he slept.

A KILKENNY CAT FIGHT.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce indulges in the following encouraging suggestions:

Proofs multiply upon us every day that there is no disposition on the part of either Breckinridge or Douglas men for conciliation, union, co-operation or compromise, or anything else but a Kilkenny cat fight. After a while it is possible the Breckinridge party may become the Democratic party of the North, and in the course of events this party and its principle of equality in the Territories will become predominant in the North. But the Douglas men expect to keep up the contest, on their side, for at least one more Presidential contest after the present.

☞ The scales of iron that accumulate around the anvil of a blacksmith's shop are more valuable than manure for peach trees. A shovelful put round a healthy peach tree will be very likely to keep it in good condition; and it is said that trees already diseased have recovered by the application of these scales. Iron in any form will answer a good purpose.

☞ Capt. J. P. Somerby, of East Boston, requests us to state that our correspondent "Draco" gave him "too much credit," in his article on car-making, a day or two since. He says Mr. Allen P. Webb has charge of the car-shop, and he (Mr. Somerby) is also in authority, but under direction of Mr. Webb—"who is one of the best of mechanics and most estimable of men."

We fell into the above-mentioned error, by giving heed to an anonymous writer, which we rarely do.

☞ Our Congregational friends are sick of being doctored. A correspondent of the Congregatinalist says that at the late General Conference of Maine, it was voted to drop the D. D.'s, not only in calling the roll, but from the minutes, so that if any mintster desires to be known as a doctor henceforth, he must carry his diploma in his pocket.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The inquest into the Walton and Matthews murders resulted in a verdict against Charles Jefferds, who is committed for trial.

Nearly 9000 persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. She will make an excursion to Cape May on Monday, 30th inst., returning on Wednesday.

THE BEE FEVER is prevailing in this city to a considerable extent, of late, and threatens to set us all by the ears. There are probably more bees in Portsmouth at present, than ever before.

FATAL RESULT.—Newark, N. J., July 18.—Elizabeth Jamser died last night from injuries received a fortnight since, while defending a young girl from a man named George Wolfgangle. The murderer is at large. Mrs. Jamser leaves a family.

☞ Mr. F. W. Ham of this city, has patented an important and valuable improvement in the working of Melodeons; and has already disposed of a share in his right for a handsome amount. So we are told.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 18.—The Flying Fish, the first of the Royal Squadron in attendance on the Prince of Wales, arrived here yesterday at 11 o'clock. She left July 1st.

THE HAY CROP in this vicinity is being got in,—and is reported to be considerably less than the last—the decrease being chiefly in the yield on the uplands, on account of the dry May. Some grain is also being harvested, and turns out well.

Thousands who dread to have the word death in their mouths, are continually taking the means of death into these thirsty orifices.

☞ Nearly nine millions of bushels of corn have been shipped from Chicago since the first of January. The prospects of the coming crop are causing a general closing out of the old stock stock, in the dry goods phrase.

☞ Mr. J. W. Nutter cut off a part of one of his left-hand fingers in a hay-cutter, a day or two since.

For the Chronicle.

ALAS! POOR PIERCE!

The letter recently written by the illustrious ex-President, "New Hampshire's distinguished son," to his bosom friend, that prince of demagogues, B. F. Hallett, endorsing the disunion ticket of Breckinridge and Lane, may be to the public a matter of some surprise, but is regarded as a most natural and expected performance by all Democrats who have enjoyed, within the past three years, an occasional peep behind the curtains that conceal our party machinery.

No Democrat in this State, at all well posted as to what has been going on for a long time at Concord, under the direction of Judge Minot, Col. George, and other particular friends of Gen. Pierce, doubts that a desperate game has been played to secure for the ex-President another "surprise" like that which befel him eight years ago in the sacred shades of Mount Auburn. To this end, and for the furtherance of this selfish scheme, the State Conventions of the Democratic party have been controlled by the efforts of the Pierce clique; every resolution expressive of true popular sovereignty has been studiously crushed out; every mention of the name of DOUGLAS, in our conventions or by our party organs, declared "bad policy;" and every conceivable trick for stifling the popular sentiment of the party, has been unscrupulously resorted to.

A few weeks prior to the assembling of our last State Convention, Gen. Pierce urged as a reason for dropping Col. Cate, and taking up a new candidate for Governor, the fact that Cate was an advocate of popular sovereignty, and had written a letter, published in the Chicago Times, declaring the Democracy of this State with Douglas upon the slavery question. Fortunately for the party, that portion of the Pierce programme was not played, for want of a suitable actor in the leading part. Very fortunate would it have been for the party, if the Pierce and Minot platform had also been rejected.

After all, this dirt-eating business has been of no avail. Gen. Pierce could not, under any circumstances, receive in the National Convention more than six out of the ten delegates from his own State, and the nicely-laid scheme fell to the ground. It is, therefore, quite natural that Pierce should feel indignant, and anxious to devote the remainder of his life to the abuse and destruction of the Democracy of his State. Nor is it a subject of astonishment, to those who know him well, that in his senseless rage he should throw himself into the hands of his personal enemies and the enemies of his administration. With such a man, the last is the master-passion, and

"Like Aaron's serpent swallows all the rest."

The Democratic party will survive his loss. His letter will injure Franklin Pierce and the Pierce Clique at Concord, more than it will benefit unfortunate Breckinridge or illiterate Old Joe Lane.

The jealousy and hatred borne by Pierce for DOUGLAS, has been no secret; but it would seem that a decent regard for the opinions of the noble and faithful Democracy of his native State, through whose generous aid the highest political honors have been heaped upon him, should have induced Pierce, at least, to remain a quiet spectator of the important fight now making to preserve the name and existence of the party. But he chooses to enter the the field in favor of the disunionists, to get into the political trundle-bed with Edmund Burke, his quondam friend, to crawl down into the lowest deep of political degradation, among such congenial spirits as Yancey, Rhett, Davis and Dr. Loring. Well, let him go. The finger of scorn will be pointed toward him from the right hand of every honest Democrat, and his name will be a hissing, a loathing, and a by-word; a synonym for political treason, and personal dishonor, wherever he goes. DEMOCRAT.

BLACK LISTS.—We occasionally see in the Boston Herald, advertisements offering to sell very cheap, bills due from certain persons named. We have a few accounts of the same sort, for which we are convinced there is no reason why they should not be paid; and after giving due notice to the parties to settle, or excuse themselves, we shall, unless this is done, advertise the same, so that other business-men may be on their guard.

☞ Despite all our care to send no Chronicles (especially no Weeklies) not paid for in advance,—at any rate not to any person out of the city—we find a few names against whom stand charges from Jan. 1, 1860, or thereabouts. We are about revising and copying our list books, and shall mark off all such not paid up to July 1st instant.

☞ It will be seen that J. B. Adams advertises a new and fine-toned Piano-Forte for sale at a bargain.

☞ What is the most agreeable medicine to take? Hive syrup.

THE CHRISTIAN TEACHER is the name of a new monthly journal just established in Boston under the auspices of the Universalist Sabbath School Union. The members hope to make it an effective agency in advancing the Sabbath School cause, and at the same time to impart to it such a general character as shall make it a welcome visitor to any Christian home. The first number is a model of excellence, and shows that the editor, the Rev. C. H. Leonard of Chelsea, has special gifts as a writer. The following gentlemen will act as editors during the remainder of the first year,—each of whom will have charge of the publication for one month:—Rev. Messrs. A. A. Miner, John Boyden, N. M. Gaylord, R. A. Ballou, T.B. Thayer, C. H. Fay. B. F. Tweed, E. C. Bolles, A. J. Patterson, Henry Blanchard, and J. D. W. Joy, Esq. "The Teacher" contains 24 pages 12 mo., and is furnished at one dollar a year.

NEW YORK, July 18.—A shooting affray occurred last night at the Malta Saloon, Heenan's headquarters, between a U. S. Marshall, John Dugan, and a man named Patry McDermott; the latter received four pistol balls, but it is believed that he is not fatally wounded.

The Zouave Cadets will drill to-morrow in the Academy of Music, by invitation of a large number of the most prominent citizens of this city.

Over six thousand persons visited the Great Eastern. The whole number of persons who have visited her since the arrival counts up 55,000.

Heenan accepts Morrissey's challenge.—The Herald publishes a card purporting to come from Morrissey, denying the authorship of the challenge.

The testimony given yesterday in the Walton and Matthews murder case, strongly implicates Charles Jefferds.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says that the Cabinet have decided to order the removal of the Boston Post Office to Summer street.

ST. JOSEPH, July 17.—The Pike's Peak express has arrived, bringing Denver City dates of the 10th.

Great excitement prevailed, arising from reported rich discoveries of gold three miles from Denver City, on Curry Creek. Some hundred claims are staked off, and miners are rushing to secure claims.

New gulches are being discovered in Arkansas, daily, prospecting nearly as well as the California gulches.

The dry diggings will soon be supplied with water.

The trouble with the quartz mills continues to be disheartening. Hardly any of the mills that have been put up this season are paying expenses.

Business continues dull.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.—No positive new case of the disease has been reported to the Commissioners, since the recent session of the Legislature. The new Board was in session at North Brookfield Monday, accompanied by Dr. Martin, of Worcester. They probably will not find it necessary to kill many cattle. In North Brookfield, a heifer belonging to John C. Potter, of Boston, was killed on Friday last, that exhibited traces of a former disease, from which she was recovering. This case proves the recovery of a diseased animal. Two cows have been slaughtered at Lexington, to show that the disease did not extend through that herd into New Hampshire, and also to save the State the expense of isolation. In some cases, especially for young or poor cattle, it is cheaper to kill than to isolate.—Boston Herald.

A FATAL MISTAKE.—Ogdensburg, N.Y. July 17.—Mr. Derby was shot through the heart, yesterday, by Mr. Day, who mistook him for a deer. Both parties were hunting together at the time.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

It is obvious to every one that sole leather is porous, absorbing water, and that the soles of boots and shoes are often damp when they appear dry, causing cold feet, chills, neuralgia, rheumatism, consumption, &c.

Physicians of eminence have pronounced this Metallic Sole an invaluable discovery, and state that, if generally used, it will cause an immense saving of human life.

The right to manufacture and sell the above Improved Metallic Sole for the County of Rockingham has been purchased by the subscriber.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

NOTICE.

The subscriber, having been appointed Keeper of the Pound and Field Driver, gives notice that all Cows and other Neat Stock going at large, without a driver, in this city, will be impounded or proceeded against as the law directs.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

A Query.—Why will you suffer? DYSPEPSIA a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

Dyspeptics, read!

Ashuelot, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, add so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it.—After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHERINE RAYMOND.

From a highly respected physician in Maine

South Paris, Me., Dec. 12, 1859.

Messrs. S W. Fowle & Co.—Gents:—For several years past I have had a knowledge of the Oxygenated Bitters in some cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility. They have generally given satisfaction, and sometimes have effected a permanent cure where other remedies had been used without benefit. I do not hesitate to recommend them. Respectfully yours,

WM. A. RUST, M. D.

SEASONABLE ARTICLES.
One of the most economical and indispensable articles in the hot weather is a good Refrigerator; (a poor one is not worth buying at any price.)—The attention of the public is invited to
WINSHIP'S PATENT
Upright self-ventilating Refrigerators
It is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed; and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous tendency.
This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has given a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.
The temperature is always uniform. The air never becomes stagnant. There is no waste of ice. The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber. Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other.—Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.
All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the common ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MASSER'S FIVE-MINUTE
ICE-CREAM FREEZER.
Requiring less labor and less ice than any other. Simple and durable. Can be used by any child possessed of common sense. With it a constant supply of delicious Ice Cream may be had through the season at a small cost.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,

ISLES OF SHOALS.

This favorite resort for the man of leisure and the invalid is now open. Since last year many alterations and additions have been made, increasing its capacity. Billiard and Bowling Saloons are provided, and every measure taken to secure the comfort and amusement of its guests. An abundance of sweet cream and milk is daily received from healthy cows kept on the Island. The table is faultless. The facilities for fishing have been increased by the addition of new boats and experienced skippers.

When to all these advantages are added the purity of the air—the delicious coolness of the ocean breeze, its invigorating and appetizing power—the loveliness of the scenery—the glory of its sunsets—the clearness of its walks—the freeness from dust, mud, and all other annoyances of the kind—it may truly be said to possess advantages and attractions which no other watering place in New England can attain. The equability of the temperature is a natural advantage over the coast or the mountains, which invalids can fully appreciate.

A daily Packet, the SIBYL, Capt. Preble, runs direct to Appledore from Portsmouth, leaving Pier Wharf on the arrival of the morning train from Boston, and returns in the afternoon. The Sibyl has every accommodation for the comfort of passengers which a Packet requires.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents, Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relating to the Arts, Trades, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, rendering him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby have saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1853.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, and in all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on various rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Healthy human Blood upon being ANALYZED always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the True Standard.—Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The "BLOOD FOOD" is founded upon this theory—hence its astonishing success. There are FIVE PREPARATIONS adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS tending to CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS; No. 3, for DYSPEPSIA. Nos. 4 and 5 are ready prepared for absorption it is taken by Drops and carried immediately into the circulation, so that whatever you gain you retain. Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will relieve all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness, &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organ, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MOTHERS,

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? Because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief, when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP; also, for Softening the Gums, reducing Inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic, it is used with unfailing success in all cases of CONVULSIONS or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which so frequently result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Full directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cents. Prepared only by

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An ancient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocuous in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued stimulation of our cups and mixtures, or very from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description written attention would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of puparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron is most necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-bearing, as the oxides, and its effects are, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally accompany INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known inhibitories.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy, and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and redness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
